Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. LEAGUE OF NATIONS MAY DECIDE FATE OF 3,000 HUNGARIAN HARES

PARIS, Dec 17.— The plight of three thousand hares, Hungarian by birth, French by adoption, and at present interned at Budapest, has led to the presentation of a large dossier in the foreign offices of France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Czecho-Slovakia, and Yogoslavia Hungary, and it is likely the League of Nations will ultimately have to give its ruling on the matter

The reparations clause of the Versailles Treaty stipulated that Germany should repopulate with game the French devastated regions. This Germany has not done, pleading that her own country side was denuded of game by the Communists. So France appealed to Hungary, which is overrun with hares, only to meet with a second rebuff, a result with which the Quai d'Orsay did not deal, and recourse was had to a Frankfort merchant who guaranteed the delivery of hares from Budapest at six dollars a head for male and $9 for females

Unfortunately France had counted without Austria, which, manifesting more hatred than Hungary, refused to allow the hares to pass through Austrian territory. The French Minister of Agriculture interceded in vain whereon it was decided to commit the hares to the Orient express, only to discover later that the express and not pass through Budapest, where the hares are spending several months' dull internment.

Thoroughly annoyed, France next sought the good offices of Czecho Slovakia, and all might have gone well but for the hatred the latter bears Hungary. The Czechs raised a host of difficulties preventing the hares being transported through Czecho Slovakia So now the Quai d'Orsay has opened negotiations with Yogoslavia, but things look serious as, after December 16, Hungary prohibits further transportation of game through her territory

PARIS SCIENTIST DECLARES CANCER NOT INCURABLE IF TREATED IN TIME

PARIS, Dec 17.—Working on an entirely new theory of the nature of cancer, Dr Baronaki, of the Blois Hospital, has effected a number of cures that are attracting wide attention Careful watch is being kept upon his patients in the hope that a definite method of cure has at last been discovered Dr Baronaki holds that cancer is a general affection originating in troubles of the secretive glands, which cause deterioration of globules and lymphs

The local affection, which has been the objective of other recent research, is merely a consequence of the general disorder, he says. "Cancer", he told the correspondent, 'is no longer incurable if treated in time My conception is based on particular polyglandular lesions of internal secretive glands which entails blood ferments, lymphatic and globular deterioration, then consecutively humoral and cellular perturbations constituting general affection

"This I treat by a general method designed to put obstacles in the way of the original morbid process consisting of injections of a lymphatic solution measured to combat the typical demineralization of cancerous subjects. Then I regenerate the deficient lymphs. Then the patient absorbs appropriate extracts and cashets of organic substances.

"Once equilibrium is re-established, the sufferer reacts vigorously against the local cancer. First one notices a check to its development, then its progressive disappearance."

Dr. Baronaki's method has been explained in the Academy of Science, and many eminent scientists support his theories.

Conrad Memoirs Exposes Hypocrisy Of Kaiser William

BERLIN, Dec 17.—Field Marshal Conrad von Hoetzendorf, chief of the Austro-Hungarian army during the war and head of the Austra Hungarian general staff for several years before the war, now is publishing a volume of memoirs which "spill the beans", to use the colloquial phrase, about Austro-German preparations for the big war. Conrad publishes the correspondence between Von Moltke, the chief German general, and himself, dating back over five years before the outbreak of the World War, showing that the cause of the conflict and early development of hostilities were all foreseen and provided for by the two chiefs of staff, and that their imperial masters' only mistake in their calculations was Von Moltke's failure to win victory in a decisive battle with France which was scheduled to take place on the thirty-fifth day after mobilization

Serbia Picked for Victim in 1909.

Comparison of the first day of mobilization, Aug. 1, 1914, and the date marked for the battle indicates how closely the Austro-German military experts were able to draft the time scheduled for the big war already in sight The most interesting letter for German patriots is from Von Moltke dated Jan. 21, 1909, which specifies the way wherein the war was to be started by the invasion of Serbia. Also it shows how the wily Conrad had hitched Germany firmly to Austria's military chariot and that Austria could bring on a world war whenever she chose Von Moltke writes, 'I can give assurance, with the Kaiser's assent, that Germany will take the Austrian side with all her forces if Russia attacks I believe only German invasion of Serbia may cause active intervention At the instant when Russia mobilizes, Germany will mobilize her entire army.'

Detailed arrangements between Von Moltke and Conrad provided that Germany would bring virtually her entire force against France if the latter refused to meet the demands of a short-timed ultimatim requiring positive guarantees, devised as a test. This was to be done in 1914 by a demand for the surrender of the Toul and Verdun fortresses. Austro-Hungary meanwhile would tackle the Russian army and keep it busy until Germany could finish France and come to the rescue.

The date for the decisive battle with France originally was set for the 36th to the 40th day after mobilization, but Conrad found that the second and first Russian armies would be completely mobilized and on the Vistula by the thirty-first day, and, therefore, speeding up the programme so the German allies could reach the Russian front by that time.

DETENTION OF GIRLS ON ISLAND ASSAILED

NEW YORK, Dec 17—Methods of detaining girls over sixteen and women charged with offences in Manhattan for trial in the women's court are condemned by the state commission of prisons in a report issued by the president, John S. Kennedy

Failure to segregate first offenders from hardened cases, failure to separate diseased prisoners from those not known to be infected and the necessity for late and frequent trips from Blackwells Island to Jefferson Market Court are taken up Qaurters at Blackwells Island are said to be "far superior to those at Jefferson Market prior to the making of improvements now under way." The plan of caring for unconvicted women in a part of the workhouse is criticized as "unjust" in view of the statute which says the house of detention shall be convenient to the court for women.

Since July 1 no women have been detained overnight at Jefferson Market prison. Those who have not obtained bail or those who have been bound over or arrested after the close of court are taken to the south wing of the workhouse at the island. Exceptions, in accordace with a rule of Chief Magistrate McAdoo, permit the detention of "young and less hardened offenders' temporarily either in quarters of the Florence Detention League or at Waverly House.

"There are numbers of cases of first offenders and 'young and less hardened offenders' who are sent from police stations direct to the island," the report says, "and at times some of the older and hardened are sent to these private homes, where they are entirely out place with the purposes for which thees homes were established."

From July 1 to the last day of September, 1,739 women and girls were sent to the detention house on the island, the report says. On November 11, while the investigation was under way, twenty-two were on the island with others to follow On that occasion the investigatiors observed:

"There was no segregation of the 'young and less hardened' from the older and hardened, the adults and minors, or the convicted held for sentence from those held for trial One witness in a case was in the same room with a woman charged with shooting and another sentenced to the House of Mercy. There is no segregation of colored from white women or if diseased from those not infected. Young women arrested for the first time for stealing in department stores, incorrigible girls and hardened prostitutes are thrown together."

It is further charged that while being conveyed from the island to the court there is no attempt to segregate those detained. No supervision, except what attention the driver of a van can give, is made over the eleven who usually comprise a load. No matron accompanies the women, the report says, and in some cases, those arrested late at night do not reach the island until several hours later.

The report again asks for better detention facilities for women in Manhattan

Cowardice is the mother of cruelty.

GIFTS THAT LAST

Has Fallen Back On Citizen Force

LONDON, Dec 16.— Reuter's Pretoria correspondent cables that, owing to serious financial conditions, the South African Government has been obliged to hold in abeyance its proposals for the creation of a small permanent military force and the full resumption of the 1922-23 citizen force training system provided for by the South African Defence Act. While adequate provision will be made for fulfilling the Government's responsibility for the guaranteeing of the Cape peninsula's defence, which South Africa assumed on December 1st, the permanent force, including the air force, for the present, will be considerably smaller than was contemplated a year ago. Four temporary Brigadier Generals and thirty six officers on the permanent staff will be retired, and further retirements will probably be necessary. Other economies, like part-time employment of inspecting officers will be effected.

Reuter's Capetown correspondent cabled on November 29 that the Union of South Africa's Defence force was undertaking the Cape peninsula, and the South African Military Command would cease to exist, the Imperial troops from Great Britain having been withdrawn, except for a few details, which were being left for instructional purposes.

CAUGHT IN CAVE; WILL USE GAS

JACKSON, Ky., Dec 17—Three members of a band which raided the Breathitt county jail on Monday morning, killing one man, fatally wounding a woman and seriously wounding another, today were surrounded by state troops in a cave twelve miles from here Captain Holbrook, of the state forces, planned today to use gas in an effort to drive them out.

Captain Holbrook sent Alfred Noble, a friend of the fugitive trio, into the cave last night to ask the men to come out. They sent word that when they came out it would be "feet first."

Captain Holbrook did not feel that his little force was adequate to hold both entrances of the cave so he came back here this morning and got more men. Bloodhounds were brought here this morning, but it was not said for what purpose.
