

One Doctor

Ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for throat and lung troubles. Doctors have prescribed it for 70 years. F. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Have only one doctor—just one! No sense in running from one doctor to another! Select the best one, then stand by him. No sense in trying this thing, that thing, for your cough. Carefully, deliberately select the best cough medicine, then take it. Stick to it.

Hockey Boot Experts

We claim to be. For years we have made a study of the Hockey Boot Trade and our large business in this line has proven our judgment to be correct. Honestly we do not think we have ever sold a poor pair—at least we have not heard of them—this year we believe our stock to be better and more complete than ever—the old favourites are here, improved when experience taught us they needed it.

COMING EVENTS.

Red Rose meeting, Lodge Prince Edward, S. O. E. Tuesday Dec 14th.

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

Mrs Geo Carver, Pownal, is spending a few days in the city.

John Fraser, Avondale, was among the visitors to the city yesterday.

A matinee will take place at New Wonderland this afternoon.

The tide will be high this morning at 10.14 and tomorrow morning at 10.54.

D. F. Macdonald, Montague, was in the City yesterday. He registered at the Victoria.

The subject of Rev Frederick S. Bamford's lecture in the Methodist Church is Second Fiddles. Monday evening.

J. O. Davies and Wm Brown will take the solos in "God Save Our King" at the opening of Male Chorus Concert Tuesday night.

Edwin Reid, Victoria Cross, came to the City yesterday. He intends leaving this morning on a trip to Boston.

John Hawley, Marshfield, and Daniel Nicholson, Forest Hill, came to the City last evening and registered at the Queen.

D. Stewart, Kent Street, is offering one hundred loaves of Cream Home-made bread free today as will be seen by his ad elsewhere.

At the morning service in St James Church tomorrow the choir, under leadership of Frank T. Watkis, will sing "The Sun Shall be no More"—Woodward, and in the evening "O, taste and See"—Jy Reed.

Attention is directed to A. Horne & Co's ad of Motor Washing Machines which appears elsewhere. The machine certainly solves the problem of the wash day and would make a charming Christmas gift that would be gladly welcomed by the housewife.

Philip Lane, Mt Mellick, who is tending going west in the spring, had his farm stock and implements offered by auction. The sale was conducted by F. H. Horne, Winsloe and the stock, farming implements and crop all brought high prices. The farm was bought in at $4,500.

The special services being held in the Methodist Church at York, are being largely attended and are conducted by Evangelist McKay. Many have expressed a wish to lead a new life. Services each night this week except on Saturday and also tomorrow morning at 11 and in the evening at 7.

M. S. Frank Murray, City, received an injury to his hand while firing the salute to the Queen's Birthday, and an investigation into the matter held recently evidence was taken which will be forwarded to the Military Department at Ottawa. Sergeant Murray's injury, though not very serious had prevented him from attending to his duties since the accident.

At the Police Court in this city yesterday the following appeared on charges of being drunk and incapable: William Power, fined thirty dollars or sixty days; Daniel Gillis, fined four dollars or fifteen days; James Power, fined twenty dollars or thirty days and John King, fined twenty dollars or thirty days. All with the exception of James Power, were committed.

Peter Trainor of Upper Hillsboro Street, received the sad news from Montreal on the 9th inst of the death of his son John of typhoid fever. The deceased was well known in this city where he was for many years in the employ of James Paton & Co, later entering the employ of R. J. Tooke, of Montreal, where he has been engaged for the greater part of the time since. He leaves to mourn his father and mother, wife and three children and one sister Mrs Daniel Byrne of North River and five brothers: Rev Thomas H. Trainor, Cache Bay, Ont.; Frank and Peter in United States; James in this City, George M. of St Dunstan's College. To all The Guardian tenders sincere sympathy in their bereavement.

A correspondent from Earnsciffe writes: The blacksmith, Matthias Praught, recently completed the rebuilding of his forge—and has now one of the best workshops of the kind in the Province. This fall John Tweedy purchased from D. P. Irving, M. L. A., his flock of Dorset sheep, which were brought to the Island a few years ago by the Farmer's Institute. Saturday Mr Tweedy purchased a splendid Dorset ram lamb from one of Quebec's leading sheep dealers—George Harris and Herbert J. Nicoll, two of the best workmen in their trade in the province, have completed the job of plastering the new house belonging to the President of the Cherry Valley Dairying Co, M. L. McLeod.—Earnsciffe's sportsmen enjoyed a fox-hunt Tuesday. The number of animals scared to death have not been reported up-to-date.

Guaiacol Emulsion. A reliable remedy for coughs, colds, and general debility. Pleasant to the taste and easily digested. Prepared and sold at 40c a bottle by A. W. Reddin, Pnem B.

The highest temperature recorded yesterday was thirty-one degrees above zero and the coldest was twenty-three above until nine p. m. The coldest recorded the previous night was twenty-two above.

Lawrence McQuillan, City, left yesterday morning for St John. He will proceed from there to Liverpool, en route to Dublin, Ireland, his native city. Mr McQuillan has been living in Newfoundland, New Brunswick and N.B. Island for some years past.

Rev W. E. Johnson, Souris, in writing The Wesleyan says that three persons were received into full membership at Dundas a few weeks ago, and that his Church unites in a special meeting at Dundas, with the Presbyterian and Baptist Church, during the first week in January.

After a long illness, patiently borne, he fell asleep at the home of his mother, Grand View, on Nov 28th, Martin, Jr, aged 55 years. The deceased was the son of a worthy father, Alexander Martin. He had four sisters and six brothers, all of whom walked in the way of their father. "Some are with us yet, others have fallen asleep." The funeral services at the house and grave were conducted by life long friend of the deceased, Rev D. B. McLeod. Interment was at Orwell Head. He was survived by a widow and numerous friends and relatives, who will long cherish his memory. He died in full assurance of faith.

75c. you could buy gold dollars for 75c of course you'd buy them. We are offering you something just as good—High class goods at 25 per cent cheaper than you can buy them elsewhere—Let us prove it to you. Simon Joseph's, Queen St. 12-8drf.

Notice To The Public

As I have a very large stock of fall suitings and overcoatings and as the weather has been mild for the disposal of heavy clothing, and as I wish to reduce my stock as much as possible before the end of the year, I will give 10 to 15 per cent discount on all suits and over-coats made to order. All work guaranteed as to fit and workmanship. I also make a first-class job of cleaning and pressing.
