THEY KNEW THE TUNE

UNWANTED HABERDASHERY

MOOSE JAW, Sask. — (CP) — The congregation of Zion United Church was in the middle of a hymn one Sunday morning when Moose Jaw had its first power failure in 1948 and cut off the organ's electric motor. The congregation finished the hymn without accompaniment.

EDMONTON — (CP) — A hotel owner here found himself with a new suit, top-coat, some odd haberdashery and a watch he didn't want when a youth was sent to jail for theft. Reason: the youth had purchased the articles with money stolen from the hotel.

Double Throw-In Play

South in today's deal had the unique pleasure of throwing both opponents on lead in the same suit, and twice forcing an advantageous return.

The bidding:
South West North East
5NT Pass Pass Pass

West opened the spade, seven, and declarer won with the ten. Only eight tricks were in sight for South, so his first move was to lay down the diamond ace, intending to follow up with the king in the hope that the queen would fall. West's immediate "refusal," however, shattered that hope, so South had to look elsewhere.

The two top clubs were cashed and a third round led. Now West found himself on lead, and since South was marked with the ace and queen of spades, West shifted to a low heart.

Men & Women

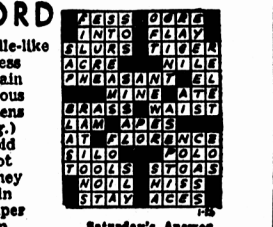

Dummy's jack was promptly played by the declarer, and when he held the trick, the contract was safe. But South decided to "have a little fun." The distribution of both defenders' hands had been virtually revealed; South decided to confirm his impression and, if possible, capture an extra trick.

He led to the heart ace and cashed the king also. East discarded a diamond. Now South cashed the spade ace, and East threw off another diamond. This certified South's count of the cards. East had held two hearts, only one spade, and six diamonds, therefore he had started with four clubs. South chuckled furtively as he exited for the second time in the club suit. He had already gained a trick from West; now it was his turn, thrown on lead with the club nine, had to give up a trick by leading away from his diamond queen. Thus South came out with 10 tricks, although even the ninth trick had seemed doubtful at the beginning.
