Mr. and Mrs. John McNeill Pleasantly Surprised

Mire and mud militated not in the least against the good intentions and neighborliness of the people of Cavendish and vicinity for out into the inclement weather they went, old and young, on the evening of March 11th to honor Mr. and Mrs. John McNeill on the event of their jubilee wedding anniversary. The gathering took the form of a surprise party and though Mr. and Mrs. McNeill were taken unawares they welcomed in their genial way these self-invited guests and the staid atmosphere of the old home soon re-echoed to the melodies of Bonnie Dundee and sister songs of Auld Lang Syne.

The following program was enjoyed by all.

Opening Chorus, Bonnie Dundee; Recitation, The Worn Wedding Ring, Mrs. Milton McKenzie; Solo, When You and I Were Young Maggie, Mr. John Laird; Reading, Scottish Lies, Mrs. Hammond McKenzie; Duet, Silver Threads Among the Gold Mrs. Fred Clark and Mr. H. McKenzie; Reading, Mrs. Cummiskey and Mr. Costello, Mrs. Jeremiah Simpson; Chorus, Flow Gently Sweet Afton; Recitation, The Habitant, Mr. Ernest Clark; Solo, Mary of Argyle, Mr. Robert Lamont, encored Mother McCrea; Recitation, The Parson and the beans, Mrs. George Robertson; Solo, When the Lights are Low, Mrs. E. C. Webb; Reading, George Adef-team work, Mr. Hammond McKenzie; Duet, Put on Your Old Grey Bonnet, Mrs. Robert McKenzie and Mrs. Weslay Smith. A phonograph record sent by Rev. Mrs. John Sterling, Montague, entitled: "Silver Threads Among the Gold" and "When You and I Were Young Maggie,' brought the program to a close.

The following address, [illegible] by Rev. E. McArthur, [illegible] was read by Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] after which presentations [illegible] to Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] were each presented with a beautiful living room rocking chair.

ADDRESS

To Mr. and Mrs. John F. McNeill:—The brightest light that sheds its rays along life's pathway, to cheer, to inspire, and to comfort, is the light of love that is kindled in each human breast. It breaks through the darkness and storms of life and out of sorrow brings joy and peace. Just as the sunlight steals its way into the deepest and darkest recesses and casts back a reflection which brightens the world round about, so the light of love, which comes from God Himself, is found in the innermost soul of each individual, and seeks for expression and satisfaction in the world which surrounds it. At the marriage altar the bond of love between man and woman is solemnly sealed., and that moment in the presence of God is the beginning of a new life. It is to commemorate the day when fifty years ago you Mr. and Mrs. McNeill experienced the sealing of that bond, which brought your lives together to share a common lot, that we have gathered heer this evening; for we could not let the opportunity pass by which perhaps we might add a ray of gladness to life's journey.

Life if uninspired would but become a dull commonplace round of care, and the noblest experiences can be trampled inthe dust. As you look back over the journey you have accomplished, no doubt, there have been many trials endured, many hardships and adversities encountered that of themselves would have tended to discourage, but seeking help from the Giver of all good you have kept before your lives a noble ideal. Not only have you succeeded in the material realm, but what is much more important, you have ever sought to keep your lives elevated to a high level, and, now, having reached the half century milestone you have the respect and good wishes of both friends and neighbours.

Yours, tonight is the lot of only a few, both of you enjoying after all those years, a goodly share of health and strength. Surely God has amply blessed you, He has given you the joys of a Christian home, of children, and of loved ones, and though they are not all here this evening, we know they would desire to mingle their voices with ours, in wishing Gods richest blessing upon you and, in praying that in the God who is all pure, all good, all true, you may continue to trust and that He will guide you both to the end of life's pilgrimage.

We would ask you to accept this token as a slight visable manifestation of the esteem in which you are held by us, on this the occasion of your fiftieth wedding anniversary; and we would add with it the earnest hope that you may be spared many more years of joy, of happiness and of blessing.

Lunch was served. Then merry makers from the outside appeared in weird costumes—the shades of the chiveriers of a half century gone by.

As the midnight hour drew near all joined in the singing of Auld Lang Syne and with many expressions of good will retired to their homes.

The names of Mr. and Mrs. McNeill's family are: Mrs. B. F. Simpson, Lynn, Mass.; Mrs. Louis Warren, Ottawa; and Frank C. McNeill, St. John N. B.

Easter Meeting of Methodist W. M. S. Auxiliary

The Easter meeting of the Auxiliary of the W. M. S. of the Methodist Church was held on Wednesday afternoon, the Pres. Mrs. W. A. Thomson in the chair. In opening the meeting she spoke of the loss to the Society in the death of Mrs. Balderston and said "We are apt to feel that we are meeting under a cloud, because we stand by an open grave, and that grave holds the form of one who was not only dear to us, but who held a large place in the life and work of our church, and one to whom the work of our W. M. S. was [illegible] dearly dear. There [illegible] particul- that comes [illegible] are many voices [illegible] come to us from an open [illegible] grave, and the message we hear today is the glad Easter message "He is not here, He is risen." "Because I live ye shall live also. "This voice would bid us rejoice, and would also emphasize the fact that "The night cometh, our day is short, we must be up and doing while it is day, gaps are made in our ranks, and we must all tell that new workers are found to fill them, and that we all use well the time that is ours in which to work. Mrs. Balderston a few days before she passed away had sent her usual Easter offering to this Auxiliary.

A beautiful Easter responsive service "Go and tell," followed by an Easter litany, was participated in by all, Mrs. W. E. Fletcher rendering the solo part with her usual sweetness.

An exercise "The Four Mary's was conducted by Mrs. H. D. Johnson, and Mrs. Stacey, Mrs. Teed, Mrs. Norman Lowther and Mrs. Chandler assisted her in the reading. Mrs. Stewart sang effectively "Alone."

The President read a letter she had received from Miss Eva Stamper enclosing a cheque for $200.00 as an Easter offering in loving memory of her sister, Miss Sarah J. Stamper who was a valued member of this Auxiliary.

Mrs. Puncher was made a life member by her daughter Elsie.

Prayers of thanksgiving were offered by 5 or 6 members and a touching and beautiful Easter message was given by Mrs. Gough The meeting closed with benediction.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

The neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. James Hynes, Rocky Point, gathered at their temporary home on Tuesday, March 24th to show sincere sympathy for them in the loss they had sustained by having their home totally destroyed by fire during their absence on February 25th and also to show how much they are appreciated in the community where they reside for they have proved by word and deed to be true friends and neighbors. The gathering was called to order by Mr. Angus MacEachern and Mr. Thomas Burdette was called upon to fill the chair, after a few complimentary remarks, the following address was read by Mrs. Allison MacMillan and the presentation of a beautiful collection of china and useful kitchen utensils was made.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Hynes:—We your friends and neighbors are gathered heretonight for a little house warming and to show our appreciation of your many kindnesses to one and all.

We could always rely on you to hold out the "right of friendship" to us in joy or sorrow, sickness or health, want or plenty. To few it is given to be the "friend in need" which you always are and we can never show our real appreciation, love you as we may. To Mr. Hynes we also give our sincere thanks for we know without his assistance you would not be able to do all that you have done. It is not our intention to give a long address, so we ask you dear Mrs. Hynes to accept these gifts as a slight token of our appreciation and when you drink from these cups we hope you will feel at least you have one of us with you.

In closing we hope you will spend many happy years amongst us, and be blessed with good health and bountiful harvest.

Mrs. Hynes very feelingly replied, rendering most sincere thanks to those who took them to their home; also to those who helped save part of their furniture and befriended them in every possible way.

Then a social hour was spent over a hot cup of tea and delicacies prepared by the ladies present.

After singing Auld Lang Syne, for they are Jolly Good Fellows and God Save the King all repaired to their respective places of abode, feeling happy with the thought that they had made others happy for a time at least.

Turks Are Making Gains

(Special to The Guardian)

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 2—The Turkish troops are reported in advices from the front to have pushed their advance to the centre of the territory affected by the Kurdish insurrection. It is expected that Pal (fifty-five miles north of Diarbekr) will fall shortly, it is stated in the messages, which add that the Turks have occupied a number of important positions.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. HAMMOND CRABBE

The death took place at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, March 15th of Mrs. Hammond Crabbe, formerly Miss Bessie MacPhee, daughter of the late James and Mrs. MacPhee of this city. The late Mrs. Crabbe who was 34 years of age had been in failing health for some time, but all hopes were held out for her recovery as she seemed to gain strength during the last few weeks before the end came. Her death came as a great shock to her many friends and relatives throughout the Province. Death is sad at any time but when it comes to those who are young with a promise of life before them it seems doubly so and particularly sad for the two small children she has left behind her, who will miss the kind and loving care of a mother which no one else can give.

Mrs. Crabbe was of a most cheerful and contented mind, always busy with the welfare of her family and is deeply mourned by all.

The funeral took place March 17th from the People's Church, thence to the People's Cemetery and was very largely attended. Service at the Church and grave were conducted by the Rev. D. M. Lamont assisted by the Rev. Ewen MacDougall. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Fred Dollar, David Foster, William Ferris, Ernest Crabbe, Harry Younker and Andrew Dollar.

Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn two small children, three step daughters, a widowed mother, two sisters, Mrs. Marjorie MacFadyen of this city and Miss Jean MacPhee of St. John, N. B.; also one brother, Mr. W. W. MacPhee of the Sentinel Staff, Toronto.—(Patriot, Summerside and St. John Papers please copy.)
