MAKING A QUICK FIRE

A screen, properly constructed and placed, will help to get a fire going in your fireplace quickly and easily. You can make the screen of fire-resistant fibre board. It should be large enough to cover the lower half of the fireplace, full width with a one-inch foot-long slot at the bottom along the hearth centre. Lay the fire as usual, light and place the screen. The air, drawing through the opening, will act as a forced draft. Remove the screen when the blaze is well started.

FINANCE

By Frederick Gardner
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, April 15—(AP)—The stock market today slipped at the opening, rallied around midday and relapsed in the final hour.

Canadian International Nickel and Ford crept forward while Dome and Lake Shore Mines, Brazilian Traction and Imperial Oil dipped trifles.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off .1 of a point at 40.1, wiping out yesterday's upturn of as much. A few large blocks of low-priced utilities put volume up to 453,000 shares compared with 458,700 the day before.

Case, Sperry, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Atlantic Coast Line, Western Union, Anaconda, Westinghouse and Texas Corp.

Earning forecasts helped some individual issues such as Warner Bros. which held a gain of 1-8 at 3 1-2, a new 1941 peak.

Greek and Yugoslav Forces Counter-Attacking Fiercely

Observers on the ground said the greatest battle ever fought in the bloody history of the Balkans was imminent as the German army, driving south into Greece, came up against the British-Greek defence position extending across the peninsula. Axis communiques claimed the Italian forces of Albania had made contact with the Germans at Lake Ochrida, north of the Greek-Yugoslav border. Heavy fighting was reported northwest of Skoplje, however, where a Yugoslav force seeks to prevent a real junction of the enemy armies. Another Yugoslav force is still making headway in Albania. In Macedonia, the surrounded Greeks are still fighting hard, according to Athens, despite German claims that they have surrended.
