STOCK QUOTATIONS

Morning Stock Letter

(Received Over Pittfield & Company's Private Wire)

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 — Stregis Paper 7 percent pfd. changed to $25 share unit from 10 share unit. The Spanish situation is again receiving considerable publicity because of Russia's insistence of either doing something themselves to help the Loyalists or getting some action from the major countries of Europe to prevent interference in the Civil War. London market hesitant today, the excuse being the Spanish situation. Scheneley reported for Sept. quarter $1.44 against $1.06 in the June quarter. Nine months was $3.96 against $4.53. We would look for another irregular market today.

TORONTO, Oct. 21—Central Patricia: Much needed electric power will be available in ample quantities within the next few weeks and this will mean the reopening of their number two or Springer property which is considered one of the most promising looking properties in the north. The number one property in the interim is expected to be breaking monthly production records shortly.

CUNIPTAU: Cuniptau Mines have sold a large block of treasury stock to American interests receiving $150,000 cash which will be used for immediate development work.

MINING

TORONTO, Oct. 21—(CP)—Trading reached heavy volume in the gold group today on irregularly lower price movements in the Toronto mining section.

Teck Hughes, evidently depressed by the recent official report that only lean ore had been found below the 50th level, dropped 40 cents. Wright Hargreaves also declined to its low point for the year at 7.50. Hollinger lost 1-4, Pioneer lost 5 cents and the market was higher for Dome, McIntyre and Lake Shore.

McLeod-Cockshutt sold up to 4.50 and closed at 4.40 for a gain of 15. Little Long Lac added the same amount and Hard Rock advanced 17. Buffalo-Ankerite set a new high at 11 1-2 but lost most of the gain. Gainers up to 19 to 25 cents were Pickle Crow, San Antonio, Toburn and Powell-Rouyn.

TODD - SHERREN — A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the residence of the Rev. Ewen MacDougall, Charlottetown, when Ella Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Todd, of Rose Valley, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Charles Edward, son of Mrs. Sherren and the late W. D. Sherren of Crapaud. The bride was unattended. The bride looked very attractive, being dressed in grey, with blue accessories. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Stewart Dickeson, where a dainty reception was held, the guests being the immediate relatives of bride and groom. The wedding supper was served in the dining room which was artistically decorated in pink and white. The wedding cake which centred the table was also decorated in pink and white. Prior to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower by a large gathering of friends at the home of Mrs. William MacIntosh, Rose Valley. Early in the evening the bride-to-be was led to her chair, which was decorated in pink and white to match the basket brought in by Miss Marion Blondon and Miss Margaret Boulter. Miss Boulter opened the presents while Miss Blondon read the verses. Miss Edith Boulter re-arranged the presents on the table. The bride-to-be thanked her friends very nicely for the many beautiful presents she had received, after which all joined in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow". A shower was also given in honor of the newly wedded couple at their residence in Crapaud. Many good wishes is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Sherren for many years of happy wedded life. (Patriot please copy).

THE FARMER FEEDS THEM ALL

The Politician talks and talks,
The Actor plays his part;
The Soldier glitters on parade,
The Goldsmith plies his art.
The Scientist pursues his germ
O'er the terrestrial ball.
The Sailor navigates his ship,
But the Farmer feeds them all.

The Preacher pounds his pulpit desk
And the Brokers read their tape;
The Tailor cuts and sews his cloth
To fit the human shape.
The Dame of fashion, dressed in silks,
Goes forth to dine or call,
Or drive, or dance, or promenade;
But the farmer feeds them all.

The workman wields his shiny tools
The Merchant shows his wares;
The Aeronaut above the clouds
a dizzy journey dares.
But Art and Science soon would fall
If the Farmer ceased to reap and sow,
For the Farmer feeds them all.
