She will be in Charlottetown for about 10 weeks and while here will relieve members of the provincial laboratory staff when they are on their annual holidays.

TO CONTROL RATIONING—It is understood that Mr. Ferno Graves Charlottetown, has received an appointment in connection with the sugar rationing in this province. Ratificaton of his appointment has not yet been received from Ottawa but he has been preparing for the work for a week in an office in the Chappell Building on Queen Street Until his appointment he was with the firm of Miller Bros

—BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED— A very pretty shower was tendered Miss Olive DesRoches by a number of her friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adrien Caissie. The bride was showered with some very beautiful as well as useful gifts and presented with an address read by Miss Beatrice Doucette. Assisting with the gifts were Miss Clara Gallant and Mrs. Alphonse Bernard. After a delicious lunch had been served the evening was spent in dancing. A feature of the evening was step dancing by a number of guests. The music was furnished by Mr. Caissie and Eleanor Chaisson.—S.

FIRE YESTERDAY— A vacant abattoir on the Kensington Road, just beyond the Exhibition Grounds, was slightly damaged in a late afternoon fire yesterday. The blaze was creeping up the side of the building when firemen arrived on the scene. However, they were able to extinguish it without difficulty. Origin of the blaze was unknown to the authorities but it is believed to have started on the outside of the wooden building. It was formerly used by Roop's meat firm. The time of the fire was about 4.30 p. m. In addition to the city firemen No. 7 Parkdale A. R. P. auxiliary firemen took part in fighting the blaze.

The sudden death of Mr. Thomas L. Smith, 78-year-old Charlottetown storekeeper, which occurred at his home yesterday morning, came as a shock to his many friends. He was enjoying his usual good health on Saturday but was suddenly stricken early yesterday morning and died before medical aid could be summoned.

Born in Charlottetown, the deceased lived here all his life and was a highly respected citizen. As a young man he entered the employ of the Prince Edward Island Railway as a machinist. After spending 15 years at this trade, he left it to open a grocery store. For the past 40 years he has conducted a successful business on the corner of Sydney and Cumberland Streets in the city.

He was an active member of St. Dunstan's Basilica and has been a member of the Holy Name Society of the parish for many years.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Etta McQuillan, one daughter, Mrs. Thomas B. Creighan, and three grand-children.

BRIDAL SHOWER—On Tuesday evening, June 16th many friends and neighbours gathered at the North Tryon Presbyterian Manse to do honor to Mrs. Hammond Bowness (nee Jean Delaney) one of Tryon's popular young brides. The parlor being beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers, and a large white center bell. The bride was escorted to the seat of honor by Mrs. Walter Wood, the many parcels were unwrapped by Jessie Leard Mildred Thompson and Doris McDonald and nicely arranged on tables by Shirley Thomas. The humorous verses were read by Marjorie Cameron. The many gifts included, China, linen pyrex, silver and money. The bride thanked one and all present for their lovely gifts. Then all joined in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow." Lunch was served by the ladies present. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and a sing-song led by Mr Murray. Mrs. Bowness leaves shortly for Bedeque. Mr. Bowness is at present stationed at Camp Borden, Ontario.

Mrs. Stephen Gallant, 30, an Indian woman, was found dead on the highway at New Annan early yesterday, her skull crushed, and her 64-year-old mother, Mrs Len Labobe is in hospital at Summerside seriously injured. The women were believed to have been the victims of a hit and run driver.

An inquest was ordered by Coroner W. B. Howatt of Summerside. A jury was sworn in but no evidence taken. Meanwhile the hearing was adjourned until Friday afternoon while members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police conduct an investigation.

An autopsy was performed by Dr. J. C. Simpson and Dr. J. A. MacPhee of Summerside. Earlier Dr. J. K. Beer of Kensington had been called. He said the woman had apparently been dead some time.

The women were passengers on the late trip of the bus from Summerside to Charlottetown. They got off shortly after midnight at the roadside close to their home at Burrows' Corner, about five miles from Summerside.

It was thought the women were hit as they crossed the road just after the bus pulled away. The younger woman was killed outright while her mother suffered injuries to her hip and probably other injuries as well. She was unable to walk but sometime later crawled to the house where the two lived. No one was home except four small children. All the neighbors were asleep and the youngsters were unable to arouse anyone until after daylight, several hours later.

The mother, a Mic-Mac Indian is unable to speak English and some delay was experienced while police pieced together her story. It was not known definitely how serious her injuries are.

The husband of the younger woman is serving with the Canadian army overseas.

IN ENGLAND—Mr. and Mrs Leigh Warren of this city have received a cable announcing the safe arrival in England of their son, Leighton Warren.

Prince Edward Island lost one of its promising young teachers in the passing of Sutherland B. MacKay of Albany at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown, on May the twenty-first, at the early age of twenty three years.

PRESENTATION — Miss Norma A Younker, secretary to the Deputy Provincial Treasurer, whose marriage to Mr. Frederick C. Jewell, Kingston, takes place this week, was presented with two valuable gifts by the government and staff on Friday. The presentation took place in the Confederation Chamber. The address was given by Major D. W. Campbell and the presentation of a silver service from the government and chest of flat silver from the staff was made by Hon. J. P. McIntyre. Miss Younker was also tendered a miscellaneous shower by the girls of the Provincial Government staff and members of her bridge club Thursday evening.

—CASE ADJOURNED — In the Supreme Court at Summerside on Friday Mr. Justice A. C. Saunders presiding, the case of Estella Harris, Administratitrix vs. Cecil Scharfe and Curran and Briggs was opened and adjourned. The adjournment was granted on account of the fact that the defendants were out of the Province, Mr. Cecil Scharfe being in Newfoundland and Mrs. Curran in Montreal. Counsel for the defence said they had only been notified that morning that the defendants were out of the Province. The case is being brought by the plaintiff to recover damages resulting from the death of her son, James Stirling Harris who was killed in an automobile accident on March 9. The car that struck the boy was driven by Cecil Scharfe plant superintendent of Curran and Briggs. His Lordship granted the adjournment after the evidence of two witnesses had been given. Dr. B. W. Tanton who testified to the cause of the boy's death and Peter W. Pate, barrister of Boston who testified as to the brake markings. The jury on the case are Messrs. Reginald Birch, foreman, Charles Colwill, Bruce Curtis, Stewart Burns, J. Eldon Drumond, George A. Small and Max J. Gallant. The case is adjourned until July 28th. Lawyers acting are Watson MacNaught and Hon. Thane A. Campbell, K.C., for the plaintiff, W. E. Bentley for Mr. Curran and R. R. Bell for Mr. Scharfe.—S.

TUESDAY

—PREACHED FAREWELL SERMON — Rev. Kenneth Sullivan preached his farewell sermon to a large congregation on Sunday evening in Trinity United Church. Rev. Mr. Sullivan leaves shortly to act as chaplain in the armed forces. —S.

Every house in Charlottetown will be required by law to keep on hand a bucket of sand, a pail of water and a long-handled shovel to cope with an emergency fire in the event of an air raid, it was announced last night by His Worship, Mayor B. Roy Holman, chairman of the Charlottetown subcommittee A. R. P. at a meeting of the control board. The City will arrange to have the sand brought here and sold to householders at 10 cents a bucket, it was decided.

—DEATH OF MRS. BENJAMIN BERNARD — There passed away in the Prince County Hospital on Friday evening after an illness of some months, Mrs. Benjamin Richard at 67 years of age. Mrs. Richard was a woman with many estimable qualities and a devout member of St. Paul's Church. She leaves to mourn her husband, three sons and three daughters, Bennie serving with the armed forces overseas; Owen in Bath, Maine; and William at home; Mrs. Peter Sonler and Mrs. John Grady of Summerside and Mrs. John Berwick of Kitchener, Ontario. The funeral will take place this morning at 9 o'clock from her late residence to St. Paul's Church. —S

SUPREME COURT — The final case on the docket of the June term of the Supreme Court was disposed of yesterday morning and the Court adjourned sine die by Mr. Justice A. E. Arsenault, who presided. The case, Lou's Monaghan, plaintiff vs. the C.N.R., defendent, action for damages to plaintiff's motor car at a level crossing, was the only Civil Jury one on the docket. However, an agreement had been reached since it was docketed and the Petit Jury was not necessary. Mr. J. J. Johnston, K.C., represented the plaintiff and Mr. G. J. Tweedy, K. C., the defendent The two other cases on the docket were disposed of last week

WEDDING BELLS. —A wedding of much interest to friends in the Maritimes was solemnized at Kingston, Ont., June 16th, when Katherine Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bagnall, Charlottetown, was united in marriage to Lieut. William Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, Charlottetown, the Rev. Dr. Brown Chalmers, United Church, officiating. The bride is a graduate of Acadia University in H. Ec. and is now dietitian in The Kingston General Hospital. The groom was formerly on the Canadian Bank of Commerce staff here but is now serving a Lieut. on board the corvette Charlottetown. The Guardian joins in happiest congratulations.

FAREWELL PARTY — Miss Davida Baker left yesterday morning for Quebec where her marriage to Dr. Eric James Reedman of Ottawa will take place Thursday. On Saturday evening she was the guest of The Little Theatre Guild of which she was a valued member, at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lawson, Inkerman. During the evening an hilarious one act play entitled "Good Night Davida" was put on by some of the members of the Guild. The ad libbing of the caste and the stage props kept the audience in gales of laughter throughout the performance. At the conclusion of the play Miss Baker was presented with a beautiful pair of silver candle sticks. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Miss Baker was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Colin Stewart, Summerside, and her friends Mrs. G. Elliott Full and Lillian MacKenzie.

—FUNERAL ON WEDNESDAY —The funeral of Mrs. Stephen Gallant who was killed on the highway on Saturday night will be held on Wednesday morning from St. Anne's Church on Lennox Island. The remains which are resting at Percy L. Bowness' undertaking parlors will be conveyed to Port Hill on Tuesday and taken across by motor boat to the island.—S.

—LEAVE FOR VICTORIA — The Misses Teresa and Susie Fitzpatrick of Summerside left on Monday morning for Victoria, B.C., on a visit to their brother, Mr. Peter Fitzpatrick. It is rather interesting to note that the sisters have never met their brother, he having left home when one was only 3 months old and before the other sister was born. Their many friends hope they will have a pleasant trip and happy visit. —S

Fire early today destroyed Alfred Doyle's paint shop on Clark Street here. Origin of the blaze, which was discovered shortly after 1 o'clock was unknown. It had made considerable headway before it was noticed.

Firemen confined the flames to the one building although other structures were close against it at one end.

No estimate of the loss was available. The building was a wooden structure. Repair work had been done to it only recently.

John Sutherland MacKay, 38, of Springfield, P.E.I. was arraigned before Stipendiary Magistrate W. E. Darby at Summerside last night and charged with manslaughter. The charge arose out of the death of Mrs. Stephen Gallant, 30, whose body was found on the highway close by her New Annan home early Sunday. It was believed she was struck by a car.

Date of the preliminary hearing was fixed for June 29. Bail was set at $4,000.

An inquest into Mrs. Gallant's death will be held Friday afternoon.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mrs. Ewen H Anderson was held yesterday afternoon from her late residence 28 Victory Avenue where service was conducted by Rev. Hugh Miller. Mr. T. W. Bentley rendered "Crossing the Bar" while Trinity Church choir rendered "The Lod Is My Shepherd." The pall bearers were: Messrs. Fred Small, Augustine Dowling, Charles Hamm, Anthony Lund, George Buell and Urias McDonald. Interment was in the Peoples Cemetery, service at the grave being conducted by Rev. Mr. Miller.

Enlistments totalling 207 were registered by the seven recruiting depots throughout Military District No. 6 for the week ending June according to figures released by Major G. R. Saunders, District Recruiting Officer, today.

The Sydney Depot, which has been showing the way to the Active Service door for some time slipped back to second place when Halifax put on a drive signing 66 out of 86 applicants. Cape Breton lads led with 105 applicants but 41 were rejected by the medical examiner.

Total enlistments at the various branch depots: Halifax, 66; Kentville, 20; Sydney, 61; Truro, 20; Yarmouth, 12; P.E.I., 14; New Glasgow, 11. The Daily Average for the week over the entire District, 30, an increase of two per day over the previous week.

—DEDICATION SERVICE — A beautiful oak communian table, the gift of Mrs. A. E. MacLean in memory of her husband, the late Hon. A. E. MacLean, M.P., for Prince County was dedicated at the morning service of the Presbyterian Church at Summerside on Sunday. Rev. Wm. VerWolfe, pastor, held the short dedication service before the usual service. He took the texts Rev. 14, versus 1 and 12. The Hymns "For all the Saints" and the Church's One Foundation were sung. Rev. Mr. VerWolfe spoke briefly of the late Mr. MacLean and his work for the church, and in accepting the gift of behalf of the Board of Stewards dedicated the communion table to the Glory of God and in memory of a noble life. A ladies quartette, Mrs. Hubley, Mrs. Whalen, Mrs. Mill and Mrs. Cameron sang an appropriate hymn at the regular service following the dedication. —S

Alexander Affleck, Searltown's grand old man passed away yesterday morning in his 99th year, following a short illness. Mr. Affleck was born in Dunstaffnage. He left there when about 16 years of age with his parents, when the family settled in Searletown where his father had a very large farm. Later Mr. Affleck took to farming on his own account having a large section of the farm lands owned by his father.

He married Margaret Crockett who passed away a few years ago and they had five children, one daughter, Mrs. Margaret Emma Howatt and four sons, John Stuart at home, Joseph W. Alexander, Hammond and William. The latter resides in Halifax and is expected home for the funeral. Hammond lives on the original homestead and the others close by. For several years Mrs. Howatt has lived with her father and tenderly cared for him in his declining years.

Mr. Affleck was a progressive farmer and was never happier than when going over his farm lands, taking stock of everything. He was a man of integrity and the soul of honour, well beloved by a very large circle of friends. On April 20, his birthday, friends came from far and near to see him. On these occasions he would welcome each visitor personally and chat about the things of the day.

Up to the last he had a keen mind and kept himself well informed on improved farming methods as well as keeping up to the minute on the news.

About a week ago he became ill. Sunday a nephew visited, Mr. J. P. Crockett of Charlottetown. Mr. Affleck said he was very sick. "I won't be here this time tomorrow. Jimmy," he whispered when Mr. Crockett was leaving.

Mr. Affleck was a staunch member of the Church of Scotland. To his family and his grandchildren and great grandchildren sincere sympathy is extended. The grandchildren included nine granddaughters and one grandson. The funeral notice will appear later. —S —MARRIED IN HALIFAX—Miss Helen C. Rogers, R.N., of Halifax, N.S., and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Rogers of Kensington was married in Halifax on Sunday night to Lieut. Cyril Hickey, son of Mrs. Hickey of Summerside and the late J. C. Hickey.

ACCEPTS POSITION — Miss Virginia McNeil, Summerside and Miss Mary Harper, Tignish, graduates of Notre Dame Commercial Class have received notice from the Civil Service Commission at Ottawa that they have successfully passed in the recent examinations and that positions await them. Miss Harper left yesterday morning for Ottawa while Miss McNeil has accepted a position in Summerside.

Daniel A. MacLeod, beloved husband of Myrtle Stewart MacLeod, (formerly of West Point,) passed away into the presence of His Lord on June 4, 1942. Mr. MacLeod was born in Vernon River, Prince Edward Island, August 5, 1892, the son of Donald and Sarah MacLeod. He came to Quincy as a young man in the fall of 1912, at which time he united with the United Presbyterian Church. He became active in the work of Christian Endeavor, and served as a teacher and superintendent of the Sunday School. For many years he has been an elder in that church. He was engaged as a building contractor, but feeling the call to prepare for Christian service, he entered the Philadelphia School of the Bible in 1929. After eighteen months he was stricken with serious illness which caused him to discontinue his studies. Upon his recovery, he resumed his work as a builder and carried on Christian work in the vicinity of Quincy and Boston. He and Mrs. MacLeod were identified for five years with the Quincy City Mission which had its beginning as a prayer group in the MacLeod home.

WEDNESDAY

FUNERAL AT KINROSS — The funeral of the late Mrs. John S. Martin, Kinross, took place June 22nd from her late residence. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Harvey Bishop assisted by Rev. A. S. Wier and Rev. J. M. Fraser. The pallbearers were Messrs Walter Scott, Angus Martin, Samuel Hume, R. C. MacDonald, W. A. Jenkins and Harold Martin. Interment was in Orwell Head Cemetery.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Manse, Charlottetown, on May 19, 1942, when the Rev. D. C Boothroyd Pastor of the United Church of that city united in the holy bonds of matrimony Miss Minervia Estella Ramsay, second eldest daughter of C. A. and Mrs Ramsay of Breadalbane to Cecil William MacFayden of Union Road. The young couple looked beautiful and were attended by Mr. and Mrs. John MacKenzie of the city. A very large circle of friends join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. MacFayden many years of happy wedded life. (Pioneer and Patriot Please Copy).

Mr. Douglas Aitken, Fortune Bridge, was elected president of the Holstein-Friesian Association at the annual meeting held yesterday in Prince of Wales Colloge. A feature of the annual gathering was the presentation of certificates for Superior Production to three prominent Holstein breeders which took place at a luncheon in the Blue Room of the Old Spain.

Other officers elected were: Vice President, Mr. R. A. Profitt, Freetown; Mr. Cecil J. Stewart, Hampshire, Secretary-Treasurer. The remaining directors include: Messrs. Andrew Jardine, Kensington, John Colwell, Kingston, Layton Jones, Pownal and J. Lincoln Dewar, New Perth.

No. 62 Beach Grove Inn and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gallant of this city. Capt. the Rev. W. McCardle Chaplain at Beach Grove performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass

As the bride entered the Basilica on the arm of her brother, Mr Bernard Gallant the wedding march was rendered by Mr. Ding Connolly who presided at the organ and also accompanied the vocalists.

The bride was attractively gowned in a street-length gown of Turquoise blue and wore a corsage of Talisman roses.

She was attended by Mrs. D. S. Edgar, Ottawa, sister of the groom who was in the uniform of the C.W.A.C. and who with Sergt. D. S. Edgar who supported the groom, are spending their honeymoon in the city.

ATTENDED GENERAL ASSEMBLY—Mr. Chas. E. McDuff has returned from the General Assembley of the Presbyterian Church in Canada which was held at Montreal. The sederunts were all well attended, and many matters concerning the church were dealt with. It gave him much pleasure to listen to an address on "Girls Welfare," delivered by Miss Margaret Webster, Travelling Secretary for girls work. Though very young she gave an excellent address on every part of her work and it must have been very gratifying to her parents Rev G. Carlyle and Mrs. Webster who were present. While in Montreal Mr. McDuff saw many Islanders, all of whom are well and in good positions. Among the number were Mr. Geo. McNeill of Milton, his son Earle, and daughters Phyllis and Norma (Mrs. Heber Campbell), Heber Campbell, Harry Campbell, Arnold McDonald of Nine Mile Creek, Harvey McRae of Bonshaw, Garfield McLeod of Long Creek and Mrs. Pearlie Shaw of Stanhope. He called on Mrs. Harding Dewar of Charlottetown and there saw Miss Ena and Miss Jeanette McFadyen of the Royal Victoria Hospital. All were glad to see him and he was happy to know that so many of his old friends and neighbours were making good in the Metropolis of Canada.

FUNERAL AT CALEDONIA—The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Morrison was held from the MacLean Funeral Home to Caledonia Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. Bruce of the Canadian Legion War Service.

—BEDEQUE PASTOR REMEMBERED — Rev. Mr. Barker, pastor of the United Church at Bedeque was fittingly remembered by the Young People's Society at a very enjoyable social evening held last week in the church vestry. Rev. Mr. Barker is leaving shortly to take a pastorate in Nova Scotia. Mrs. Arnold Henderson the president, presided. The address to the minister was read by Mr. Ralph Callbeck and the presentation made by Miss Helen Bowness. After Rev. Mr. Barker had fittingly acknowledged the gift a very nice social evening with refreshments brought the evening to a close.—S

—PASTOR REMEMBERED The young people of Trinity United Church gave a surprise party for their pastor, Rev. Kenneth Sullivan shortly before he left to take up his work as chaplain in the armed forces. At an enjoyable social evening they presented him with a very lovely gift. Miss Gladys Arthur and Mr. Davis Murray had charge of the entertainment. Miss Marjorie Mollison read the address and Miss Geraldine Darby made the presentation. Rev. Mr. Sullivan expressed his grateful thanks to the young people after which a jolly sing song was taken part in by all the members. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.—S

CASE IN COURT — Attorney General Thane A. Campbell, Messrs. R.E. Mutch, George J. Tweedy, C. St. Clair Trainor, and James O. MacLean, left yesterday at noon via the P.E.I.-N.S. car ferry for Halifax. They are on the mainland in connection with the case of the King vs. Northumberland Ferries Limited, which will probably be concluded in the Exchequer Court of Canada today. The case was opened in Charlottetown two weeks ago but the evidence of one witness in Halifax was still to be heard and, as it was difficult for him to come here, it was decided to finish the case there. It is a claim for additional compensation for two boats requisitioned by the government.

TRIBUTE TO AIRMAN — Tribute to the late Sgt. Pilot George Kenneth MacRae, East Royalty, was paid by Rev. G. Carlyle Webster at Zion Church morning service on Sunday. Sgt. MacRae, who was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacRae, was reported missing in March of this year but later word came that his body was found in Northern Scotland. He was 21 years of age. Rev. Mr. Webster said in part, "When first I learned that he was missing I knew there was a sense in which that might be true but I also knew it was not true for Kenneth was a Christian. He had definitely decided for Christ and no Christian can ever be missing and he can never die."

MUCH DAMAGE — Further particulars about the disastrous fire which gutted the paint shop of Mr. J. Alfred Doyle on Clark Street early yesterday morning reveals that damage was in the vicinity of $2,500. The loss was partially covered by insurance. A number of ladders, a large extension ladder, also blocks and falls to handle staging were stored in the building and these were destroyed in the blaze. Firemen were delayed in reaching the scene of the fire because of some misunderstanding as to the locality of the alarm. The wooden building is owned by Mrs. Jasper Pickard who said last night that she estimated the value of the building to be $1500. It is better known to older residents of the city as the tannery of the late John L Godkin.

THURSDAY

On Wednesday, morning June 24th, at a quarter to twelve in the United Church at St. Peters, N.S., a wedding of unusual interest took place when Miss Ruth Christie, younger daughter of Rev. G. A. and Mrs. Christie of St. Peters, was married to Rev. Donald Boothroyd, assistant minister of Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, P.E.I. The ceremony was performed by the father of the bride, assisted by Rev. F.E. Boothroyd of Sydney, the father of the groom, with Mrs. Charles Morrison of St. Peters officiating at the organ.

There passed peacefully away at the home of Sterling MacLeod of Upton, on Sunday evening, May 31st, Robert Lucas Matheson, in the sixty-eighth year of his age.

The funeral was held from the United Church at Dundas on Tuesday, June the second. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Green. The remains were laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery, beside those of his sister, who predeceased him some months ago.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Seymour Taylor, Homer Turner, George Turner, Murdoch MacLeod, John Beaton and Samuel Nicholson.

Several hundred people attended the pleasant entertainment on Government Grounds last evening which was sponsored by the wives of R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. members here. The feature attraction was the baby show which proved to be a great success with 26 babies entered.

"Ye Olde English Fete," as the entertainment was entitled, realized the sum of $270 which will go to the Merchant Seamen's Charities. The event was opened at 4.30 by His Honor, Lieutenant Governor B. W. LePage.

The winners of the keenly contested competition were: One year and under, 1st George MacDougall; 2nd. Barry McGillivray; Over one year and under two, 1st. Donald Inch; 2nd. Annie McKay. In the latter class two other babies, Carolyn MacLean and Gloria Edgecombe, were given special mention.

News of the death of 11-year-old Florence Leonie Macdonald, daughter of Major Leo F. Macdonald, now overseas with the Canadian army, and Mrs. Macdonald, Charlottetown, which occurred yesterday in the City Hospital, came as a shock to her classmates and friends. She passed away following a tonsolitis operation.

She was born in the city and for the past few years was a popular pupil at Notre Dame Academy. Only last week she had attended the closing exercises and had the distinction of leading Grade five in the final examinations.

Surviving besides her parents are: two sisters, Claire and Patricia and one brother, Donald; also the following uncles, Rev. George Macdonald of St. Dunstan's University; Leonard Macdonald, manager of Swift Canadian Company, Charlottetown; Louis Macdonald, Halifax; Walter Towan, Toronto; also one aunt, Miss Margaret Towan, Charlottetown, and her grand-father, George Macdonald, Cornwall.

St. Dunstan's Basilica was the scene of a pretty June wedding yesterday morning when Gertrude Blanche Griffith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Griffith, city, was united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Gordon Gallant of the C.N.R. Office of the District Passenger Agent and District Freight Agent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Gallant, also of this city.

The ceremony was performed and the Nuptial Mass celebrated by Rev. Wilfred McCardle.

As the bride entered the Basilica on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage the wedding march was rendered by Mrs. Joseph Dougan, Organist, who also accompanied Miss Mary Moran who rendered appropriate vocal selections

FINAL MEETING FOR SUMMER—The last dinner meeting of the Kinsmen Club for the summer was held at The Charlottetown last evening. Plans were discussed with regard to summer activities and it was definitely decided that something would be done for underprivileged children as in past summers. It was announced that a cheque for $200 has been sent to the Milk for Britain Fund. A letter was read from Lieut. Allister McLeod, a member on naval service. Al enclosed a $10 cheque for the Milk Fund.

The funeral services for L.A.C. Emmett Francis Allan of the R. C. A. F., who was drowned at Ottawa last Saturday while swimming took place from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, Emerald to St. James Church, Summerfield, on Thursday morning and carried out with full military honors. The Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Eugene Murray. Members from No. 9 S. F. T. S. attended, in charge of Flying Officer Williamson. Flight Lieut. R. E. Ellis represented the commanding officer.

The air force band with muffled drums, firing party and air force escort accompanied their late comrade to his last resting place. The last post and Revielle were sounded by the trumpeters. Many friends from far and near attended the service.—S.

The story of Britain's darkest hour was told last night in stirring addresses by four British King Scouts at a large and enthusiastic meeting in Prince of Wales College auditorium. The hall was almost filled to capacity by interested listeners as the "blitz" heroes gave a graphic account of various phases of the air raids which hit their homeland early in the war.

The scouts, who came to Canada on the invitation of the Dominion Scout Association, include: Stanley Newton, 8th Holborn Troop, London; John Bethell, 65th Birkenhead Troop; Hugh Bright, 110th Glasgow Troop and Roy Davis, 26th Southampton Troop.

The boys tempered their stories of the horrors endured by the civilian population in "the land of knights and judges" with humerous little anecdotes prevalent in England and Scotland at the time of the Luftwaffe's frequent visits.

—PRETTY WEDDING —A very pretty June wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning in St. Mary's Church, Indian River, when Miss Ruth Enman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Enman of New Annan became the wife of Mr. Ivan Lambe, son of the late Michael T. Lambe and Mrs. Andrew Hughes of Springfield. Rev J. N. Trainor performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. The bride who was given in marriage by her father was very lovely in a white wedding gown with torso length bodice, full skirt and train with flowing veil and carrying a white prayer book showered with streamers. Her sister Mrs. Harold Gormley of Boston attended her, and wore a pastel rose gown with shoulder length veil of poudre blue and colonial bouquet of roses. Mr. Carroll Lambe supported the groom. The girls' choir under the direction of Mrs. Edgar Hickey rendered appropriate hymns during the Mass. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast and reception was held at the home of the bride which was attended by relatives and friends. A profusion of summer flowers were charmingly arranged in the reception rooms. The bride's table was daintily appointed with gleaming silver and flowers and centered with a three tiered wedding cake. After a short honeymoon the bride and groom will make their home at the Lambe homestead at Springfield. For her wedding trip the bride chose a rose ensemble. Mr. and Mrs. Lambe have the best wishes of their many friends for their future happiness.

LEGION MEETING — The regular monthly meeting of the Canadian Legion was held last night in the Legion Home with the Vice President, Mr. James Robison in the chair. Mr. J. F. Leightizer, who recently attended the Dominion convention as branch representative gave an interesting report of the meeting. The local branch of the Legion decided to co-operate fully with the authorities in the observance of Army Week and will take part in two parades. Delegates named to the Provincial Convention to be held in Charlott
