The closing exercises of Clinton School, No. 23, for the holidays took place on Thursday last. All the pupils gathered in the advanced department and the following program was exceedingly well rendered: Recitation, Pita Harrington; Recitation, Percy McKay; Solo, Nina M. Woodside; recitations, Violet Paynter, Carrie Woodside, Sadie Graham, Carmen Harrington; Solo, Flora Woodside; Recitations, Tanale Smith, Theresa Woodside, Velda Mackay; Solo, Myrtle Woodside. After the program the scholars presented their teachers, Miss Verna M. Brown and Miss Christie Biggar, with beautiful boxes of stationery. The scholars of Miss Brown's department felt deeply moved on this occasion, as they knew their kind and loving teacher would be no longer with them, and they thanked her very much for her kindness to them during the past two years. Miss Brown spoke briefly, but feelingly. She said her life spent with them had been very pleasant. That she thanked them for their gift it was needless to say and the occasion would always be remembered by her as one of the happy resting places in her journey through life. The teachers then served ice cream and cake to their pupils, after which all departed for their homes, wishing Miss Brown success in her future career.

On Wednesday, June 29th, at high noon, the home of Thomas and Mrs. Cameron, Andover, N. B., was the scene of an interesting event when their daughter, Eva Britt, was united in marriage to John Pickering, of Seaview, P. E. I. The ceremony took place out of doors, the veranda being beautifully decorated with white ribbon, ferns and daisies. From the centre hung a floral bell, under which the bridal party took their places to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Pearl White. Rev. Mr. Pringle, Presbyterian minister from Kinton, officiated. The bride looked exceedingly well in a gown of white silk mull, trimmed with baby Irish lace and insertion, with bridal veil and wreath of orange blossoms and carrying a shower bouquet of white roses. Mrs. Currier, of Caribou, Me., whose marriage took place a few days ago, acted as matron of honor, and was gowned in white silk batiste with picture hat to match. A tempting lunch was served on the lawn, after which the happy couple took their departure for their future home in P. E. Island, amid showers of rice, confetti and old shoes, and followed by the good wishes of a host of friends. The bride's going away gown was of blue with hat to match. The wedding presents were many and valuable and testified to the popularity of the bride, who will be much missed by a large circle of friends.—St. John Telegraph.

The Sunday School children, and parents, of the Central Christian church held their annual picnic at Langley Beach yesterday. Teams, conveying the pleasure seekers, left the city about ten a. m. and arrived at their destination about eleven o'clock. Tables were spread and all partook of a happy meal made more enjoyable by the fresh breezes from the shore. In the afternoon the crowd entered into the spirit of the picnicker in earnest and while some went rowing, others strolled along the beach and still others went a-wading. The young folk whiled away the time in swinging, racing and jumping and the prizes awarded for the latter events no doubt gladdened the hearts of the winners. After a very pleasant social day the folk started for the city arriving here in the early evening.

Yesterday The Guardian was treated to a pound box of Cadbury's delightful and toothsome chocolates by "The Two Macs." These chocolates are daintily gotten up, each piece being wrapped separately in specially prepared tinfoil that is a guarantee against dampness. They thus retain their perfect flavor and with increasing age improve in delicious mellowness, a point that is indeed seldom found in chocolates. Cadbury's chocolates are manufactured in England and were first imported to this Province by "The Two Macs." It is indeed a pleasure to write the praises of such delicious confections, and it is the opinion of the writer that if the lovers of sweets have the same opinion of Cadbury's as the writer, "The Two Macs" will find it difficult to supply the demand.

This Happened One Year Ago

Charlottetown, March 12, 1910

Dr. E. M. Crossman:

Dear Sir—I wish to express my gratitude for the great benefit derived from your treatment and glasses.

My eyes were in a very bad shape before I commenced your treatment. I had been to several specialists who had even scraped my eyes which made them worse. I was blind in one eye when I commenced your treatment and was losing the sight of the other very fast. After six weeks of your treatment I can truthfully say my vision is perfectly clear in both eyes now. In fact I can see better than I ever could. I feel that I cannot thank Dr. Crossman too much for what he has done for me. Wishing you many years of success in your business.

I am yours gratefully,
