QUEEN'S CANADIAN FUND DONATIONS

Repeated bombing raids on British port areas and the industrial midlands has attracted fresh attention to the frightful suffering of the many thousands of civilians in Great Britain who are harried from shelter to shelter and finally driven into the open country by successive raids. Eventually places are found for them all places of relative security, but their belongings of all kinds are destroyed. The task of emergency feeding alone is difficult. The task of setting them up once more with some quantity of clothing and bedding is much more difficult.

To meet these enormous needs funds have been started in various parts of the world. Her Majesty use of her name in connection with the Dominion campaign, which is officially known as "The Queen's Canadian Fund for Air Raid Victims."

Every dollar contributed to the Queen's Canadian Fund goes without deduction to the Lord Mayor of London for distribution to the homeless and needy.

Contributions from this Province should be forwarded to the Royal Trust Company, Charlottetown which reports the following receipts to date:

Received yesterday:
Study Lovers Club, Charlottetown $7.00.
Brackley Point Red Cross Society $3.00.
Total to date—$4,972.

URGES

ure after Mr. Hanson's speech and will adhere to that for the balance of the session as war department ministers make their statements and private members question them and add their comments.

Prior to the ministerial utterances Angus MacInnis, acting C. C. F. leader, and E. G. Hansell, acting New Democracy leader held the floor.

Both Mr. MacInnis and Mr. Hanson denounced the government's action in bringing the price and wage stabilization plan into effect by order-in-council on the eve of the re-assembly of Parliament. They argued it should have been submitted to Parliament for discussion and declared past performance was ample assurance that Parliament would not have held it up.

Mr. MacInnis urged immediate action towards the establishment of diplomatic relations with Russia. He said from a long range political viewpoint this was desirable because Russia would be an important factor settling terms of peace.

The government's labor policy was unsatisfactory for organized labor, he said. The wage stabilization order should apply to all salaried persons as well as to wage-earners and it should put a floor under wages as well as a ceiling over them.

Oppose Farm Prices Level

The Conservative and C. C. F. spokesmen also found themselves in agreement on farm prices. They objected to stabilization at present levels which, they claimed, were too low compared to the prices farmers had to pay for the things they required.

Mr. Hanson contrasted Canada's labor policy with that of Great Britain where labor had given up the right to strike. That was an example to Canada as well as to the United States.

"Is it not possible that some such arrangement as that could be worked out in Canada?" he asked. "I leave that suggestion with the government. I do not think you can do it on a party basis. I do not think you can do it without labor being represented in the government.

"I do not think you can do many of the things which I have visualized without broadening the base of this government."

People were suspicious of party government. Men of national stature should be brought into the cabinet. He said he did not suggest a union or coalition government but a government of national figures.

"The country will respond and support such a government through thick and thin," he said.

Hitler Invasion Certain

While the British people were determined to resist they knew that a Hitler invasion was certain and that it would be accompanied by a "more terrible blitzkrieg" than any previously anticipated. Mr. Hanson was confident defensive measures were in order to defeat any invasion but said that alone would not win the war. Neither would the bombing of German territory.

He said he was satisfied British airplane production was ahead of German and that, coupled with supplies from the United States meant air superiority.

Speaking of the necessity of invading the continent he said: "It it appalling to ask Britain to do this alone. She can not possibly do it alone.

"Only the united efforts of Britain, of the dominions, or our great neighbor to the south and all the democracies of the world, aided, if you will, by any totalitarian state that is willing to join us can make it possible. Even then the task is going to be colossal."

Competent observers contemplated a superior force which, once established in Europe, would roll on irresistibly, a force bigger and more mobile than Hitler's forces. It would have to be supported by unbroken lines of communication by sea, land and air. It was not possible now but it was the objective. He was confident it could be accomplished.

Canada's present six divisions were not too many but "a good fair contribution" at this stage of the war. If no more were to be produced the voluntary system of recruiting might do though he doubted it.

Need More Manpower

But if invasion of the continent were contemplated an ever-increasing volume of Canadian manpower would be needed and it should be enlisted, trained and equipped as soon as possible.

Mr. Hanson said Mr. King had spoken of total war meaning total effort. He asked if there could be total effort "until every man available for services in the armed forces has enlisted in the armed forces."

"This issue of manpower must be faced realistically," he declared. "Total effort requires total enlistment at once of all available manpower, whatever system may be used to enlist them. At the bar of history Canada will be judged by the manner in which she responded to the challenge to provide manpower, not by the tenacity with which her government clung to any particular system of recruiting."

Red Cross worker Returns from Goodwill trip

TORONTO, Nov. 4—"What we have seen of Canada's war effort have thrilled us and fired us with a determination to do all that is humanly possible to further the great cause the Dominion is fighting for," Ann Waldenburg, executive secretary of the British War Relief Society of New York said here as she boarded a Trans-Canada Airlines plane to return to Manhattan after a three day goodwill visit to Toronto and Ottawa.

Miss Waldenburgh who was accompanied by two other members of the Brooklyn British War Relief Committee which has raised more than $100,000 in the past year, Misses Margaret Hull and Violet Singer, said the Brooklyn committee is now launching a new campaign to raise $200,000 more for war relief and, after what they had seen in Ottawa on Sunday and in Toronto Monday, they were more determined than ever that this enthusiastic work would be supported to the very limit of the committee's ability. They saw the blood donors clinic, prisoner of war parcels being packed for shipment, canteens operated by volunteer women workers, air force training activities. They called on Mayor Conboy to offer their committees cooperation and studied Canadian women's volunteer activities.

"We were particularly impressed with what Canadian women are doing," Miss Waldenburg told Major D. R. MacLaren, supt. of passenger service of Trans-Canada Air Lines, "We have learned a great deal about the results efficient organization, lessons which we hope to preach when we reach home in advocating adoption of Canadian organization methods by American committees."

Gaspe Member Takes seat as Independent

OTTAWA, Nov. 4—(CP)—J. S. Roy, member of Parliament for Quebec's Gaspe constituency, announced to the House of Commons today that he had left the Conservative party because, he said, the party lacked sympathy for French Canada.

Henceforth he would follow "an independent course in this Parliament."

Mr. Roy, lone Conservative elected in Quebec in the 1940 general elections, spoke on a question of privilege to explain having shifted his seat from the Conservative section to a far corner of the House among the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation and the New Democracy members.

"I have decided to leave them, (Conservatives) and I did not do so hastily," said Mr. Roy.

"For the past few months I have been in consultation with people in Quebec who all expressed the opinion it is useless for the province of Quebec to make any further attempts to work hand in hand with the Conservative party.

"Warm sympathy, the main element, is lacking."

"It is my intention," said Mr. Roy, "to stand in the next general election as a Canadian desirous of contributing in my humble capacity to the progress of the whole Dominion without any racial or religious prejudice, recognizing the rights of all citizens and fighting against bigotry whenever it is found."

Against Conscription

OTTAWA, Nov. 4—(CP)—J. S. Roy said today he has "left the party" because of what he believes to be a change in the Conservative party attitude toward conscription.

In the 1940 general election, Mr. Roy said, the Conservative party expressed its opposition to conscription, but "later its attitude has changed so that it favors conscription."

(Conservative House leader Hanson in a speech in Toronto Oct. 29 said conscription for overseas service must be brought about by the force of public opinion rather than through its advocacy by the Conservative party.

("To make it a political movement would defeat the very purpose of those who have it in view," he said.)

Grand Division Of Sons Of Temperance In Annual Meeting

The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of Prince Edward Island met in annual session in the hall at St. Catherines on Oct. 27. Grand Division officers from Cape Wolfe, Springfield West, Wilmot and O'Leary were present. Mr. Raeford Locke of Cape Walfe Division, Grand Worthy Patriarch, presided at both the afternoon and evening sessions. Among those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph MacCaull, Bedeque; Rev. John Sheen, Mrs. C. E. Crossman, Mrs. Ray Cullicutt, Scott Curry, Mrs. Ina Rix, Mrs. Ralph Cain, Doris Morrison, Bessie Smith, Constance Rix, of Springfield West Division; Mr. and Mrs. Angus Phillip, Raeford Locke, Everett Cullicutt, Allie MacNeill, Mrs. E. F. Hopgood of Cape Wolfe Division; Mr. R. Earle MacMurdo, North Bedeque; Heber MacLean, Clyde River; and Rev. and Mrs. A. A. MacLeod, O'Leary.

The afternoon session was for the reception of reports and transaction of business. It was decided to issue membership cards to all former members of the order whose Divisions were not now functioning. Former members were asked to write for them. It was also decided to build up an associate membership among friends of the cause. This membership to carry with it permission to attend all meetings of the Grand Division.

A motion of sympathy was passed to Brother the Rev. A. F. Baker in the great loss which he sustained in the death of Sister Mrs. Baker.

Officers were elected at the afternoon session and installed by Rev. Brother A. A. MacLeod, Past Most Worthy Associate of the National Division of North America assisted by Mrs. Ralph MacCaull acting as Most Worthy Conductor. They are:

J. Raeford Locke, Cape Wolfe Grand Worthy Patriarch.

Mrs. E. F. Hopgood, Cape Wolfe, Grand Worthy Associate.

Rev. A. A. MacLeod, O'Leary, Grand Scribe.

Allie MacNeill, Cape Wolfe, Grand Treasurer.

Rev. John Sheen, Springfield West Grand Chaplain.

Ralph MacCaull, Bedeque, Grand Conductor.

Angus Phillip, Locke Road, Grand Sentinel.

Mrs. Ina Rix, Springfield West, Grand Patron.

Mrs. Ralph MacCaull, North Bedeque, Past Grand Worthy Patriarch.

At the evening meeting which was open to the public the G. W. P. addressed the gathering pointing out the great need for temperance education and stating that the Sons of Temperance was especially fitted to provide that education through its Divisions and Bands of Hope if the public would give the necessary support. "It is time we took a forward step in temperance education in the province," said the speaker. Remarks were made in reference to the training given by the Sons of Temperance in total abstinence by Angus Phillip, Allie MacNeill, Heber MacLean, Mr. MacCullum and others. The Grand Scribe, Rev. A. A. MacLeod addressed the meeting stressing the need of re-organizing St. Catherines Division. Several promises to join were received and the gathering decided to meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heber MacLean to re-organize the Division, Wednesday, Nov. 5th. Meeting closed with the National Anthem.

The report of the Grand Scribe which was adopted at the afternoon session is as follows:

Grand Scribe's Report

As your Grand Scribe I beg leave herewith to submit my annual report for the year ending Sept. 30th, 1941.

The Prohibitory Law is still in force legally in this province, although many assaults have been made against it. Recently subtle propaganda has appeared in the secular press presumably aimed at discrediting prohibition. A medical Doctor has stated, and the statement has been widely quoted, that prohibition was the remote cause of certain deaths from alcoholic poisoning in Charlottetown a few weeks ago. Miss Dorothy Thompson wrote an article which was syndicated in newspapers across Canada and which was published in the Charlottetown Patriot attacking prohibition. In that article are several glaring misstatements. 1. It is not true that a well organized minority put over prohibition in the United States. The facts are that State after State outlawed the traffic until the Federal Government was forced to enact prohibition. It is true that a well organized minority put over repeal of prohibition in the United States.

2. It is not true that those favoring prohibition tried to make Americans virtuous by treating them as though they were not adult. It is true that the prohibitory law did make millions of Americans sober in the United States during the time it was properly enforced. It is not true that the result of prohibition in the United States was the most drunken age America has ever known. It is true that the prohibition era was the most sober and dryest era in the whole history of the United States. More milk was consumed, more pop, more candy, more ice cream than in any other similar period before or since. If Miss Thompson is not any better informed on other matters than she seems to be on the matter of the historic facts regarding prohibition, then we have been admiring and following the lead of one in international matters connected with the war, who does not pause to ascertain the facts.

The Charlottetown Doctor should have known better than to make such a public statement as that quoted above. The real remote cause of the death of alcoholics, and sometimes the cause is not too remote, is not the fact that those seeking liquor could not procure it at 1.10 a. m. in Charlottetown, (where were the hundreds of speakeasies that have been reported as existing in Charlottetown, we wonder?) but the more scientific fact that alcohol begets in the individual an appetite for itself so that those indulging in it acquire a burning thirst. When so-called good liquor is not to be obtained, they resort to wood alcohol as in the cases quoted. In no province in Canada can liquor be purchased legally at 1.10 a. m. although it is common knowledge that clubs and speakeasies are in operation in most government sale province twenty-four hours a day.

The Temperance Federation at its last session decided to appoint a press committee whose duty it will be to watch such statements in the press and answer them. Already one Montreal citizen has been effectively answered by this committee. The enforcement of prohibition in Prince Edward Island is much better than formerly. This is partly due to the fact that the war has practically done away with smuggling of contraband rum. This has not been an unmixed blessing in so far as our law is concerned as it has made for a loosening up of the restrictions on Doctors' prescriptions. The script business is still being abused.

The Temperance Federation recently waited on the government and asked that something be done along the line of restricting the doctors. Your Grand Scribe as chairman of the delegation urged upon the Executive Council the necessity of enforcing the law without fear or favor. We contended that never in its long history had our liquor law been given a fair chance. We said that during war time there seemed to be an excellent opportunity to really enforce the law and see just what an honestly enforced law against beverage alcohol could do. It is my contention that our government never had a better opportunity than the present provides to really clean up the script business and give us a downright enforcement of the law without fear or favor. We need the money squandered for drink to help fight Hitler. Why not see that it is diverted into war saving certificate channels?

The essence and extract business is at present increasing according to all reports. A resolution dealing with this matter will be submitted to this Grand Division for its approval.

The interest in our own Grand Division seems to be increasing and I can again report to you a substantial increase in membership. The Divisions reporting show a gain of 21 for the year. While this is encouraging it is to be deplored that so many of our Divisions have not reported this quarter.

Respectfully submitted in L. P. and F.

A. A. MacLEOD,
Grand Scribe.

Resolutions

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted at the evening meeting:—

1. Thanks to St. Catherines Division and the Hall Trustees for courtesies extended.

2. Whereas, the Prohibition Act contains a clause defining an alcoholic beverage as any beverage containing more than 2 1-2 per cent proof spirit;

And whereas, as a result of this clause a 2 1-2 per cent intoxicating beer is being sold in several stores throughout the province, in many cases to young boys;

Therefore be it resolved, that we ask the Government to amend the Prohibition Act defining an alcoholic beverage as being, "Any beverage containing alcohol."

3. Whereas, the people of the British Empire are engaged in an all-out war to preserve our Christian Institutions;

And Whereas, 200 million dollars were spent in Canada last year on beverage alcohol legally;

And whereas, beverage alcohol is not only a luxury, and is definitely a detriment in peace time, but infinitely more so in time of war, not only causing a waste of materials and money, but men as well, undermining the morale of our people and crippling our war effort;

Therefore be it resolved, that this Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of Prince Edward Island demand that the Dominion Government prohibit the manufacture and sale of all intoxicating liquor by civil and military authorities for at least the duration of the war.

Says Japanese "Missed the boat" At Singapore

SEATTLE, Nov. 3—(CP)—William Hosokawa, a young Seattle born Japanese newspaperman recently returned from the Orient, expressed the belief yesterday that Japan could have taken Singapore a year ago but by delaying a showdown had "missed the boat."

"At that time the great naval base there didn't have the ships, the planes or the troops to protect itself," he said. "They have everything now, and the base is impregnable. Anyone who says the British can't do things in a hurry, and on a big scale, has another think coming."

Hosokawa, a University of Washington graduate in 1937, became editor of the Singapore Herald the following year.
