Band and pipe music will enliven the event. Don't miss it, as it will certainly be the biggest and best day's outing of the season.

HUGH BEATON of South Milford, Mass and until last September a resident of Cambridge, died Sunday, Aug 13, at the Milford Hospital, after suffering from severe injuries sustained by falling on an upturned stake while getting in hay on his farm. Mr. Beaton was 60, and was born at Canoe Cove, a son of Hugh and Katie (Crawford) Beaton of Scotland. He and his family moved from the Island to Cambridge Mass twelve years ago. He is survived by a wife, three sons—John S. and Hugh H. of Boston and Geo. A. of Somerville; three daughters Mrs. T. B. Watkins of Cambridge, Mrs. Wm. McLaren of Commercial Cross and Katherine of South Milford; one sister, Mrs. Peter Christie of New Perth, who mourns for a kind and loving husband, father and brother. He was highly esteemed by all who knew him. The funeral took place Tuesday. The officers of Cambridge True Blue L. O. L. No. 17 of which he was a member, held the services at Vernon Grove Cemetery. There were many floral tributes.

At Kingston Prince Edward Island on June 18, 1906, after a few weeks of intense suffering, Sarah the beloved wife of the late Wm. Cruwys passed away to her reward, aged 82 years. Mrs. Cruwys came to the Island with her parents from Bideford, England, while quite a young girl. She and her husband settled on a farm nearly adjoining her father's farm on which they spent nearly all their married life. She was provided with the best medical skill available and tenderly nursed by her son and daughter-in-law. She was a constant member of the Methodist Church, and will be greatly missed by the community. She was a tender and skillful nurse in sickness and sorrow. She leaves behind her to mourn three sons and three daughters—James, George, with whom she lived; and William, all in Kingston; Emma wife of Charles Clow; Matilda, wife of Ambrose Clow, both in Minnesota, U. S. and Janie, wife of Barrett Henderson, now in North River, and 18 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. Her husband predeceased her 32 years ago also her son Augustus aged 18 years. Rev. Wm. Harrison conducted the funeral services at the house, and at the grave. A large number of her neighbours and friends followed the remains to their last resting place. The pall bearers were her three sons, her son-in-law and two nephews. Com.
