CAMPING.—The Maritime Boys' Camp has opened at Big Cove Sutherland's River, N.S. The camp will last twelve days. The following Charlottetown boys are in attendance:—Herbert Vessey, J. McEachern, B. Gordon, R. Prowse, L. Hughes, and E. Prowse. Mr. L. H. McMillan, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., accompanied the boys as far as New Glasgow.

BEAUTIFUL GROUNDS.—Bonshaw seems this year to be the favorite picnic grounds for owners of motor boats, and during the past few weeks many private parties have been enjoyed. Mr. John A. McNevin, who owns the beautiful "Oval Farm" situated near the Bruce Stewart farm, known as Strathgartney, has kindly placed a field on on which is erected a refreshment and dancing booth, at the disposal of any persons wishing to make use of it, free of charge. This kindly move on Mr. McNevin's part is sure to be appreciated during the coming warm weather.

MacLENNAN-MacKAY WEDDING.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Flora MacLennan, 12 Belmont Street, Belmont, Mass., on Wednesday, June 17th, 1914, when her second daughter, Miss Flora May, was united in marriage to Mr. John Alexander MacKay of St. Albans, Vermont. At four o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor, prettily decorated with palms and cutflowers, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March. The marriage was performed by the Rev. W. M. Tufts, D.D., First Presbyterian Church, Boston, in the presence of seventy-five guests, relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Jean and the groom by his cousin Mr. Ernest A. MacLean of Melrose Highlands, Mass. The bride was charming in her gown of white charmeuse satin, trimmed with chantilly lace. She wore a bridal veil, in mob cap style, with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid wore a dainty gown of rose tinted crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace, to the bridesmaid a pearl ring, and to the groomsman a gold watch fob. After the ceremony a delicious wedding luncheon was served, after which the happy couple left on a honey-moon trip to Prince Edward Island, where they are both well known. The bride is a daughter of the late Alexander MacLennan, Bradalbane, and the groom a son of John MacKay, High Bank. The young couple received many useful and valuable presents including gold, silver, cut glass, hand painted china, and linen.

FAMOUS VICTORY.—On Monday evening the 29th inst. a large number of young people from different parts of Rustico and Hope River invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Doiron, Line Road. The attacking party was so large and so well equipped with provisions that Mr. and Mrs. Doiron knew it would be useless for them to offer any resistance and surrendered without striking a blow. By the terms of agreement the victorious party were given permission to enjoy their triumph in whatever way they chose and as all voted for a dance—a dance it was. Accordingly tables, chairs, etc., disappeared from the dining room in short order, and soon after, all were attracted to that room by the melodious strains of the violin under the skillful manipulation of the expert violinist, Mr. Hilaire Gallant of South Rustico. The different squads, half companies, and companies then went through a series of evolutions (and revolutions) until about midnight when the whole regiment was given a rest of some fifteen or twenty minutes during which time they drew upon their provisions, each participant being fully satisfied with the ration meted out for him. After this they resumed their exercises in company drill. About four o'clock on Tuesday morning acting on the command of the Commanding officer, (whose name, by the way, is not definitely known, but who is known to have come out from Charlottetown some time ago to assume command of the forces,) dispersed each to his or her respective home, each being of the opinion that this was the most famous victory gained in these parts for a long time—a victory not to be forgotten.—Z.

MR. JOHN ACORN.— The funeral of the late Mr. John Acorn, whose death took place in the P. E. Island Hospital on the 28th, inst., July 1st, from his late residence at Millview to Pownal Cemetery and was one of the largest seen in that locality for some time. A number of the deceased friends from the city were among the large concourse of people who followed the remains to its last resting place and included Messrs Nelson Rattenbury, Geo. H. Toombs, G. D. Wright, R. K. Bruce, Arthur Acorn and J. J. Storey. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. P. S. Weeks, ably assisted by Rev. H. A. Brown and Rev. E. Bell who attended the deceased during his last illness in the P. E. Island Hospital. The pall-bearers were Messrs Wesley C. Sheldow, Alfred Mutlow, John McGillvary, Wendal Lea, Joseph Bradley and Hayden Vanderstine.

SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS.— The regular semi-annual public school examination was held in St. Mary's school house, on the afternoon of Thursday June 30th. The schoolhouse was well filled with parents and visitors from the adjoining districts who always make it their duty to be present on such occassions, thus showing their deep interest in everything pertaining to the education of their children, besides being a source of encouragement to both teacher and pupils. A number of dialogues recitations and songs, prepared for the occasion, were well rendered by the pupils and fully appreciated by all present. The pupils were examined in the different branches of study by Miss Lucy Doiron, Mr. Peter LeClair and their other teacher Mr. Zachariah Buote, and by their answers showed good work on the part of teacher and pupils. After the examination short speeches were made by some of the rate payers, congratulating the teacher on his good work and urging the pupils to be still more earnest in their studies in order to make their schooldays of real benefit to themselves and not as is often the case, simply a waste of time The proceedings were brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.—Z
