GERMAN SHIPS WERE BUILT IN 30 MONTHS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—It is announced that one of the battleships of the German 1911 programme has been ordered from the Weser Shipbuilding Company at Bremen. It is indicated that this order is in the nature of a reward for the Weser Shipbuilding Company's success in the construction of the battleship Thuringen. The Kiel correspondent of the Cologne Gazette calls attention to the "noteworthy achievement" of the three sister battleships Ostfriesland, Helgoland and Thuringen, in a period of "from 31½ to 33½ months" apiece. He gives the dates as:

Ostfriesland, begun at Wilhelmshaven on Oct. 19, 1908, and ready for ea in July, 1911.

Helgoland, keel laid at Kiel middle of December, 1908, and ship delivered to naval authorities at beginning of August, 1911.

Thuringen, keel laid at Bremen in the autumn of 1908, and successful trials at end of April, 1911.

The correspondent remarks that "with the increase in displacement there has been a constant reduction of the period of construction" of German battleships.

The new facts and figures shed an interesting light upon the controversy of the last two or three years concerning the rate of German naval construction. It will be remembered that, chiefly by antedating the actual commencement of the ships, Germany declared officially that the first, or Nassau, class of German Dreadnoughts, took an average period of 38.6 months to build. On March 30, 1909, Admiral von Tirpitz stated, with a great show of indignant repudiation of all conflicting suggestions:

"The view which has been expressed in the English Parliament that the period of construction for single ships has of late been considerably reduced—to 30 or even to 26 months—is incorrect. As formerly, we still continue to build our ships in about 36 months in the Imperial yards in about 40 months. To this period must be added trials which last several months." A year later, on March 23, 1910, the North-German Gazette, in a semi-official attack on Mr. McKenna, still said:

"The period of construction is about 36 to 40 months. Accordingly the approximate date of the completion of each battleship can easily be calculated."

It now appears from the calculations of the Cologne Gazette that the German official and semi-official calculations were wrong, and that German indignation at British scepticism was justified. Instead of taking 40 months to build, as a ship built in an Imperial yard ought to have taken, the Ostfriesland, according to the Cologne Gazette, has taken only 33 months, and the ships built in private yards at Bremen and Kiel have both taken considerably less than 36 months. Further, work upon all three ships was stopped for months or more by the strike in August, September.

As the distance from point of departure to destination would be nearly two hundred miles in a straight line, it will be noticed that it averaged a little more than four miles a day on its easterly and northerly course. Fishing is dull round the eastern shores at present.

...*A visitor to Cardigan Bridge writes:—In reading the report of the cyclone of August 12th I don't see any reference made to the damage done to Henry Green's buildings, North Cardigan. I myself visited all the places touched by the storm, saw no damage done anywhere as great as at Mr. Green's. His implement shed at west end of barn was picked up bodily, carried in the air and was smashed into matchwood, passed by front of barn, picked up the coach-house a building 18x28 feet, carried it some 15 feet, came down with such force as to break sills, plates, girths, in fact is a total wreck, about five tons of hay stored in the loft, two waggons in building, pulper driving sleigh and lots of heavy stuff. Nothing was broken or damaged which seems very singular when one looks at the sorry look of the building. Mr. Green's loss will mean quite an outlay to make repairs.

MATTERS ARE IN A BAD WAY IN PORTUGAL

LISBON, Aug. 28—The political situation in Portugal is taking a serious turn. The Republican party is now completely divided. The advanced element under the leadership of Alfonso Costa, provisional minister of justice, asked him if he wanted to but city, asked him if he wanted to but of justice, and the conservative section under Antonio Almeida, provisional minister of the interior, and Senor Camacho, declared open war at the elections for the presidency, the moderates winning the day. The general opinion is that the government will be unable to resist the fierce attack of the ministers, and in such case dissolution of the chamber will be inevitable.

Strikes are developing which threaten to have serious effect on the court. Forty thousand cork cutters, lightermen and general dock workers are now out. The Diare Noticias reports that at Moita, Almada, Aldegaga and Alcochete, which are centers of the cork cutting industry, the people are abandoning their homes in fear of trouble. Acts of violence have already been perpetrated. Official buildings are closed and guarded by the militia and the streets are patrolled by the troops.

HUSBAND DEAD CAN'T FIND WIFE

BOSTON, Aug. 28—Although John Howard Vincent, an Everett expressman, has been dead a week, the police have been unable to locate Mrs. Kate Maud Vincent, his widow, who left for a vacation in the provinces three weeks ago today. Only her husband knew her itinerary and unless she is found the body will have to be buried.

Vincent was found dead at his home. Two letters dated Halifax, Aug. 12 and 20, came from Mrs. Vincent, but no address was given. In one letter Mrs. Vincent mentioned the name of Mrs. Tina Smith and the Carleton House, Halifax. A telegram from the hotel says Mrs. Vincent is unknown. The Vincents have a three-year-old daughter attending Holy Angels' Convent, in Sydney (C. B.)

Mrs. George H. Sudsbury, of Sydney, is a sister of Mrs. Vincent, but she says she has not seen or heard from the missing woman. Mrs. Bates, Spring Garden road, Halifax, another relative, has been asked by the police to aid them.

NEW ENGLAND COTTON MILLS CLOSE DOWN

BOSTON, Aug. 28—More than 60,000 cotton mill operatives in the New England states will be idle until Sept. 5, partially emphasizing the most drastic curtailment policy which has been forced tin nearly 20 years.

Many millions of spindles will be idle this week, and it is estimated in mill circles that the production will be less than 50 per cent. of the normal output. Many mills have been closed for a week or more and Saturday and today their number was increased.

Some of the cotton machine shops will be idle this week as will the Bigelow Carpet Mills at Clinton, employing 2,000 and the Cochero Print Works at Dover, N. H., with 1,000 hands.

Many of the plants affected have been shut down several times since spring. A general resumption of activity will occur Sept. 5, although many mills will continue curtailment until conditions are more certain.

HIRAM CARPENTER'S WONDERFUL CURE OF SKIN DISEASE

After 20 Years of Intense Suffering.

"I have been afflicted for twenty years with an obstinate skin disease, called by some M. D's. psoriasis, and others leprosy, commencing on my scalp; and in spite of all I could do, with the help of the most skilful doctors, it slowly but surely extended until a year ago this winter it covered my entire person in the form of dry scales. For the last three years I have been unable to do any labor, and suffering intensely all the time. Every morning there would be nearly a dustpanful of scales taken from the sheet on my bed, some of them half as large as the envelope containing this letter. In the latter part of winter my skin commenced cracking open. I tried everything, almost, that could be thought of, without any relief. The 12th of June I started West, in hopes I could reach the Hot Springs. I reached Detroit and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lansing, Mich., where I had a sister living. One Dr. — treated me about two weeks, but did me no good. All thought I had but a short time to live. I earnestly prayed to die. Cracked through the skin all over my back across my ribs, arms, hands, limbs; feet badly swollen; toe-nails came off; finger-nails dead and hard as a bone; hair dead, dry and lifeless as old straw. O my God! how I did suffer.

"My sister, Mrs. E. H. Davis, had a small part of a box of Cuticura in the house. She wouldn't give up; said, 'We will try Cuticura.' Some was applied on one hand and arm Eureka! there was relief; stopped the terrible burning sensation from the word go. They immediately got Cuticura Resolvent, Ointment and Soap. I commenced by taking one tablespoonful of Cuticura Resolvent three times a day after meals; had a bath once a day, water about blood heat; used Cuticura Soap freely; applied Cuticura Ointment morning and evening. Result: returned to my home in just six weeks from the time I left, and my skin as smooth as this sheet of paper. Hiram E. Carpenter, Henderson, N. Y."

"We hereby certify that we are acquainted with the aforesaid Hiram E. Carpenter, and know his condition to have been as stated. We believe his statement to be true in every particular." L. B. Simmons & Son, Merchants; G. A. Thompson, Merchant; A. A. Davis; Millard E. Joiner, Merchant; John Carpenter; A. M. Leffingwell, Attorney and Counselor-at-law, all of Henderson, N. Y.

The above remarkable testimonial was written January 19, 1890, and is republished because of the permanency of the cure. Under date of April 22, 1910, Mr. Carpenter wrote from his present home, 610 Walnut St. So., Lansing, Mich.: "I have never suffered a return of the psoriasis and although many years have passed I have not forgotten the terrible suffering I endured before using the Cuticura Remedies."

Since this cure was made by the Cuticura Remedies, they have made their way to every part of the civilized world. A 32-page booklet describing humors and affections of the skin will be mailed free to those desiring further information by the Potter Drug & Chemical Corporation, Boston, U. S. A.
