THE SUMMERSIDE GUARDIAN

Office—Upstairs Royal Bank Block—G. M. Matthews, Mgr

Read Thos. Wilkinson's ad in this issue.

Wm McFarlane, O'Leary, has returned from a trip to the west.

A. E. Arsenault was a passenger to Charlottetown last evening.

There were 120 passengers going and 50 coming by the boat yesterday.

Miss May Tweedy, Alberton is visiting Miss Lulu Wright, Summerside.

Miss Sadie McDonald, Montague is the guest of Mrs. H. H. Beer, Summerside.

Mrs. Charles Wright who spent the summer here left yesterday for Boston.

Miss Dorothy Brennan left for Toronto yesterday where she will attend college.

Ask your dealer for INVERNESS SCREENED coal — NONE BETTER. t

Wm. Wright, the well known Montreal commercial man, is spending a few days in town.

W. S. Beairsto returned last evening from a holiday trip to the Toronto Exhibition.

Fourteen appeals were heard yesterday against the assessment made by the town assessors.—Pat.

Lieut. Miller of the Salvation Army has been transferred to St. John. Lieutenant Winchester is here in his place.

Miss Ella Silliphant, Summerside, P. E. I., who has been visiting friends here, returned to her home Monday.—Sussex, N. B, Cor.

As the price of lambs has risen to be quite profitable the farmers in this vicinity have begun in raising them. A span load purchased by T. Oulton was driven to Shediac on Friday to go by the Steamer Northumberland for the purpose of being exhibited on P. E. Island.—Sackville Post.

A pleasant event took place last even- at the residence of Otis W. and Mrs. Gamble, Linkletter Road, when their daughter Miss Lulu and Alfred Linkletter, son of the late Joseph Linkletter, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. D. McCully in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Linkletter leave for Lowell, Mass. where they will reside.

George S. Inman, Montague, was in Summerside yesterday.

There were three horses shipped by the Northumberland yesterday.

Don't forget the Athletic sports on Summerside Driving Park this afternoon.

Theodore Wright, Lot 7, returned home yesterday after spending the last two weeks in Summerside.

Thos. Travers, who with his wife and family reside in Rockland, Mass; is spending a few weeks visiting his old home and friends at Alberton.

The schooner Miletus bound for Gaspe from Sydney with coal put in here leaking and sold her cargo to the Steam Navigation Co. The schooner Ada M. is discharging lumber for Percy Tanton.—Pat.

The marriage took place yesterday morning of Wilfrid Gaudet to Miss Amelia Peters. The ceremony was performed by Rev J. C. McLean. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents. The happy couple left on the morning train for Charlottetown where they will spend their honeymoon.

The regular Monthly meeting of the Town Council was held Monday night with Mayor Compton presiding. A large and influential deputation from the various temperance organizations of the town waited on the Council to impress upon them the necessity for a strict enforcement of the Canada Temperance Act. Another step was taken toward the opening of Summer Street whereby it was decided to apply to the judge of the County court for the appointment of another arbitration in the Fanning matter. J. B. C. Baker handed in his resignation as Auditor as he is about to leave the province. His resignation was accepted and Frank McMillan received the appointment. Neil McQuarrie, K. C. was appointed Town Recorder.

James Gallant, Worcester, Mass., son of Captain Frank Gallant, Tignish is spending a couple of weeks at his old home fishing and shooting. He is accompanied by Messrs. Cavanaugh, Delino and Gleason also of Worcester. They are all delighted with the Island and are already making plans to return next year bringing a large party with them. Mr. Cavanaugh is in rather delicate health but says that the Island climate has already done wonders for him. Mr. Delino who is one of the leading architects of Massachusetts, has found much to admire in the beauty of some of our churches. Mr. Gallant is another example of our successful Islanders abroad. Leaving here some years ago with scarcely money enough to pay his fare to Boston he is today the owner of a large hotel and one of the principal restaurants in Worcester. Judging by his ample proportions he seems to have thrived physically as well as financially in Uncle Sam's Dominion. Mr. Gleason is reporter and photographer for the party and has already forwarded to American papers many interesting articles. He is at present preparing a short sketch on the game and fish of the streams and marshes of P. E. Island which will no doubt induce many tourists to visit here. This will be illustrated with photographs taken on the spot.
