Will Hold Maritime Winter Fair

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

AMHERST, N. S., May 1—After a lapse of three years, the Maritime Winter Fair is to be revived here this fall from Nov. 8 to 13. The dates were fixed today by the executive of the Maritime Stock Breeders' Association, meeting under President C. F. Bailey of Fredericton.

About $11,000 in prize money will be up this year, the president told the executive, and he saw prospects of keen interest in the fair. An important feature would be a fox show, while special attention was to be devoted to the saddle classes in the horse show.

Saddle entries, Mr. Bailey said, were assurred from Halifax and Charlottetown and the Saint John Club also was considering participation.

S. E. McLauren of Ottawa, Secretary of boys and girls club work in Canada, was at the meeting.

MINING

(Canadian Press)

TORONTO, May 1—The reaction from last week's advance of the silver shares, continued today and at the close losses were general in the group. Base metals and golds trailed along to lower levels to give the whole board a weak appearance at the finish. The index showed 20 golds off 1-8 to 114.68 and 20 miscellaneous mines from 96.72 to 94.62. Volume showed considerable shrinkage from the recent average.

The price of bar silver weakened in all markets and although the Toronto silver shares ignored the setback in the first two hours of trading and the selling became too active to be absorbed handily in the last hour and a scaling down of quotations resulted. Weakness of silver affected the base metals but recessions in the group were of little importance except for a loss of $1 for Noranda.

GRAIN

(Canadian Press)

WINNIPEG, May 1—It was delivery day on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today, but the first of the wheat due against the May contract and put through the clearing house had no effect on the market. The session was quiet.

Wheat prices closed 1-4 to 1-8 after holding steady throughout the day and fluctuating sluggishly within a half-cent range. May closed at 88 1-8 cents and July 89 5-8. Pit trade was at a minimum and Canadian wheat exports negligible.

Delivery of the wheat apparently was conducted in the a manner that did not disclose the actual amount delivered to the government wheat agency. Clearing-house figures revealed only 8,000,000 bushels tendered against open contracts.

Cash and coarse grains continued dull.

BRITAIN JUBILEE CRAZY

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

LONDON, May 1—Britain is Jubilee crazy. It's the chief topic of interest for every true-blue Briton and "Jubilee" is the year's great sales catchword.

If a girl loves her King and Empire she'll wear a red, white and blue ensemble. She will have her fingernails tinted in red, white and blue stripes, red, white and blue striped earrings will be in her ears, and a scarf to match will be around her throat.

She will have the colors of the Union Jack in her clothes, arranged in novelty effects. Perhaps she will have a white skirt, red blouse and blue coat.

Her head will be covered with Jubilee curls, her frock will be clipped with a miniature of the King and Queen, and special Jubilee beauty treatments will give her a "Jubilee Face." Those girls with blue eyes, red cheeks and white skin will be just in style.

Jubilee cocktails are the favored kind; a show which hasn't at least one "gag" about "jubilation" in it is rare; the Jubilee hop and the Jubilee blues are featured at some night clubs and dance halls.

The Jubilee has brought great joy to the retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers.

War Mongers Condemned

(C. P. By Guardian's Special War)

NEW YORK, May 1—A correct version of the Pope's remarks on April 1, when he condemned war mongers, has come to light with the receipt of the original Latin.

The Associated Press translated "dissipa gentes quae bella volunt" as "destroy those peoples who wish for war." The Havas Agency said "confound" them.

As it now turns out the sentence should have been translated literally "scatter those peoples who wish for war."

MARKET GOSSIP

(By Johnston and Ward's Special Wire)

MORNING MARKET LETTER

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 1—The market was erratic again yesterday. Prices recovered from minor sell offs on several occasions but at the close losses were quite general. Extreme selectivity was shown in the sharp gain in Allis Chalmers and the decline to a new low for the year in Pullman.

The earnings of the steel companies for the first quarter have been rather favorable. The U. S. Steel report was fully as good as expected and a loss of only $2,173,000 for the quarter brings operations pretty close to the profit point. The reason that these reports have little effect on the prices of the stocks probably is that the near term outlook suggests a minimum of improvement in operation and seasonal peak in operations came earlier than usual.

The market is still holding within the trading range of the past ten days but its action is beginning to suggest a break away is not far distant.

Laidlaw and Company.

SUMMARY

BANON SAYS

MONTREAL, Que, May 1—Selling in General Motors, silvers and rails carried the market down about a half point yesterday.

The favorable report issued after the close on earnings of U. S. Steel could encourage a temporary rally. Nothing, however, has occurred in the markets action to alter the probability of advance of four to six points in the averages.

Ford "A" was weak on Toronto yesterday. Since there is a possibility that the decline in this stock might extend to the lower twenties, I suggest you continue to defer reinstatement of positions surrendered.

Gold shares showed further improvement in their action yesterday. Buyers apparently became exhausted waiting for material reactions and raised their bids. Golds act bullishly and further purchases should prove profitable. Buy Dome, McIntyre, Hollinger, Wright Hargreaves, Can Malartic and Teck Hughes.

Banon.

BARING LETTER

Tuesday Afternoon

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 30—Wheat closed 1-8 lower and corn a fraction higher. I remain bullish. Cotton did nothing and last advices hold good.

The general trend was a little reactionary but the Industrial average did not go quite as low as yesterday. The market may react a little further tomorrow, but I look for a resumption of the advance by Thursday afternoon and I do not think the Industrial average will go more than a point lower than they were today. They should go at least 10 points higher during the next six or eight weeks.

Phillip Morris sold at 42 and might react near 41, where it should be bought and held for a new high.

Fairbanks Morse. Buy some at or just below 23. United Aircraft closed at 12 3-4 there should be at least 10 points in it. Johns Manville—I expect to see it very much higher. Buy it on any dip. Amn. Smelting is way behind other silver stocks and purchases from 42 to possibly should pay big. Cerro de Pasco lost Monday's gain but is not likely to react more than a point or two further, hold for 69. If you get a chance buy Union Carbide below 50, Case 53, Gen. Motors 29, DuPont 95, Sears 37, Loews 37, U. S. Ind Alcohol 41, Nat Distillers around 24, Bethlehem Steel 25, Westinghouse at or below 40. Amn. For Power 7 per cent pfd 17 to 16 and Gen. Electric.

Many Canadians To Receive Jubilee Medals

OTTAWA, May 1—Art and science, religion and philanthropy, professional and industrial endeavor as well as public service in all its phases will be recognized in the distribution of the King's silver jubilee medal to several thousand Canadians next week. The list, approved by His Majesty personally, is a most representative one, it was learned today.

All members of Parliament and senators and their wives and members of the Legislature of the province as well as members of the Canadian privy council will receive medals. The ministers and the chief consular representatives of foreign powers in Canada will be in the list of recipients.

So far as possible the list has been compiled on the same basis as the list for the distribution of medals in the United Kingdom.

Educational endeavor will be recognized by the bestowal of medals on the chancellors and presidents of universities and a liberal selection of the teachers in primary and secondary schools in all provinces.

Representatives of the medical profession throughout Canada and of those interested in hospital and charitable work, including probably the women superintendents or matrons of public hospitals will receive the medal.

Some of those who have taken an active part in organizing the campaign for the King George V Jubilee Cancer Fund will be among the recipients.

It is also understood the list will include representative citizens of the Northwest Territories and the Yukon and some representation of the Indian population. The Eskimo dwellers in the rim of the Arctic Ocean will be represented in the list.

Many branches of public service will be recognized by including in the list the names of the president or other chief officer of professional and business organizations throughout the country.

In compiling the list emphasis was placed on the inclusion of a certain proportion of those in the service of the Crown both on the military and civil sides. While a substantial number of war veterans will be honored it was considered desirable to recognize those who had performed services in the rehabilitation and assistance of veterans as to appraise and select from the large number who performed services in the field during the Great War on the basis of war service would have been obviously impossible.

Among Categories

Among the categories in the list of recepients are:

Archbishops and bishops of the Anglican and Catholic Churches, heads of the Presbyterian, United and Baptist Churches and other officers with jurisdiction equivalent to that of a bishop.

Mayors and chiefs of police of all towns and cities over 5,000 population.

Members of the civil service with 30 years or more in the service to their credit.

Judges on a basis not definitely settled.

The president of The Canadian Press.

The Apostolic Delegate to Canada will receive one along with the representatives of foreign governments.

Auto Strike Walkouts Increase

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

DETROIT, May 1—Two more General Motors plants were closed today while Department of Labor mediators strove to avert additional walkouts in the automobile industry.

A shortage of transmissions as a result of the strike in the Toledo plant of the Chevrolet Motor Co., caused the Chevrolet and Fisher Body plants in Janesville, Wis., today to follow the Cleveland Fisher Body plants in closing. Approximately 2,600 workers were affected at Janesville.

Pickets continued to patrol the Toledo plant, and the Chevrolet and Fisher plants at Cincinnati, where strikes are in progress. There were no disturbances.

Thomas J. Williams, conciliator at Toledo where the Chevrolet Motor Company plant closed after a strike eight days ago, hurried here to confer with Edward F. McGrady, first assistant secretary of labor, on proposals to restore peace to affected portions of the vast industry.

Textile Issues Feature Session Montreal Market

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

MONTREAL, May 1 — A sharp break in textile issues was the sole feature of the Montreal Stock Exchange today as the general list see-sawed in a short arc to close irregular. Early trading was the lightest in more than a week but activity picked up slightly towards the close.

Market observers were at a loss to account for the sell-off in textiles, which have been rising slowly for the past few weeks and the general belief was held the movement was a reaction to the high levels touched recently.

Penman's fell 3 full points to a new low of 52 and Dominion Textile eased 1 1-2 points to 77 1-2, also a new 1935 bottom level. Canadian Celanese common was off 5-8 at 20 7-8 and the preferred eased 1-2 at 106 1-2.

Announcement yesterday that construction contracts awarded in Canada during April had shown an increase of close to $3,000,000 over the same month last year caused a minor wave of buying in the construction group but profit-taking held the rise to small fractions. Dominion Bridge rose 3-8 at 26 and Dominion Steel was up a like amount at 4 7-8. Total sales were 10,856 shares; bonds $3,450.
