Stock Prices Drift Lower In New York

(By Frederick Gardner)

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 — In the sleepiest session for more than six weeks, the stock market today drifted fractions to more than a point lower.

There was a half-hearted attempt at a rally in the afternoon when the American Iron and Steel Institute estimated this week's steel mill operating rate up 2.8 points at 39.8 per cent of capacity. Steels and motors, leading the forenoon backdown virtually erased their losses during a brief interval. These again slipped in the final hour, although closing declines to fractions.

The day's volume of transfers amounted to 586,500 shares, the smallest for a full session since June 17, compared with 1,204,240 Friday. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off .4 of a point at 48.7.

General inactivity prevailed in the Canadian Department. Dome Mines gained a point to 33 1-2 as Dominion Stores and Lake Shore Mines rose fractionally. International Nickel lost 1 1-8 points to 49 3-8 and McIntyre a major fraction.

General Motors directors, after the close, fulfilled Wall Street's expectations by declaring the regular 25 cent common dividend.

On the offside were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, American Telephone, Anaconda, Kennecott, Consolidated Edison, N. Y. Central, Texas Corp., Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, J. I. Case, Deere, Philip Morris, Westinghouse, Du Pont, Union Carbide and International Nickel.

Santa Fe, Greyhound Corp., Coca-Cola and Standard Oil of N. J. managed to emerge with modest gains.

Losses Fairly Well Scattered In Montreal

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

MONTREAL, Aug. 1—With buyers driven off by weakness in New York the stock market dropped lower today in one of the quietest sessions for some time.

Losses were fairly well scattered throughout the list. In equipments, National Steel Car slumped 1 1-2 points as a barrage of selling hit it in the last hour of trading. General Steel Wares, Dominion Steel "B" and Massey-Harris sank fractionally. Canadian Car issues, however, resisted the decline, the preferred gaining a half point while the common clung tenaciously to its previous close.

Metals and papers backed down quietly. Noranda and Price dipping about a point each, Nickel and St. Lawrence Corporation preferred 3-4 and Hollinger a small fraction.

Dominion Tar led the drop among the constructions, dropping 3-4 with Dominion Bridge down 3-8 and Gypsum and Cement each 1-4 lower. Utilities were more active than usual, Shawinigan eased a half point with Brazilian and Montreal Power slightly lower.

Total sales: 66,800 shares; industrials 9,600; mines 47,200; bonds nil.

Grain

CHICAGO, Aug. 1 —(AP)—Corn prices plunged downward 2 1-2 cents a bushel late today, and smashed the current season's low price records. Wheat earlier also out did all recent bottom figures.

An outburst of general liquidating sales by holders of corn futures accompanied the fall of values. Attention given to extremely favorable prospects for a bumper crop of corn was the chief unsettling influence as to that grain.

At the close, Chicago corn futures were 1 1-8—1 5-8 lower compared with Saturday's finish, Sep. 55 1-8-1-4, Dec. 52 1-4-3-8, wheat 5-8-7-8 down, Sep. 66 7-8 to 67, Dec. 68 3-4-7-8, and oats 3-8-5-8 off.

The closing exercise which were held on Thursday afternoon, June 30, were largely attended by ratepayers and visitors. The teacher, Miss Alice Weeks, assisted by Mrs. Wm Kells, carefully examined the pupils who made a splendid showing of the work done during the school year.

Mr. Andrew Stevenson capably acted as chairman and the following prizes were awarded:—

Attendance and Punctuality — Raymond Weeks.

Neatness in Team One —Eileen Weeks.

Neatness in Team Two — Reta Somers.

Neatness in Team Three —Lloyd MacLeod.

Spelling in Junior Grades —Ralph Smith

Writing Certificates — Isabel MacKay, John MacKay, and Eileen Weeks.

A Certificate for five years membership of the Jr. Red Cross Society was presented to the School.

The following address was read by Isabel MacKay and an appropriate gift presented by Adelaide Wigmore.

Miss Weeks thanked the pupils for their kindness and wished them a pleasant holiday and success in the future. She also thanked the parents for their kind cooperation during the two years which she had taught in Pleasant Valley School.

Then all enjoyed a treat of icecream and fruit provided by the Women's Institute and the teacher.

The singing of the National Anthem brought the afternoon to a close

Following is the address:—

Dear Teacher:—Another year has rolled around and we have come to the day of school closing. While we are glad to be free from study and discipline, still it gives us a lonely feeling to be separated even for our vacation.

We enjoyed our year's work although at times we may have appeared listless and did not do our best to help you in your work.

It is with a feeling of sadness we are parting with you. But we will always remember the years you were with us as our teacher and trust many of the lessons you have imparted to us will remain with us for years to come.

Please accept this small remembrance with love and best wishes from your pupils.

Signed on behalf of the pupils of Pleasant Valley School.
