STOCK QUOTATIONS

Stock Markets At A Glance

MONTREAL, June 4 — (CP) — All classifications except golds finished the week's trading on the Stock Exchange and Curb Market on Saturday showing improvement in the indices. Golds were down a little.

Papers, which wavered Friday, after displaying strength all week, on Saturday gave indications of recovering their balance.

NEW YORK, June 4—(AP)—The Stock Market ended a generally satisfactory week Saturday with specialized buying keeping the list looking fairly well despite profit-taking handicaps encountered by many recent climbers.

Liquors came up in the short session, buoyed by revived hopes distillers would be permitted to turn out a certain amount of beverages.

WINNIPEG, June 4—(CP)—Rye futures dropped 3 3-8-3 1-4 yesterday on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Traders attributed the drop to liberal selling and weakness in oats at Chicago. July closed at $1.07 1-2 and October $1.06 1-2-5-8.

CHICAGO, June 4—(AP) — Heavy liquidation of futures in the grain market today drove all prices down, wheat and oats selling at new seasonal lows and rye off more ehtn eight cents from the week's high at one time.

TORONTO, June 4—(CP)—Industrial and mining groups worked higher in the final session of the week and the western oils took a small index decline. Trading was dull throughout with one or two exceptions and turnover was down to 252,000 shares. The industrial group posted a new index high for the year, holding a net gain of .14.

TO VISIT BRITAIN

NEW DELHI —(CP)— Invitations on behalf of the British government are being extended to seven Indian scientists to visit England for six weeks to meet and have discussions with various scientific bodies.
