The latest news, first of all.

Wm. Greenwood, Orwell, was in the City Tuesday.

The tide will be high tomorrow about noon.

Ernest Duchemin, City, left last night on a trip to Boston.

Joseph Daly, has returned to St. Dunstan's College from a visit to Iona.

The mail train arrived from Georgetown shortly after twelve yesterday.

Mrs. Pf Feehan, Rocky Point, is visiting at North River the guest of her daughter Mrs. J. L. Moreside.

J. A. Mathieson and Hon. J. H. Cummiskey, were passengers east by the mail special to Georgetown last night.

The school at Rocky Point is progressing favorably under the skilful management of the teacher Miss Ida McKenzie.

Ambrose Smith has arrived home from the Northwest. In all his travels he saw no place he liked better than his Island home.

Fred M. Morris and wife of Belle Plains, Sask., have arrived in the City and did not leave for the West as inadvertantly appeared.

The Minto left Georgetown yesterday morning for Pictou taking eight horses, three cars oats and three cars way freight, besides mails and passengers.

The Stanley arrived at Georgetown at ten o'clock from Pictou. She brought two cars mixed freight, one hundred and forty bags of mail and passengers.

W. A. Winfield and William Kelly, City, leave tomorrow morning to install a new switch-board and other apparatus in the Central office at Summerside.

There will, be no service in the Mt. Stewart, Presbyterian Church next Sabbath morning, but there will be the usual evening service and at West St. Peters in the afternoon.

Quite a number of the youth of Rocky Point and the surrounding vicinity assembled at the residence of Mrs. James Alchorn on New Year's Night, where a very enjoyable time was spent in music, games and dancing until the wee sma' hours of the morning, when they departed, wishing Mrs. Alchorn a bright and happy New Year.

Special mention must be made of the feature picture at the Unique, last night and tonight, entitled "Mary Stuart, Queen of Scots." Magnificent, elaborate, grand, it must be seen to be appreciated. One of the finest films ever seen on canvas were some of the comments heard last night from the audiences leaving the hall and it certainly is all that.

The funeral of the late David Small will take place this afternoon from his former residence, Pownal Street at 3 o'clock. The Masonic body of which deceased was a member, will meet at the Masonic Temple at two o'clock and proceed thence to his late residence. The procession goes to the railway station and thence by train to Sherwood Cemetery. The following will be the pall-bearers: Adam Murray, George W. Wakeford, Judge McDonald, Alex. Horne, John Collins and F. H. Beer.

Dr. T. E. E. Robins' Dental Parlors, next door to Beer & Goff's on Queen Street, have been greatly enlarged and thoroughly renovated and Mr. Robins now has one of the largest dental parlors in the Maritime Provinces. The old waiting room has been turned into a lavatory and an impression room with an extra chair has been added. The new waiting room is at the front of the building looking out on Queen Street and handsomely furnished with easy chair writing desk, couch and mirrors, with plenty of good authors to keep the mind busy be the stay a long or a short one. Dainty white curtains adorn the windows, while the rich crimson rug and portiers are set off to great advantage by the pure white walls with their numerous pictures most attractively arranged. The extracting and impression rooms are replete with every convenience for up to-date work and the instruments and chairs used are the latest and best procurable.

"A6 moonlight night, a cheerful hall a splendid program, Elocution, song and music by the choir of the Charlottetown Baptist Church at the Consolidated School, Thursday evening, Jan. 7. 1-5d3ir2i.

The Guardian is pleased to learn that William Alchorn has recoveed from his severe illness and is able to attend to his farm duties again.

J. H. Burns, printer of this City, who accidentally slipped on the sidewalk and broke his leg sometime ago, was taken home from the P. E. I. Hospital on Monday.

James McMahon, Rocky Point, has disposed of his valuable property known as the Greenwood Farm to Stephen Currie. Mr. McMahon intends leaving in the near future for California.

The warmest temperature registered Tuesday night was thirty nine degrees above zero. Yesterday the coldest temperature registered was forty-one degrees above and the warmest forty nine degrees up till nine p.m. last night, when the temperaeure fell to forty three degrees above.

Ivan Brehaut, who has been visiting his home in Alexandra for the past two months, has returned to Westboro, Mass., to resume work at the Westboro' Hat Co., Mr. Brehaut speaks very highly of the United States but thinks there is no place like the Island home.

School teachers are advised that the copies of the Island Hymn will be ready for distribution on Friday the 8th and Saturday 9th inst., at the Education Office. Teachers applying for pay cheques will kindly ask for their copies. Teachers who are not coming in will kindly get a friend to call for their bundle.

B. R. Holman, manufacturer agent, has been successful in securing the agency for the Toronto Lithographing Company's goods, for this Province. Those intending purchasing calendars for 1910 would do well to see Mr. Holman's samples before placing their orders as he represents the largest house of its kind in Canada.

Departed this life at her home, Glen Martin, November, 1908. Annie aged 61 years, wife of Murdoch McDonald and daughter of the late Hugh McLeod. Besides an aged husband, she leaves to mourn two sisters, Mrs. John D. McDonald, Glen Martin and Mrs. John McDonald, Glen William, also one brother, Neil H. McLeod of Sydney. She was highly respected by all who knew her for her kind and loving disposition which she showed during her long illness of nearly three months. She died as she lived trusting in her Redeemer.

The Week of Prayer meetings were not as well attended as might be expected on account of the heavy rain last night. In the Peoples' Church Rev. G. R. White led the service and in the Central Christian Rev. Geo. E. Ross, both speaking on Family and Schools. The services were very impressive and much good is being done. The meeting tonight is in the First Methodist church, where Revs. R. G. Strathie of Summerside and William Harrison will address the meeting on the British and Foreign Bible Society. A special program of music will be intersperced between the addresses tonight. Authems, I lay my sins on Jesus and The Radiant Morn by Woodward.

Despite the downpour of rain New Wonderland was given a bumper house last night. Brown and Wilmot in their change of songs were most acceptable and their dancing is certainly the cleverest ever seen here. Miss Wilmot's dress was exceptionally lovely and she was a bright glowing glimpse of artistic beauty throughout her clever performance. Sid Allison, too, was more than ever a favorite and nightly grows in favor of his audiences. The pictures were grand, notably. The Kentuckian, one of the finest shown here for many months. Tonight a story of ranch life in the West is booked and what with other attractions New Wonderland is assured another good house.
