

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all.

C. A. Freeze, T. P. A., of the Main Central Railway, Moncton, was in the City yesterday.

Any centrally situated city house-keeper, who desires one or two young lady boarders, should apply at this office at once.

R. B. Squarebriggs, 75 Prince St., Phone 3, has some excellent fresh and corned beef which he will deliver in any part of the City.

A thoroughly competent cook, who desires a situation at once in a home in this City, with highest wages, should apply at this office immediately.

The steamer Stanley left yesterday to place the mid-strait buoys of the west part of the Island. It has become necessary for the Minto to undergo certain repairs in her steam winches before leaving again for sea. Bruce Stewart and Co., will do the work.

Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Every thing should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I.," and on the left hand corner at the bottom of the envelope should be "Advertising," "Subscription," "Editorial," or "Tour Editor," according to the contents.

The American gasoline yacht, Pieta, now in port is being repaired by Bruce Stewart & Co. The company are installing an engine at Tignish for M. Lynch, and at Victoria for Charles Miller of that place. They are also fitting up a steam hoisting engine for breakwater work, for S. S. MacDonald of Souris.

A bad runaway took place on Buxton Street yesterday morning. The horse being frightened dashed madly from side to side, and eventually broke away from the cart to which it was attached, taking with it the two front wheels. After some little time the animal was captured without having received any serious injury.

Mrs. Enoch Paige, Arthur E. and Mrs. Guild, Donald Paige Malcolm and a servant have arrived from Boston to spend the summer months at Cardigan. They came by rail to Point du Chene, crossed to Summerside and reached this city on Wednesday evening. Yesterday afternoon the party left by rail for Cardigan where they are spending the week. Many old friends will warmly welcome their arrival in Prince Edward Island.

It is understood that Davis & Fraser are about to take over the plant formerly operated by the Dominion Packing Company. The matter is by no means definitely settled as yet, but the prospects for the transaction being brought to a conclusion are favorable. The big building in question has been idle for a number of years and the new enterprise will be most heartily welcomed. The city as a whole will wish Davis & Fraser nothing but success for their praiseworthy enterprise.

The best that ever has appeared in Charlottetown any vaudeville act is now being put on the management of the Opera House. These acts are the highest priced that has ever come into Canada, and every lover of physical perfection and feats of skill which every lady and gentleman wish to see, should see Mr. Jules who challenges any athlete in the world his weight for $500 (five hundred dollars), in a teeth lifting contest, or will forfeit $100, one hundred dollars to any athlete who can duplicate the feats performed in this act at each performance. Miss Getrude Van Dyke, the most popular and pleasing vocalist that has ever been heard at this house, is without doubt making the biggest hit of the season. These attractions will only be here two nights more and all people interested in refined vaudeville should see this. The biggest and Best show ever put on in Charlottetown. Miss Van Dyke and J. McDonald's singing is of unexcelled merit and their songs will be much enjoyed. Tomorrow night there will be a big change Miss Van Dyke will dance and a new illustrated song will be introduced by Miss Van Dyke and J. McDonald. Miss Van Dyke's pleasing appearance and many changes of fancy costume, have made her a general favorite.

"The tea you buy may be good, but you may be sure it is if it is 'Salada.'" It is infinitely more delicious and decidedly more economical than other teas because it goes farther.

The Northumberland arrived in the city last night at eight fifteen. The number of travellers was not large, and the freight fairly heavy.

Among the outward passengers from this City yesterday were Edgar McNutt, west, Percy and Mrs. McMahon, returning to Moncton.

Advertisers are constantly looking for results and receiving them through the Guardian's Classified Advertisements as told in that Column.

E. W. Gardiner, Yarmouth, and A. C. Hanthier, Montreal were passengers to this City by the Western mail train last night and are at the Victoria Hotel.

Take a trip to Orwell on the 24th. The steamer Harland leaves Charlottetown at 9 o'clock; returning, leaves Orwell at 4 o'clock. Round trip 25 cents.

At the Opera House tonight, Miss Van Dyke will introduce the latest dancing sensations. There will be a complete change of moving pictures, also new illustrated songs by Miss Van Dyke and Jack McDonald. No one should fail to be present.

Miss L. B. Murley, New London; Miss Etta Gillis, Garfield; L. Wood, Mt. Herbert; G. A. Harrison, Peterboro'; H. A. Amos, Oxford; and E. Boswell, Victoria came to the City by the Western mail train last evening and are at the Queen Hotel.

A very interesting game of baseball was played between the junior teams, Stars and Anchors, at Victoria Park yesterday. Ernest Lafferty umpired the game to the satisfaction of all. Tommy Corrigan captained the Anchors who won by a score of 13-11. The Stars were captained by Buller Murley.

Due to the proposed erection of the new Canadian Bank of Commerce on Queen St. several well known firms will be obliged to move their business residences. Nothing definite has been decided upon by any of the firms in question, though several sites were at first thought of. In a short time however something will have to be done.

The Peela, an American yacht arrived in this port yesterday. She is at present anchored in the harbor, and will probably remain for a day or so. The boat is fitted with a complete Marconi outfit, and also is equipped with an auxiliary gasoline engine. She came from New York, and after leaving here will go to the Great Lakes.

C. A. Kennedy, who will be well remembered as a former manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia in this city, has been appointed manager of the Sterling Bank branch in Montreal. Mr. Kennedy also represented the Bank of Nova Scotia in Winnipeg, and in his new position succeeds W. D. Hart, who resigned a few months ago owing to the stress of private business.

John Mayne, a well-known farmer living about a mile from Emerald, was stricken with apoplexy on Monday evening. Drs. McMillan and McGuigan were in attendance, but medical assistance was of no avail. The deceased was about sixty-nine years of age, and leaves a family of a widow and one son and six daughters to mourn. The funeral will take place this Friday afternoon to Birch Grove Cemetery. Mr. Mayne was a successful farmer and dairyman, being a director in the Emerald Dairy Association. He took a deep interest in church and educational affairs, and will be greatly missed in the community in which he resided.

The Opera House was well filled last evening. The orchestra's excellent singing, the orchestra's excellent playing, and all the other features of the usual high standard.

Albert McKelvey, Mt. Stewart, was before the court yesterday on a charge of violation of the Prohibition Act. About twelve witnesses for the defendant and prosecutor were examined. The defendant claimed he could produce evidence that the beer was home made and only 2 percent. One witness testified that the beer had intoxicated him. The case was adjourned until Thursday next for judgement.

It is to be hoped that the great majority of the city people will remain at home on Victoria Day, as a program of unsurpassed pleasure will be prepared for those who remain. In the morning there will be shooting at the rifle range, and a baseball match. In the afternoon a splendid football match, and to crown all a most enjoyable entertainment in the evening. These things deserve the Mackenzie Government's shooting at the rifle range, and a baseball match. John A. Lawson of the city Post Office Department has had his leave of absence extended to September 15th due to illness. After that date he will be superannuated at $840 per year. Mr. Lawson's long and useful career began in 1872 when he was appointed to the Post Office, before the Island entered Confederation. For a short time in 1873-74 he was out of office, but in 1874 was re-appointed under the Mackenzie Government. Since then he has held his office continuously. Such a well deserved reward, will be noted with pleasure by Mr. Lawson's many friends.
