

IMPORTANT READING MATTER SELECTED FROM THIS WEEK'S NEWS FOR THE GUARDIAN'S SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

WEDNESDAY.
-Congratulations to William H. and Mrs. Hattie, Moosejaw, Sask., on the arrival of a young son. Mrs. Ratte, before marriage, was Miss Nellie Stewart and is well known here, having been in the employ of Sinclair & Stewart, Summerside, S.

-The death of Mrs. Wm. Wickham, took place at her home in Summerside yesterday morning. The deceased was in poor health for some time but was able to be about. Her last illness was of short duration. A sorrowing husband and two daughters are left to mourn. The daughters are Mrs. (Dr.) P. C. Murphy, Tignish and Mrs. Keele, Alberton.-S.

-A quiet wedding was celebrated at the United States Consulate in Summerside yesterday morning when Louis B. Hunt Postmaster of Summerside, and Miss Edna M. Sinclair were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. H. J. Fraser, pastor of the Presbyterian Church in the presence of immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Both bride and groom were unattended. The bride was married in her travelling gown of brown with hat to match. Their wedding trip includes a visit to a number of the principal American cities.-S.

"The marriage of Neil McCormack and Mary E. McKinnon, took place at St. Margaret's Church Tuesday morning, Nov. 7th. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Minnie McKinnon, and the groom by Thomas McDonald, Monticello. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Kenneth McPherson, after which the wedding party drove to Souris where a delicious dinner was served at the McInnis Hotel. On their return they were greeted by a large assemblage of their intimate friends and relatives and, after the bounteous repast, music and dancing were indulged in. The bride and groom were the recipients of many and valuable gifts. The Guardian extends their best wishes for a happy wedded life."

A sad death occurred in this city Monday night when Miss Mary Cahill, an old lady of probably some eighty years, collapsed in front of the Bishop's Palace on Dorchester St., about nine o'clock. She was carried into the Palace but only lived a few minutes. Dr. Conroy was quickly summoned but she was beyond human aid. Her death was due to heart failure. Deceased was a sister of the late Dr. Cahill. In her younger days she was possessed of considerable musical ability and was a teacher of music. In her declining years she endeavored to maintain a living in this way, but her day was past. She had no relations here, and roomed on Dorchester Street with Mrs. Cobb. The body was removed to Hennessey's Undertaking rooms and from there the funeral will take place.

The Northern Whig of Belfast, Ireland, says: "An important link with Belfast of the past has been snapped by the death of Lady Harland, widow of the late Sir Edward Harland, Bart., founder of the world-famed shipbuilding concern of the Queen's Island, Ex-Mayor of the city, and M. P. for its North Division." The Northern Whig says that "during the two years of her husband's Mayoralty, 1885-6, the social calls upon Lady Harland were not bounded by local responsibilities. In April, 1885, the late King Edward and Queen Alexandra paid a visit to Belfast as Prince and Princess of Wales, and were the guests at Ormiston, of the Mayor and Mayoress. How worthy the latter in the capacity of hostess sustained the dignity and the reputation of the city, both at home and in the various social functions in which their Royal Highness were engaged during their visit, is still clearly and gratefully remembered. King Edward indeed subsequently declared that in the Mayor of Belfast and Mrs. Harland he found a host and hostess entirely after his own heart—a tribute which was cordially endorsed by Queen Alexandra." The deceased lady was a cousin of F. W. Hyndman and Miss Hyndman, of this city. It was for Lady Harland that the steamer "Harland" was called.

DOCTORS HAD GIVEN UP ALL HOPE

"Fruit-a-tives" saved my Life

RIVIERE A PIERRE, Q., May 9, 1910. "I look upon my recovery as nothing short of a miracle. I was for eleven years, constantly suffering from Chronic Dyspepsia and Indigestion. I was treated by several doctors and they simply did me no good. During the latter part of my illness, I was so thin that I weighed only 90 pounds, and vomited every thing I ate.

The doctors gave me up to die as the stomach trouble produced heart weakness and I was frequently unconscious. I received the Last Rites of the Church. At this time, a lady strongly urged me to try "Fruit-a-tives". When I had taken one box, I was much better and after three boxes, I was practically well again, and had gained 20 pounds. I have taken 13 boxes in all and now weigh 150 pounds and am well."

Madame ARTHUR TOURANGEAU "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of intensified fruit juices and always cures Indigestion. 5c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial size, 25c. At all dealers, or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

his home in Jordan River, N. S. He was a highly respected member of this community and his death causes seven sons and a host of friends to mourn the loss of a father and a friend. A very large number attended the funeral on the 31st to pay their last respects to the deceased. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. A. A. Gates of the Murray River Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. J. Jewett of the Murray Harbor Methodist Church.

The Rev. A. F. Newcombe of St. John, N. B., Maritime General Secretary of the Canadian Branch of the British and Foreign Bible Society, is at present in this province. Last Saturday afternoon Rev. Newcombe met members of Charlottetown Society in the Y. M. C. A. parlour, and discussed ways and means to further this good work on Prince Edward Island. On Monday evening last an enthusiastic service was held in the Baptist Church at Eldon and a branch society formed. The following officers were elected: President—J. St. C. Moore; Vice President—Rev. F. P. Dresser; Secretary—John J. McDonald; Treasurer—Miss E. C. Moore. A committee will be appointed shortly to assist the officers elected. The Rev. Mr. Newcombe is not only an earnest speaker, but a faithful ambassador and worker for an open Bible in every home. He does not make a direct appeal for funds to his hearers, but tells them of the Power of the Word of God, and the increasing demands for it in many lands. Short addresses were given at the Eldon meeting by Rev. F. P. Dresser, and President W. S. Louson, of the Charlottetown Society. The Rev. Mr. Newcombe plans to be present at a Bible Society night during the week of prayer, in Charlottetown, and has accepted an invitation to attend a similar service at Eldon early in January next.

THURSDAY. -Ethel and May Ahearn, daughters of Thomas Ahearn, Norway, Lot 1, aged respectively 14 and 12, met with a serious mishap on Halloween. It appears the girls in playing some childish Halloween pranks, procured a tumbler can almost filled with gunpowder. Placing it on the road Ethel set a match to the powder. In the explosion which followed her face was fearfully burned and it is thought her eyes are both permanently injured and that she will be blind for life. Her sister's face was also badly burned although not so seriously. -Eze.

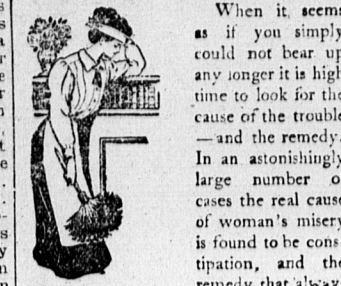

The following description of a Motor-ride enjoyed by a Charlottetown girl in Victoria and suburbs on Saturday October 21st, will be found most entertaining.

In British Columbia, motor parties and motor riding is indulged in to a great extent. Many wealthy residents possess one or more private cars costing several thousands of dollars. "The Motor ride was glorious. It was a lovely day, nice and sunny. We went up Oak Bay Avenue and saw Mount Baker looking serenely across the waters. Turned around to Newport Avenue, past fine Hotel, Newport Beach Road. This is just near the water. The Olympic Mountains, with snow capped summits, gleamed in the sunlight, sky and water are deep blue, and the rocks in some places rise to the mountains.

The spin round that road was superb, never enjoyed anything to compare with it. Then along Monterey Avenue to Cadboro Bay, then Mount Douglas came into view and we were riding along Gordon Head where I had so many pleasant walks. It was an elegant motor car covered at top and back—most luxurious—"One Ross shays" are not in evidence here, are rarely seen.

All electric cars, motors and pairs and when you see a one horse rig you know it has come from the country. By the way the Victoria Metropolitan Methodist Church Choir is reported to be the finest in Canada. Mr. Bateson of Army and Navy League, England, preached there on Sunday night October 15. He said he would tell them when he was home of the Metropolitan Choir for more in Methodist world stand for more in England if they had such choirs. The Choir-Master, G. A. Downard

When "Work" Becomes "Labor" There's Something Wrong. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Will Right It.

Neglect of the daily movement of the bowels, so necessary to health, soon poisons the whole system from the impurities retained in the body. Headaches, indigestion, biliousness and lassitude follow, and often more serious female disorders are brought on or aggravated.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills not only regulate the bowels, but they stimulate kidneys and skin as well to throw off waste matter and purify the blood. The result is quickly apparent in the disappearance of the headaches and biliousness, and the return of health and vigor. Thousands of women all over the world owe their present good health to Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.

cordially invites any person who desires to become a member of the choir to meet him on Friday evenings at the Church. This is the rule of the Church. We have some days again this week.

A farewell reception was held at the Methodist church last evening for Miss Mary Parmenter of this town, who is about to leave for her missionary field in China, where she has spent several years of her life in forwarding the cause of Christianity. Miss Parmenter was greeted by many friends, who wished her no end of success in her endeavor. She also received three gifts, the relief fund which had been raised here to aid the Chinese famine sufferers, a handsome silk flag from the Women's Relief Corps and a bouquet of flowers from the nine missionary societies of the town.

The Sunday school room, where the reception was held, was appropriately decorated, and Miss Parmenter was assisted in receiving her friends by Mr and Mrs John W. Arncliffe of Arncliffe Mills, E. D. Parmenter, Miss Parmenter's father, Rev. E. S. Robinson, Rev. Gustav A. Suber, Rev. Fred A. Moore, Rev. R. J. Mooney and Rev. George Scrivener. As the guests entered the hall they were met by children who presented them with souvenir silk flags of China. They were then taken by the ushers to the reception line, where they met the missionary. When this part of the program was completed there were brief remarks from the various clergymen. They spoke glowingly of Miss Parmenter's work in China and wished her success in her future undertakings. Mark E. Rowe spoke for Rev. J. Lee Mitchell, who was unable to be present. Miss Parmenter gave a very interesting talk on her work in the far-away country and thanked her friends for the interest and co-operation that had been shown here. She stated that a great amount of good could be done with the funds that had been raised to help the famine sufferers. The presentation of the relief fund was made by Edgar A. Remington, who represented the committee that had charge of the work. The silk flag was presented by the Women's Relief Corps and the presidents of the nine missionary societies in town took part in the presentation of the bouquet.

An excellent feature of the program was the singing of "Onward, Christian Soldiers" by a chorus of 75 voices, the singers marching through the church. As a concluding number of the program the chorus sang "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again." Afterwards there was an informal hour, during which Miss Parmenter received a parting word and good wishes from those present. Attleboro Sun.—(Miss Parmenter has friends in this Province.)

The funeral of the late Lena A. Jackson, only daughter of Jeremiah and Mrs. Jackson, Brockley Pt., took place on Monday afternoon from the residence of her father to the Little York cemetery. The funeral was largely attended and the services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. E. A. Westmoreland.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—(By Wire)—Discoveries made by the detectives investigating the death of John Quinn last Saturday lead them to believe they have encountered a murder mystery similar to the Vermilya case, except that a pistol instead of poison had been used. Quinn's wife is suspected of several mysterious murders.
