LOOKING FORWARD TO VISIT —Through a business letter from Mr. S. W. Newsome it is learned he is now turning his thoughts towards his native home land. P. E. Island, after vacationing eight months in the sunshine city of St. Petersburg, Florida. While Chamber of Commerce is boosting St. Petersburg as a summer resort, as well as a winter, and a goodly number are trying it out by staying over summer to be ready for the mild winter, Mr. Newsome's unbiased opinion is that St. Petersburg will never become a popular place for summer tourists. No place excels P. E. Island in summer months for climatic conditions, scenery and a playground for old and young. He anticipates the pleasure of seeing Lusty Frisco clip a few more seconds off Charlottetown race track record in August. Twenty five hundred miles is a long way to go to see Lusty do the trick, but Mr. Newsome hopes he will not be disappointed. Mr. Newsome says Mr. Grady and others made no mistake in packing their collar boxes during the last days of April, as May month registered daily from 85 to 93.

Mr. Dumas Richard of Duvar was instantly killed when he was crushed beneath the engine of a piledriver. The accident occurred at 11:30 Tuesday morning at Kane's Bridge, near Bloomfield, where the reconstruction of the bridge was in progress. In some way the cable of the hoist became entangled under the engine and Mr. Richard who was operating the machine went to clear the cable. Seeing the engine was about to topple he jumped into the ditch thinking to get clear but the engine slid down the loose bank on top of him, pinning him underneath. The men who were working with him had considerable difficulty in getting the engine out of the ditch. Poles had to be used to pry the engine up and it was a strenuous task to extricate the man from underneath.

Dr. Holland of O'Leary was called and came immediately to the scene. He found that the man's chest was crushed by the weight of the engine and that death had probably been instanteous. His face and head were not marred, the whole weight going on his body. Rev. Father Gaudet who was in Summerside was notified and went to the scene at once.

—HUDSON WRIGHT NUPTIALS —The following clipping from a recent Vancouver paper will be of interest to many friends in P. E Island: Solemnized at noon today in Ryerson United Church, was a marriage uniting two well-known families, when Catherine Maude Josephine Wright, daughter of Mrs. Nina Lowther Wright and the late Mr. J. W. Wright of Bedeque, P.E.I., became the bride of Mr. George Frederick Victor Hudson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Hudson of Kerrisdale. Rev. E. D. Braden performed the ceremony at which the bride's uncle, Dr. W. F. Wright, gave her in marriage. Wearing a trim travel tailleur of ivory-toned French wool beneath which was glimpsed a white handmade, tailored blouse of triple sheer, the bride chose all white accessories including a stitched silk sailor hat and pinned to her coat lapel a corsage of pale pink roses. Later Mr. and Mrs. Hudson left on an extended wedding trip to the south and will reside in Vancouver on their return.
