WILLIAM HENRY ELLIS

After a lengthy illness there passed away at his home in Tyne Valley, William Henry Ellis, one of the community's most respected and most beloved citizens at the comparatively early age of 60 years. Stricken five years ago Mr. Ellis went to Montreal for treatment and for a time enjoyed a measure of restored health but it was short-lived and it soon became evident that there was no hope for his recovery. Through the entire period of his illness—though a great sufferer at times—not once did he complain but watched with simple resignation and trust the sinking of the sands in the hourglass of life. Shortly before his death he made full confession of his faith in Jesus Christ and received baptism and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper administered by his much loved pastor, Rev. E. C. Robertson.

The end came peacefully to his waiting soul and with his head pillowed in the arms of his faithful helpmate, who tenderly nursed him through his long illness, his spirit took its flight to God who gave it.

Mr. Ellis was the son of the late John Ellis and Margaret England and was one of a large family, all of whom, except two, survive him.

The funeral was held from the Presbyterian Church, Tyne Valley, and his mortal remains were laid beside his father and mother and daughter Margaret in the United Cemetery. Rev. E. C. Robertson, assisted by Rev. Mr. Nicholson of the United Church, conducted the services at the home and church.

The service at the grave was conducted by the Masonic Order of which he was a member. The hymns were all favorites of the deceased and were touchingly rendered by a United Church choir. The twenty-third Psalm, "Shall We Gather at the River," "Rock of Ages," and "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me". Besides his sorrowing widow (nee Amelia Brown), he leaves to mourn two sons, Leonard in Malden, Mass., and George at home, and four daughters, Oleoine, Elvira, Bertha and Gladys are at home; also the following brothers and sisters: James Ellis, Washington, Burton, Everett, Mass., Mrs. C. J. Russell, Phil., Mrs. M. A. Sykes, Vermont; Mrs. Geo. Spring, Rhode Island; Mrs. Amos England, Boston; Mrs. William Dennis, O'Leary; Mrs. John Cameron, Arlington, Miss Louise, O'Leary. The floral tributes were very beautiful and consisted of the following: Broken circle, family; Spray, Leonard and wife; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis and Louise; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brown; cross, Presbyterian Church; wreath, Geo. Brown; wreath, National Wool Corp., Boston; spray, Mrs. D. N. Forbes; spray, Mrs. Ivan MacLean. The pall bearers were Wilfred McDougall, Allen England, Arch'd Ellis, Joseph Veal, Edmond Maynard, Edward McArthur.

Dairy Notes From Tryon

The following notes from the June settlement of the Tryon Dairying Company should be an incentive to farmers to take more interest in the dairy cow. With the prevailing low prices of farm produce the farmers of this distict have turned their crops into dollars through the aid of good cows. Over 50 percent of the patrons of this company averaged one dollar and a few nearly two dollars per day in June. This was net after cream handling and manufacturing charges were paid. You will note a number of those patrons have made a good average for the past six months.

R. W. Dixon, June cheque $66.79; average for month from Jan. 1st to June 30th $54.82.

C. W. Ives, June cheque $64.85, average per month Jan st to June 30 $50.03.

Major Carruthers, June cheque $52.21, average per month Jan 1st to June 30, $51.65.

Fred Leard, June cheque, $50.10, average per month Jan. 1st to June 30th, $45.66.

Frank Muttart, June cheque $49.24, average per month Jan. 1st to June 30th $42.30.

There was a boy's and girls Holstein Calf Club organized in Tryon in July, 1932, and in September they had their show opposite the creamery, twenty members exhibiting calves of a good dairy quality about half of which were purebreds. This year this Club is bigger than ever and have some very fine calves. The dad's of those boys and girls have taken a renewed interest in dairy cattle as is evidenced by the fact that one group in Tryon purchased a young purebred sire from Bovyer's of Bunbury. This young bull is being kept at Fred Leard's and shows promise of becoming an outstanding animal.

A second group in North Tryon and Albany have purchased the Holstein bull, Dokter Abberkerk Lad from Mr. Cecil Stewart of Hampshire. This is an exceptionally fine animal and has sired some of the best stock shown at calf club shows last year. He is being kept by Roy Wood of North Tryon.

Jasper National Park

OTTAWA, July 25—Instituted twenty-five years ago, Jasper National Park from its inception has been justly popular with tourists. As a national park it is the largest reservation in Canada and a playground peculiarly fitted to meet any and all requirements. It is a region of superb mountain grandeur, where peak after peak lifts its frosty head above the clouds, where the remnants of the last great Ice Age still lie in the thick fields upon the shoulders of the mountains and flow down in slow moving, frozen rivers or in leaping green streams to the valley below; a region of tremendous distances, of high waterfalls, deep canyins, and black, upsoaring cliffs; yet a region of green loveliness, of grassy valleys and thick pine forests, of emerald uplands bright with flowers, of lakes, pure and brilliant in color. An animal paradise, too, where many thousands of wild creatures roam unmolested and unmolesting.

AN EFFECTIVE PERORATION

It was his first great speech, and he wanted it to be a success.

His oration was long and passionate, and he wished to end it with a warning.

He could have couched in the old proverb about locking the stable door after the horse was stolen, but that was too commonplace. He wanted something original.

He thought of something better. Then he shouted: Don't, I beg you—don't wait till the house takes fire before you summon the firemen.

Worth While

During a dramatic love scene in the film they were watching, the wife nudged her husband and said:—"Why is it that you never make love to me like that?"

"Say," he replied, "do you know the salary that guy gets for doing that?"

At a recent Defense Force medical examination the oculist asked a prospective recruit to read the top line of a test card which ran X H V B Q I B T F K Z. After a silence of several minutes, the oculist interjected impatiently: Surely you can read letters of that size.

I can see the letters, said the recruit, but I can't pronounce those foreign words.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE EXPLAINED

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, July 26—Conversion of the Roman Catholic faith and her announced intention of becoming a nun are major clues pointing to a solution of the disappearance of Miss Natalie Carr of New Haven, Conn., Miss Antoinette Elliott, the missing girl's aunt, tonight told the Canadian Press.

Visibly tired from the past week's futile efforts to find her niece, Miss Elliott told how the beautiful, wealthy Vassar College student left the summer home of her grandfather at Clinton, Conn., on July 13, drove to West Point to keep an appointment and instead of remaining there overnight drove to New Haven where she abandoned her automobile and entrained for St. Myacinthe, Que.

During a visit to Canada in June Miss Carr became a Roman Catholic, said Miss Elliott. It was understood by the girl's family that she had considered entering a religious order.

"This was opposed by her family but she was in no way ostracized," said the Canadian Press informant. "Indeed, she did not in any way let us know definitely that she had made up her mind one way or the other."

Information that the girl had left for St. Hyacinthe was obtained after inquiries in New Haven and relatives in New York communicated with the Mother House of the Sisters of the Presentation of Mary in the Quebec city. Miss Carr was a student in that institution for eight years, graduating in 1931. It was learned she visited the Mother House on July 14. Following her visit, the Mother Superior of the convent told Miss Carr's relatives, the girl left for an unannounced destination.
