GORDON & McLELLAN,

What's the Use of Arguing

About the merits of "Britannia" Coats and Skirts—you can easily prove the value of these garments by wearing them. All leading dry goods merchants carry a large stock of them. If you are not satisfied with the ready-to wear skirts you have had in the past, just try a next time.

"Britannia" Skirt

We would not put our name on these goods if they were not well cut and well made.

Our designer and head cutter is Mr. George Hay who is well known to be one of the best ladies' tailors in Canada.

Don't buy a coat or skirt that does not have a reliable name when you can buy a "Britannia" garment at the same price.

The name "Britannia" is inside the waist band of every skirt and on the hanger of every coat. Ask for "Britannia" Coats and Skirts; they are the best.

All leading stores have them.

THE ELECTIONS IN FRANCE.

The governmental system of France is a thoroughly representative one. There are two Houses of Parliament, both of which are elective, and these together elect the President, whose term of office is seven years. The Senate is composed of 300 members elected for nine years, and one third of their number retire every three years. The popular branch called the Chamber of Deputies, has 584 members elected by universal suffrage for four years. It is this latter body for which the elections have just now been held. It may be added that the Ministers are responsible to the popular branch as in Great Britain and Canada.

The elections in France are usually held on Sundays as was the case in the present instance. Moreover, in France a member must have a clear majority of votes polled in his constituency, and where there are more than two candidates, as is frequent this involves a number of "second ballots" between the two highest names on the poll. In the recent election there were 150 of these second ballotings, and it was thought that these might lessen the large majority of Government supporters that were elected in the first instance. Such has not been the case. On the contrary, the Government majority has been increased by about 25, with the returns not yet quite complete. The Government majority will now approach two hundred.

Among the notables who will have seats in the newly elected Chamber are M. Labori, the lawyer who figured so conspicuously in the Dreyfus case, while among the defeated are Paul Deroulede, a somewhat famous Nationalist, and Col. Marchand, of Fashoda fame, the hero of the hour a few years ago. Quite beyond all question the elections have demonstrated that the French electorate desire the Republic to continue, if indeed there were ever any doubt on that subject. No form of government which France has had within a century past has shown greater promise of permanence than the Republic of today. As will be seen from the outline given in the beginning of this article, the French republic embodies the great features of a responsible ministry, with the members of the cabinet sitting in Parliament, both of which we have in our political system, but which are wanting in the republican system of the United States.

Our American neighbors from the President down have developed an extraordinary zeal for saving the scenic beauty of Niagara Falls. They were by many years the first to turn the falls to account for power purposes, and had exploited the water power to a large extent before Canadians began. Now that the Canadians are developing power on a large scale on this side the river, and it is found that fully two thirds of the water is available for Canada, as against one third on the other side, the water being so much deeper on this side, the cry has gone up from Americans throats to "save the falls." This cry springs not purely from love of the grand and beautiful, nor is it altogether disinterested.

The death is announced of Henrik Ibsen, the noted Norwegian poet and author, at the age of 79 years. In early life he began the study of medicine, but abandoned it for literature. He travelled for years with the celebrated violinist Ole Bull, was for years manager of a theatre in Christiania, resided for years in Munich, but returned in later life to Norway. He wrote as many plays as Shakespeare, and his dramas, poems and prose writings were translated into many languages His writings include much pungent social satire, and to most tastes seem to accent the evil side of human nature too much. Some of his plays are nightmares, but his knowledge of human nature was profound and his presentation of it rividly realistic.

PRINCE OF WALES COLLEGE CLOSING

of Wales College. Professor Robertson, alluded to the changes which are now being made in the building, and the proposed additions which will be an appreciated boon.

The prizes and diplomas were then presented by the Lieutenant Governor.

Short addresses were given by Mr. Justice Fitzgerald by Dr. Anderson, and Hon. F. L. Haszard.

The Valedictory was a very well written effort, pretty much after the style of the time honored valedictory, so familiar to all, but genuine in its expressions of respect for the facul y, gratitude to the citizens of Charlottetown, and good fellowship for class members.

Here follow the names of the winners of class prizes:

MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

A medicine which keeps babies and children well, or restores them to health when they are ill, is a priceless boon to humanity. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets. These Tablets cure all stomach and bowel troubles, allay the pain of teething and give sound, healthy, refreshing sleep. And the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that this medicine does not contain one particle of the poisonous opiates found in so-called soothing mixtures and most liquid medicines. The Tablets are equally good for the newborn baby or the well grown child. Mrs. Robt. Currie Loring, Ont., says:—"I have found Baby's Own Tablets a splendid medicine for curing constipation and other ills of little ones." You can get these Tablets from any medicine dealer or by mail at 25c. a box by writing The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

RUSHED WITH ORDERS ALL THE TIME

The remark is often made to us, "How is it, you are always so busy?" The answer is a simple one, we give such satisfaction in the work we do, that our reputation is known far and wide, and everywhere all over "Our Fair Island Province," even across the straits to Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Cape Breton, Quebec and Ontario, in fact in all parts of the Broad Dominion we have received orders for work.

Is the question a difficult one to answer? We trow not.

Satisfaction is the essence of success, hence our success in business.

Remember us when in need of work done to your entire satisfaction.
