ANGLICAN S. S. CONFERENCE

Committee Held in St. Paul's School-room.

Various Business Was Transacted Including Arrangements Made for the "Quiet Day" for the Clergy of P. E. I.

The first meeting of the Anglican Sunday School Conference Committee took place Monday night, in St. Paul's School-room. The members present were the Rev. Archdeacon Heagh, in the chair, Revs. E. I. Woodroofe, C. R. Cumming, J. Simpson, W. R. Shaw, Messrs. P. Pope, Secretary Justice Fitzgerald and L. B. Miller. The Chairman gave a statistical account of the Sunday Schools on the Island.

After the Rev. C. R. Cumming had read a letter he had received from the Bishop of the Diocese the following outline of the sessions was drawn up.

TUESDAY, JULY 4TH.

10 a. m.—Clerical Association.

8 p. m.—Service—Preacher, the Bishop.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 5TH.

THURSDAY, JULY 6TH.

"Quiet day" for the clergy Conductor—the Bishop.

A special committee, consisting of the Archdeacon, Revs. Woodroofe, Shaw, Messrs P. Pope and Justice Fitzgerald, was appointed to formulate a workable scheme for the purpose of advancing and consolidating the various funds of the church in this Island, and to report at the next meeting of the Committee on May 1st.

The Rev. C. R. Cumming was appointed to obtain the names of prominent outside speakers for the Conference in July next, to be given at the meeting of the Committee in May next. It is expected that the wife of the Bishop will take a leading part in the meeting of the W. A. in July.

A full consideration of the formation of a Sunday School Association will take place at the next meeting of the Committee, when the program will be made out in detail. In the meantime each member is to prepare a scheme for presentation at that gathering.

Final arrangements were agreed on by the special committee, Revs. Heagh, Simpson, Cumming and Woodroofe, for the "Quiet Day" for the clergy of P. E. I.

DIVORCE AFTER 40 YEARS.

SPOKANE, March 18.—Marriage bonds which J. G. Caroline Buell endured for nearly forty years were severed by Judge Kannan in the Superior Court recently. The judge stated that he had never before granted a divorce to persons who had lived together so long. The suit was brought by the husband, the wife fought for a property interest only. In the bitterness of their feeling both accused the other with cruel and inhuman treatment. The wife was allowed $10 a month alimony.
