Old Coughs

Keep in close touch with your family doctor. No medicine was ever made that could take his place. Trust him at all times.

Old coughs, desperate coughs, rasping coughs, extremely perilous coughs, coughs that shake the whole body. It takes a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine, to master such coughs. A great many people rely on Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block---Charlottetown

"The latest news first of all."

The Cacouna will arrive in this port this morning with a large general cargo.

G. R. Wallace, Manager of the Bank of Nova Scoeia, City, left yesterday for Montreal.

Miss Ella Large, milliner with H. W. Turner, O'Leary, has returned from a visit to this city.

Potatoes were selling yesterday at eighteen to twenty two cents per bushel and turnips at ten to twelve cents.

James Calder, Sr., left Glasgow, Scotland, on Saturday last en route to his home in this city after a most enjoyable visit.

The International Correspondence School will have a specially interesting ad in to-morrow's issue which should be read by everyone.

Queen Street, City, is being put in an excellent condition. The street, which was low, is being built up and macadamized in the best possible shape.

The third game of the Intermediate Football League will be played between 2nd S. D. C's. and P. W. C's., at the C. A. A. Grounds at 2 p. m. today.

Shipping is very brisk at the city water front yesterday. Five vessels were towed to Mt. Stewart, three to Vernon River and two to West River yesterday.

George A. McDonald, City, received a cablegram from Edinburgh saying that his uncle Daniel McDonald had passed away at the advanced age of eighty three years.

The concrete walks through the public gardens have again been resumed after the Exhibition. They are a fine addition to the square and will be greatly appreciated during the winter months.

Loose hay sold yesterday at forty-five to forty-eight cents per cwt, loose straw at twenty-five to thirty cents and pressed hay at eight to nine dollars a ton and pressed straw at five to six dollars per ton.

Advertisers are requested to have their "changes" in for the Morning Daily and The Rural Daily not later than ten a. m. on Friday of each week as part of the big Saturday issue is printed on Friday.

Any reader who receives a dirty or poorly printed copy of any issue of The Guardian will confer a favor on the management by forwarding same promptly to the subscription department, when a well printed paper will be sent by return mail.

The big chimney of the Power House at the Railway works, city, is completed and is an enormous structure. Its height is about 128 feet and on the side facing Water Street about midway up in large letters is the figures 1908. It is an imposing addition to the excellent railway yards.

On Friday Oct. 6th, a very quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Ashley Leavitt, Concord, N. H., when Miss Gertrude E. Cameron, daughter of A. W. Cameron, Albany, was united in marriage to Harry S. Morgan of Hebron, N. H. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will reside in the future at their home in Hebron. The best wishes of their many friends accompany them.

H. M. Rogers & Company, No. 11 Fulton Fish Market, New York, are wholesale commission dealers in all kinds of fresh fish including smelts and eels, and do business in this Province from year to year. As will be seen by their ad they desire consignments at once, and knowing the excellent quality of the article procurable want them from Prince Edward Island. Exporters writing to the above firm will be sent full particulars as to the best manner of shipping as well as other valuable information.

Persons sending advertising to The Guardian will confer a favor on the management if they will state whether they want it in The Morning Daily or Rural Daily, how long and how frequently they wish it inserted in each, and whether as a business local, display ad, or classified ad, bearing in mind that if for the latter it can run but for consecutive insertions. All ordinary amounts under one dollar are accepted on a cash in advance basis and ten per cent discount given, except to those who have a regular advertising account.

MARRIED

The women's market was well attended yesterday. Butter was plentiful at twenty-four to twenty-five cents per pound, eggs twenty to twenty-two cents, chickens fifty to seventy-five cents per pair and ducks fifty to seventy cents each.

Among the arrivals registered at the Victoria Hotel, City, yesterday morning were Arthur E. Guild, Boston; Dr. Andrew McPhail, Montreal; Lyman Wheeler and wife, Boston; Rev. C. A. Campbell, Halifax; W. F. Tidmarsh, City.

The Guardian has received from Frank H. Wilson, wholesale and commission dealer in fresh and frozen fish including smelts and eels, clams etc., 176 Atlantic Avenue, Boston a very handsome calendar for 1909. On a purple back ground is a magnificent white horse while standing on the bars of a fence is a little maiden with her hand on the horse's nose "making friends" as the picture is entitled.

Provincialists who desire a ready market for their products are asked to write John Nagle & Co., 176 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, who handle smelts and other frozen fish on commission. As the firm thoroughly understands the requirements of their American customers their goods meet with prompt disposal, and they are thus enabled to give their shippers the highest market prices. They make prompt and satisfactory returns as will be seen by their ad in this issue.

The demand for fresh fish on the New York market is always good, and in order to supply the kind desired by their customers, John Dais Co., 107 Fulton Market, New York, are again this year soliciting consignments from this Province. The above firm, which is well known to Provincialists makes a specialty of bass, smelts and eels, and will furnish stencils on application, promptly answer all correspondence. They give as references the Greenwith Bank, Trust of America or any wholesale fish house in the United States. Their transfer agents are S. B. Wiley & Sons, Boston.
