Rosie Longworth, Dorothy and Wanda Wyatt, Clara Von Styne, Nora Warburton and Freda Morrow, students at Edgehill Church School, Windsor, N. S., left yesterday morning by way of Georgetown on return to their studies. They were accompanied as far as Truro by H. W. Longworth.

W. L. Cotton, editor of the Examiner, city, will read a paper before "Cavendish Literary Society" on Friday evening, January 20th, subject:—Protection, Free Trade and Reciprocity. The public are invited to take part in the discussion of these important questions which are now prominently before the country.

The Strathalbyn District L. O. Lodge met in annual session in Calvin Lodge room, Bradalbane, on Jan. 10th, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: W. M., W. H. Sharpe; D.P.M., Hugh Gillis; Chap., Robt. McKenzie; Rec.-Secy., J. D. Matheson; Fin-Sec., Cyrus Martin; Treas., Mal. McKenzie; D. of C., John D. Douglas; Sect., E. C. McKay; D. Sect., Wm. McLeod.

Wednesday evening, Dec. 14, 1910, the home of John and Mrs. Rose, Lakeville, was the scene of a pretty event when their eldest daughter, Ella May, was united in marriage to Freeman Garrett, of Fairfield. The ceremony was performed in the presence of about twenty guests, by Rev. G. F. Camp. The bride was attired in a cream princess and was assisted by her sister, Katie A., who wore a gown of white mull. George J. Morrow, of North Lake, supported the groom. The wedding march was played by Alfred W. Morrow, North Lake. After the ceremony a most pleasant evening was spent in vocal and instrumental music. The large number of costly and useful gifts received showed the popularity in which the young couple were held. The groom's gift to the bride was a fur coat.

In the Supreme Court in this city yesterday, after the conclusion of the argument in the case of the King vs. Bell; the case of John A. McInnis vs. A. G. Peake was commenced. McKinnon and McLean, K. C., are appearing for the plaintiff and Gaudet and L. G. Haszard for the defendant. In opening his case for the plaintiff, Mr. McKinnon stated that the latter is suing for damages occasioned by a fall in a hole in Peake's No. 1 wharf some time last May. McInnis, he said, sustained rather severe injuries and was laid up for six weeks. Since that time he has done little or no work, being incapacitated as a result of injuries. The first witnesses called for the plaintiff were Mr. Flynn, of the Customs and Walter Monteith, stevedore of the wharf, each of whom were questioned as to the hole into which the plaintiff fell and the general condition of the wharf. The plaintiff is suing Mr. Peake by reason of his part ownership in the wharf and the control he exercises over it. The case will be continued this morning.

Special 10 per cent cash discount off all Dress Goods except "Monarch" Broadcloth

FOR A LIMITED TIME WE OFFER YOU A special cash discount of ten per cent in the dress goods department. This is just double our regular cash discount, and will be withdrawn in the course of a few days. To profit by it—shop promptly.

A CUSTOMER came in—looked over a very special line of high grade dress fabrics and said "I can buy a cloth marked as high as this, at 25 per cent discount somewhere else." Our salesman figured our price less ten per cent. He left the rest to the customer and after careful comparison—she placed the order here. Mark this careful—close comparison—of our goods, at our small discounts—gets us the business. Compare—it means saving for you—and business for us.

No Discounts offered off Monarch Broadcloth

We are sorry—but we cannot allow even ten per cent discount off this magnificent cloth. MONARCH—the one perfect 1.75 Broadcloth is here in all the best shades at 1.75 net—per yard.

Half price for all Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats

Special 10 per cent Cash Discount off all Remaining Furs

COMMENCING THIS MORNING, we offer a special discount of ten per cent off all furs now in stock. We want to clear the space—and to do it we make this offer for spot cash.

No! we fully realize that ten per cent is not as big a discount as 25 per cent—or one third. But for a long time now this fur department has been triumphantly successful in doing business on a close—net price basis—and a larger discount is not possible from the prices at which our furs are marked.

Compare our furs at ten per cent discount with all others at any reduction no matter how large. If our values line for line and dollar for dollar are not better we will neither ask nor expect your order. We leave the judgment to you.

SOME YEARS AGO you will remember that we inaugurated the small margin, no discount principle in handling furs. The result has been a great success—and this season in this department has been the best he store ever saw.

Throughout the year—and especially in the last three months business here has broken all records—we owe you our thanks for this—and tender them most sincerely. Now a few details of the goods offered:—
