In Memoriam

MR. WILLIAM HENRY CASELEY

The community of Kelvin Grove, sustained a severe loss when William Henry Caseley, one of the most highly respected and successful farmers of that place passed from time into eternity.

Until a few days before the end he was around and superintending the work of his farm as usual. On Friday, the 16th, he was taken suddenly ill; on Monday he was conveyed to the Prince County Hospital, at Summerside, and in spite of all that human aid could do, he passed away on Tuesday evening, July 20th.

His death, at the comparatively early age of sixty-four (64) years, came as a great shock to his friends and neighbors and in particular, to his immediate family.

The deceased was born in Kensington a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Caseley, of that place.

He leaves to mourn their great loss, his widow, nee Margaret Hogg, three daughters and two sons, Lily, Mrs Ellis Profitt, Long River; Marion, Mrs. Heath Mayhew, Margate; Katherine, Mrs. Stanley Thompson, Margate, Morris of Kelvin, and Leaman at home. And eight grandchildren.

Also four sisters and two brothers, namely, Mrs. John MacLeod, Coleman, Mrs. John W. Hogg, Summerside, Mrs George Barbour, Alberta, Mrs. Alexander MacLure, Western Canada, Edward in Wilmot and Stanley, in Kensington.

The high esteem in which the deceased and family are held was manifest by the large concourse of people who gathered for the funeral, which was held at the home in Kelvin, on Thursday afternoon, July 22nd. Rev. B. C. Salter, of the United Church, Kensington, conducted the service, assisted by Rev. G. Somers of the Margate church. In the course of his address Rev. Mr. Salter paid heart felt tribute to the fine character of the departed. Though quiet and unassuming, Mr. Caseley was a man of great integrity of heart and mind, and as a friend and a leader in the community in which he lived, he will be much missed.

As a faithful member, first of the Methodist, and later of the United Church, at Kensington, and as Chairman of the Board of Stewards, his place will be hard to fill.

As a fitting text for the basis of his remarks, Rev. Mr. Salter took the words of the Apostle Paul, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my Course, I have kept the faith."

This life, so recently ended here, had indeed run a good race, had kept the faith, and had now entered into his just reward.

During the service the choir of the church sang the hymns, "There is no Sorrow Lord, too light, to bring in prayer to Thee." "When the day of toil is done" and "What a friend we have in Jesus." A beautiful rendition of "Crossing the Bar" was sung as a solo by Mr. T W. Bentley, of Summerside.

The pall-bearers were: Messrs. William Cotton, Wesley Champion, William Johnson, J M Laird, A. L. Rogers, and C C. Baker.

Interment was in the People's Cemetery, Kensington —B.

PERSONALS

Mr. C. MacLauchlan, Head of Hillsboro, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Bessie MacLean, of Boston, Mass, arrived in the city by plane, last week on an extended visit to her mother, Mrs. J. A. Rowe, Prince St.

The misses Jennie Cudmore, and Jean MacDougall, of Charlottetown, spent a very enjoyable vacation at Rowanwood, Wheatley River, as the guests of Miss Cassie J. Rattray.

Miss Helen Driscoll, arrived from Ottawa Saturday night and is spending her holidays at her home in Mt. Herbert, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Driscoll.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Johnston have for their guests, Mr. Johnston's brother, Dr. Will Johnston and Mrs. Johnston, and their daughter, Mrs. Godkin and two children.

We are pleased to report that Miss Florence Gamble, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emer Gamble, Tryon, is making a favorable recovery, and is able to return to her home, after a serious operation for appendicitis in the Prince County Hospital.

Mrs. Urville Large, and daughter, Elma, have returned to their home at Albany, after spending the past few weeks at Reuben Large's Wilmot Valley, where Miss Elma, has been convalescing, after her recent operation for tonsils, in the Prince County Hospital.

Professor and Mrs. George Gardiner, New Mexico, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G.W. Gardiner, Grafton Street. The Professor is one of the first five to enlist here on the outbreak of the Great War—the others being Signallers Weeks, Stewart, MacLeod and Boyce. After a brilliant career at P. W. C., Acadia and Harvard, Mr. Gardiner obtained his present position on the faculty of New Mexico's University.

Queen Wilhelmina Opens Jamboree

VOGELENZANG, The Netherlands, Aug. 2.—(A.P.)—Queen Wilhelmina opened the Fifth Boy Scout World Jamboree Saturday with 30,000 Scouts from 31 countries standing rigidly at attention.

It was the greatest gathering in the history of Scoutcraft, the first jamboree since the 1933 meeting at Godollo, Hungary.

Set amid some of the Netherlands' most beautiful scenery four miles from Haarlem, and within easy reach of the North Sea for swimming, the camp is in reality a collection of 10 camps, each accommodating 3,000 Scouts.

Eight thousand British Scouts, including 17 Canadians ,are attending.

Scout News and Notices

Five thousand Scottish Boy Scouts provided a striking feature of the great Youth Rally held at Murrayfield, Edinburgh, in the presence of Their Majesties King George and Queen Elizabeth and the Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret Rose.

Lord Baden-Powell, World Chief Scout, has been awarded the 1937 Wateler peace prize of $10,000, "for valuable services to international good will by means of the Boy Scout organization." The Wateler prize was founded by a Netherlander of that name, who left his entire fortune to endow an annual prize to be awarded the person contributing the most valuable service in the cause of peace.

Boy Scout Association leaders representing 34 different countries and the British Empire will meet at The Hague, Holland, August 10, 11 and 12, for the 9th International Scout Conference. The gathering occurs during the World Scout Jamboree being held in Holland from July 31 to August 13. The Conference will be preceded by a meeting of the International Scout Association Committee with H. R. H. Prince Gustaf Adolf of Sweden in the chair.

The rescue of a dog from a Coronation bonfire was the unusual act of gallantry that won the Scout Gilt Cross for Assistant Scoutmaster Robert Sellman of Ightham, England. While helping keep the crowds back from the big beacon Sellman was informed that a dog had dashed into the base of the pyre and collapsed. Pulling his Scout hat over his face and turning up his collar, Sellman ran in to the fire, and in spite of the terrific heat of burning wood, oil and motor tires, groped for the dog, and found it. Immediately the animal seized his hand in its mouth. By this hold, and although his hand was badly lacerated, Sellman dragged the dog to safety. Unfortunately the animal was so seriously burned that it had to be destroyed. The Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals awarded Assistant Scoutmaster Sellman the association's Bronze Medal.

A new record for running 100 miles was established July 3rd by Rover Scout Hardy Ballington, of Durban, South Africa, when he covered that distance, from Box, near Bath, to Hyde Park Corner, London, in 13 hours, 21 minutes and 19 seconds. The previous record was held by an Englishman, Arthur Newton, who at the age of 51 covered the same route in 14 hours, 11 minutes and 30 seconds. Rover Scout Ballington did his training over the "Comrades Marathon" course, a 54 miles' gruelling run through mountainous country between Durban and Pietermaritzburg, South Africa.

Boy Scout ingenuity and the Scout rule of kindness to animals were exemplified by two Parksville, B. C., Scouts in responding to the yelping of a dog which indicated that the animal was in trouble. Tracing the sound, the boys located the unfortunate animal in an old, partly caved-in 45-foot well. Obviously it would be extremely dangerous to attempt a descent to the dog. The boys found another solution. They secured a box large enough to accommodate the animal, "baited" it with a sandwich and lowered it by a wire. The hungry dog jumped into the box for the sandwich, and the boys hauled him up.

"Blue Springs Scout Reserve," the former Blue Springs Park, near Acton, Ont., the 100 acre property which is to be developed as a training centre for Ontario Scout leaders, was formally dedicated July 21st. The acquiring of the Reserve was made possible by a memorial contribution received from the family of the late Fred J. Mann, of Toronto, and a donation to the Provincial Council of the Boy Scouts Association by the late Col. R. W. Leonard of St. Catharines. The keen interest of Mr. Mann and Col. Leonard in the Scout Movement was commemorated in connection with the opening of the Reserve by the unveiling of a rustic stone monument. The main entrance to the Reserve is marked by a stockade gateway, a reproduction of a pioneer day blockhouse.

Firestone tires are different from all other tires. Only Firestone tires are Gum-Dipped. No other tire has this safety feature whereby eight extra pounds of rubber are absorbed in every hundred pounds of cords. This extra rubber saturates and insulates every fibre of every cord with fine, pure rubber—counteracts internal heat and friction, the greatest enemy of tire life.

In addition, Gum-Dipping safety-locks the fibres and plies together into an inseparable unit to form the strongest and safest tire body ever built. This and Firestone's 2 Extra Cord Plies under the tread, together with the new, wider, deeper and more rugged tread, gives you the longest, most carefree and economical tire mileage, with safety at any speed. Replace worn tires now—see the nearest Firestone Dealer today.

A PITCHER AND A GLASS

Serve the child her milk in a small pitcher and let her pour the milk into her own glass just as soon as she is capable of pouring without a mishap. You can refill the pitcher until she has received the amount of milk you desire her to drink. She will find this service very interesting.

Canadians Attend Opening Of "Roads of the World"

Distinguished Canadian and British citizens attended the opening of "Roads of the World", new exhibit at the Ford Rotunda, Dearborn, when an international group of visitors were guests of Henry and Edsel Ford. Examining the sign which identifies the Canadian section of the unique roadway, which incorporates 18 historic world highways, are, left to right: Mr. Wallace R. Campbell, president, Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited; Mr. A. J. Gordon, K.C., president of the Essex County Automobile Club, Windsor; Mr. Edsel Ford; Mr. Noel Campbell, son of Mr. W. R. Campbell, and Mr. O. A. Bray, acting British consul at Detroit. The replica of the Vaughan Plank Road, built in Toronto in 1837, shows in the right of the picture.
