WE FOUND ALL-BRAN SUPERIOR TO HARSH CATHARTICS

Says Mrs. R. E. Etches, Dorval, Quebec: "KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN has so many good qualities . . . it really is the 'Better Way'. It has been a family favorite for many years, and as long as it retains its qualities, ALL-BRAN will continue to be a big favorite in our home."

Why don't you try ALL-BRAN'S "Better Way" to correct the cause of constipation due to lack of the right kind of "bulk" in your diet. But remember, ALL-BRAN doesn't work like cathartics. It takes time. Get ALL-BRAN at your grocer's, in two convenient size packages, or ask for the individual serving package at restaurants. Made by Kellogg's in London, Canada.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN ARCHIBALD MacFADYEN

Kingston and community lost an honored and much respected resident in the death of John Archibald MacFadyen which occurred February 13th, 1942, at the home of his son, Norman, at Meadowbank, with whom he had resided for a short time prior to his death.

Privileged to spend almost his entire life on the farm on the Bannockburn Road where he was born 83 years ago, a son of Archibald MacFadyen and his wife, Mary Ann Beer, he was one of a family of eight. A man of splendid physique he was exceptionally strong and well until his brief and fatal illness, and while it can be said: "He came to his grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in, in his season," truly, both bodily and mentally, he was one the passing years touched lightly. Many cares and crosses he bore nobly in this world. The loss of a small daughter, Margaret, in 1910, and the passing of his beloved wife, Sarah Jane, daughter of the late Donald E. and Mrs. Campbell, Darlington, in 1919, leaving a young family, as well as the death of a gifted son, Eric, in 1921, in early manhood, were indeed sad losses, but these seemed only to sustain and strengthen his unaltering trust and faith in Him, who "moves in mysterious ways."

Mr. MacFadyen was a "gentleman of the old school", kindly, patient and tolerant, finding his pleasure not in "far places" but in his community, his home, and his fertile acres. In his dealings with the public, when for some years he was road supervisor and tax collector, he was always just and honest in every way an exemplary and conscientious official. Possessed of rare intellect, an interesting conversationalist, he was an understanding and wise counsellor, inspired by an intimate knowledge and love of the Scriptures. It is a singular and happy coincidence that, for the funeral service the Rev. Mr. Webster chose as his text II Timothy, Chapter IV, verses 6, 7 and 8, and later it was discovered that these verses were especially marked in Mr. MacFadyen's personal Bible, a book which, although much read, he could always find something new.

His children, who will cherish his memory while mourning the loss of a kind parent, age: Norman, stationed with the Veterans Guard of Canada on the Mainland, Millar, Principal of Parkdale School, Charlottetown, Florence, Mrs. Nelson Du Russell, Corning, Saskatchewan, Ena and Jeanette, Graduate Nurses, Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal. There are also nine grandchildren. Surviving also are his sister, Mrs. William Auld, Charlottetown, Mrs. Johnston Mann, Kensington, Mrs. James Mitchell, Cornwall, and a brother, Robinson, in the United States.

On February 16th, the funeral service at the house and the committal service at the Clyde River Presbyterian Cemetery were conducted by the Rev. T.W. Goodwill, Central Parish, and the Rev. G. Carlyle Webster, Zion Church, Charlottetown. During the service the following hymns were sung: "The Lord's My Shepherd", "Take Comfort, Christians" and "How bright these glorious spirits shine!" A duet, "The Old Rugged Cross" was feelingly sung by Mildred and Ira Auld, niece and nephew of the deceased.

The pall bearers were: George Boyle, James MacPhail, Ira Auld, John MacNevin, George Dixon and Fred Beer.

And so John MacFadyen came to "the house of his departure" full of years and honor. He valiantly "fought the good fight." Truly by precept and example he has "kept the faith." Henceforth may there be laid up for him "a crown of righteousness — at that day."

We know we have no father now.

Married Fifty Years Ago

The following clipping from the Surrey England Advertiser will be of interest here as Mr. and Mrs. Flippance are the parents of Mrs. Russel Campbell, 218 Weymouth Street, City.

Thursday was the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George James Flippance, of No. 2, Lime Cottages, Bramshott, and many congratulations from friends far and near were received on the occasion of the happy event. Mr. and Mrs. Flippance are both 72 years of age. Mr. Flippance is the eldest son of the late Mr. Isaac Flippance, and was born at Down Place, Guildford; and Mrs. Flippance, who is a daughter of the late Mr. William Stovold, was born at Apple Tree Cottage, Elstead, the village where some of her relatives still reside. They were married at Elstead Parish Church on June 4th, 1892, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. J.R. Charlesworth, who was Rector of Elstead for about 50 years. Mr. Charlesworth both christened and married Mrs. Flippance from the same house. Mr. Flippance had gone to work when he was nine years old, his first employer being Mr. J.S. Hewett of Puttenham. "He broke me in", Mr. Flippance told our reporter when he called to offer congratulations, "and I have been at work ever since." "And," added Mrs. Flippance, "he has never failed to bring home a week's wages, which is more than some people can say after they have been married as long as we have." After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Flippance went to live at Hersham and Walton-on-Thames where Mr. Flippance was first employed by Chertsey Rural Sanitary Authority and afterwards was in business on his own account as a coal merchant. As a young man he joined the Army Service Corps and in 1899, on the outbreak of the African War, he was recalled to the Colours and South Africa in April, 1900, and finished his time. He went out to serve with General Sir Redvers Buller's Natal Field Force until the end of 1901. For some time he was attached to the Royal Artillery and saw a good deal of the fighting. After he left the army Mr. and Mrs. Flippance lived for eight years in Camberley, six years at Cobham, and four years at Godalming, and 23 years ago took up their residence at Liphook. For 11 1-2 years Mr. Flippance was manager for Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Plutte of The Oaks, Woolmer Lane, and afterwards for 6 1-2 years was bailiff of the farm at Cooper's Bridge for Miss Larkworthy. For the past 2 1-2 years he has been working at the camp at Bramshott, and at the present time occupies the position of boiler attendant. Mr. and Mrs. Flippance have two sons. The elder son, Mr. Percy J. Flippance, served through the last war and is now a member of the Home Guard at Teddington, and the younger son Mr. F.G. Flippance, resides at Haslemere. Their daughter, Mrs. Russell Campbell, has been residing in Canada since 1919. Two grandsons are serving in the Canadian Army in this war and one grandson is serving in Scotland with the Honourable Artillery Company. There are also three grand-daughters. In addition to his work at Bramshott Mr. Flippance cultivates a considerable area of ground near his home, so that he is also doing his bit in this war. Both Mr and Mrs. Flippance are enjoying excellent health, and their many friends will wish them much happiness in the years that remain to them.

Drugs

WE HAVE BUT ONE GRADE —THE BEST

We look after them while they are in stock—they are reliable.

When they are to be compounded the work is done by a Registered Druggist.

When you pay for them you are always pleased with the price—it is invariably right.
