

She wants to know can she borrow a package of crisp, delicious Grape-Nuts Flakes until tomorrow?

'Sure thing, Ulluk, we always keep an igloo full of matty-rich, sweet-as-a-nut Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes.'

'Those two golden grains, wheat and malted barley sure are cleverly blended, baked and toasted to achieve that glorious flavor and honey-golden crispness of Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes.'

'Brother, we can use that good nourishment in Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes: carbohydrates for energy; proteins for muscle; phosphorus for teeth and bones; iron for the blood; other food essentials.'

'Know what? We're going to cook up some cookies and muffins too, from those recipes on the Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes package. Better make it the big economy size.'

Contract Bridge

VULNERABLE OVERCALLS It appears that no matter how much is written and preached on the subject, thousands of players refuse to give the proper respect to their partners' vulnerable overcalls.

West dealer. Both sides vulnerable. Q 7 4 3, 10 9 5, 4, A J 10 6, A K 6, 7 2, K J 10, 8 3, 9 5, 9, K Q J 8 4 2, A 6 5, K 7 4.

The bidding: West North East South 1 Pass 1 Pass 2 Pass 2 Pass

Before we get around to the play, we must take one more 'shot' at North's action in passing on the second round. It is true that he did not have a powerful hand; but it is equally true that when South could afford to enter the auction, vulnerable, at the two-level, North's holding became a great deal stronger than it had been.

Rural Adventure

CHAPTER I

'Understand, I'm not ordering you to take this assignment—' intoned Chadwick, a departmental head of the Narcotics Division. He hunched himself forward, planting his ample elbows on his cleared desk and studied the man before him.

'You never order me to do anything, Chief—you just toss a weird assortment of clues into the air and watch me leap to catch 'em before they fall in someone else's lap.'

But the other only grinned. 'Still stubborn, aren't you? I thought four years in the Navy might cure that.'

'It cured me of a lot, but not smoking.'

'Okay, it's your body. Anyway, what's the layout?'

'The country is being flooded with opium, so much so that there has been a big drop in the price. Of course, we expected it to increase after V-J Day, but not to the extent it's doing. The intake seems to be quite terrific. You know what that means.'

'Yeah, an ample supply for the mere asking.'

'Right, strangely, the center or port of entry seems to be New Orleans. But we're just surmising that because that's where it's thickest.'

'That's strange the Pacific coast usually has the billing.'

'Yeah, that's what makes this case interesting.'

Stu's brows soared slightly. 'What about Mexico?'

'Very doubtful. The Mexican authorities have been very decent about working with us and watching the border.'

'Yes, but don't you think the stuff is coming in by water?'

'We do, but it's just a shot in the dark.'

'Haven't you any clues at all, Chief?'

'Our man in New Orleans may be in the grip. Stu mused, it wasn't him to be so completely uninformative.'

'Well, one tip, but our follow-up didn't get us anywhere. One high school kid we caught peddling the stuff said he bought it from a stevedore entering the Cafe Duval a waterfront dive. We hung around there with him for days, but he couldn't identify the bird.'

'Waterfront, eh?'

'Yes, of course, we've searched the ships, even the crews and some of the officers, but we haven't found anything but the usual riff-raff trying to smuggle in stuff, but no narcotics.'

'What do you think I can do?'

'Our man in New Orleans may be known by the ring down there, but someone from here could get by. You've been out of circulation for four years, which would be an asset. If you hang around there, Chadwick smiled a bit smugly. 'This will give you a shock—the lead goes to a woman.'

Stu Lawrence sat up abruptly his long, thin fingers gripping the arms of the chair. 'A woman? Are you pulling my leg, Chief? You know I don't approve of women in this sort of work.'

'Only a woman can fill the bill—we want her to get a job at the Cafe Duval as a singer.'

The lines around stu's mouth deepened. 'Whom did you have in mind?'

'Lotus Ames.'

'Never heard of her.'

'This will be her first case.'

'Holy smoke, an amateur, and you're sending her into a set-up like that?'

'Only because I think she is capable and can fill the bill. She's been pestering me for a job; now I'm giving her a chance.'

Lawrence's eyes glittered with anger. He shifted his gaze to the budding chestnut trees beyond the window. When he again faced his chief the anger had faded to mere annoyance.

'Who and what is she?'

'She's an orphan, the niece of a state senator. Her father was in the consular service. Very good background. Family but no money. Graduated from college summa cum laude, has a secretarial job but likes adventure. I knew her mother—she was a very lovely person.'

She was good-looking, he admitted, but she had not lied. But there was a catch somewhere—brain—some sort of beauty didn't go together. Pretty women were shrewd and even very clever when it came to wanting something personal, but when you depended on them to use some real intelligence they failed you.
