After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, Vernon, where a delicious breakfast was served interspersed with appropriate speeches by Messrs. James and William Murphy, who congratulated the bride and groom on this happy occasion. After breakfast a motor drive was taken to the old home of the bride, and some of her old friends visited, after which they proceeded to the City and had dinner. In the evening they returned to the home of the groom in Lower Newtown, where a bountiful supper was served and a pleasant evening spent. The bride was the recipient of many presents from her friends. The Guardian joins with their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Dunn much happiness and prosperity in their married life.

RODD-JONES—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Rodd, Winsloe on Wednesday, September 28th, at one-thirty o'clock when their daughter Olive Muriel was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to George Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Roy Jones, Hazelbrook. The bride given in marriage by her father, entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March beautifully played by Miss Pearl Jones, sister of the groom, and took her place under a prettily decorated arch. She looked winsome in a gown of gleaming white satin made on princess lines with bolero of silk chantilly lace with veil caught up with a coronet wreath of orange blossoms and carried an arm bouquet of Picardy gladiolii. The attendants were Miss Sue Jones, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid who was attired in rose colored taffeta and wore a bandeau of orange blossoms, she carried a bouquet of mixed gladiolii, and Miss Myra Rodd, sister of the bride as flower girl, dressed in coral taffeta and carried a pretty basket of mixed flowers, dropping petals as she entered on the bride's path. Mr. Stirling Rodd, brother of the bride, performed the duties of groomsman. During the signing of the register the organist played gently "At Dawning." After the congratulations were received the bridal party proceeded to the dining room which was decorated in gold and white where a sumptuous supper was served to upwards of about sixty-five guests. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Harry Gander, who poured tea, Mrs. Willard Prowse, Misses Doris Sellar, Letha Horne and Avis Prowse. The groom's gift to the bride was a camera, to the bridesmaid, a gold compact, to the flower girl a stirling silver ring, and to the groomsman, cuff links. The bride and groom received many useful and costly gifts including cheques, silverware, linen, etc. The happy couple left on a short honeymoon trip, the bride's going away costume being a grey tailored suit with navy accessories. On their return they will reside in Hezelbrook. The Guardian joins in wishing them many years of happy wedded bliss. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at her home where she received many lovely and useful gifts.

Traverse and Clifford Rogers to confer with Mayor John E. Campbell, Coun. A. S. MacKay and Coun. D F. MacNeill to make arrangements for the proper observance of Remembrance Day at the Soldier's Monument.—S.

There was not nearly as high a per cent of rot in Prince Edward Island's seed potato crop as had been expected, Mr. S. G. Peppin, senior inspector in charge of certification service here said last night.

Inspection of tubers in bins was about half complete, the inspector said. Yield for the season would be approximately 160 to 175 bushels per acre, somewhat lower than average, although some growers were harvesting crops of 300 to 400 bushels per acre. As a rule fields giving higher yield had been kept well sprayed and were showing little or no effects of blight rot.

LADIES NIGHT AT CLUB—Last night was "ladies night" at the Charlottetown Y's Men's Club. Chairmanship of the meeting was held jointly by Mr. Fred Holman, president of the organization and Mr. Jack MacNair, in charge of the program. The evening's entertainment included vocal solos by Mrs. N. D. MacLean and Mr. T. W. Bentley, a reading by Mrs. J. G. Patterson while contests were actively entered into by all. A feature of the evening was the presentation of the Club's wedding gift to Prof. and Mrs. J. G. Patterson. Presentation was made by Mr. J. M. MacFadyen. Mr. O. K. Presby was pianist for the evening

—QUIET WEDDING—A quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening, Oct. 12th, at St. Mary's Rectory, Summerside, Rev. G. R. Harrison officiating, when Miss Margaret Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Todd of Rose Valley, became the bride of Mr. Reginald Compton of St. Eleanors. The bride was very attractive in a dress of Alice blue with navy hat and coat. After the ceremony the bride and groom drove to Charlottetown where they had dinner at the Canadian National Hotel. The community of St. Eleanors and Sherbrooke extend hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Compton. On Thursday evening the bride and groom were tendered a charivari by the villagers who were given a cordial welcome.—S.

—POST NUPTIAL SHOWER — On September 28th at the home of John F. and Mrs. McKenna, Central Bedeque, a post nuptial shower was held in honor of John G. and Mrs. Green, and to welcome Mrs. Green to our community. To the strains of the wedding march the bride and groom entered the parlor which was beautifully decorated with ferns, autumn leaves, yellow and white streamers. They were escorted to their seats of honor by little Miss Leona Noonan and Master Jerry Green who had strewn a pathway with autumn leaves. While Mrs. Fred Moyse and Miss Ruth Montgomery carried in the many parcels which were opened by Mrs Harry Green and Blanche Noonan. The many and varied verses were read by Miss Alethea Noonan while Mary McKenna nicely arranged them on the table. The happy couple were then presented with a beautiful boquet of flowers by little Miss Leona Noonan. Mr. Green very fittingly replied and thanked one and all for their many and beautiful gifts, and also Mrs. McKenna for their kindness in giving their home for the occasion. All then joined in singing For They Are Jolly Good Fellows. After extending congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Green a general sing song followed. Music was furnished by Mrs. Clarke McQuarrie on the piano. A dainty lunch was then served by the hostess assisted by the young ladies present. The remainder of the evening was very pleasantly spent in dancing until the wee sma hours of the morning, when all departed to their homes wishing the happy couple all kinds of happiness.
