WEDNESDAY

INTERESTING COINCIDENCE—It is interesting to note and also a coincidence that the improvements in the City Post Office referred to in this issue of the Guardian have been completed on the anniversary of Mr. McCarey having taken over the duties of Postmaster. It is just a year ago since Mr. McCarey assumed the duty of that office and ever since the Post Office has given the maximum of satisfaction to the public. The Postmaster is a most efficient and obliging official and does everything he possibly can to satisfy the public and give a first-class postal service.

FROM OVERSEAS—Private Cecil Kemp, son of Capt. Ernest Kemp, of this city, arrived home last night from overseas. He reached this side about a fortnight ago on the Belgic, which brought out 39 Islanders, who got home last Saturday week. Pte. Kemp left for England in the 16th Field Ambulance. He had then the rank of Corporal. He was promoted to Sergeant but after the 16th was broken up he reverted to the rank of private to get over to France in the 3rd C.A. M.C. He was in the hospital at Doullens when that place was bombed by the Huns. There were about 50 casualties. Miss Mary Hazard, nursing sister, of Charlottetown, was also in this hospital at the same time.

THURSDAY

ANOTHER BANK.—Mr. W. J. Ryan, Manager of the Union Bank of Canada, at St. John's, N. B., has been in the city for some days and is being welcomed back by his many friends here. Mr. Ryan is about to establish a branch of the Union Bank of Canada in Charlottetown. It will be situated in the new Riley Block on Queen Street. The Union Bank is one of the leading institutions of its kind in the Dominion. This is indicated by the fact that it has now 344 offices, from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, including two in London and one in New York. The total assets of the Bank are over $150,000,000. It is very encouraging to see large banking institutions such as this opening here. It shows that they have every faith in the prosperity of the Province.

WEDDING.—The Vancouver Province of April 26th says:—The marriage took place in St. Augustine's Church, April 24, of Miss Mary Walburga Trainor and Mr. Michael A. Powell, the Rev. E. W. Connolly officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore her mother's wedding gown of ivory silk trimmed with pearls and true lovers' knots of silver ribbon, with tulle veil and orange blossoms, and carried a showy bouquet of cream roses and palest pink rosebuds. She was attended by her sister, Miss Kathleen Trainor, whose dress was of opal blue silk with grey crepe hat faced with blue, blue streamers and French flowers giving the finishing touch of a pretty creation. She carried pink carnations. The groom's brother, Mr. W. Powell, was best man. The wedding march was played by the groom's sister, Mrs. M. Maloney of New Westminster, and a solo, "All Joy Be Thine," was beautifully rendered by Miss Mollie Sterling, with organ accompaniment by Miss Lily Kindlesides. The groom's present to the bride was a diamond pendant set in platinum, and to the bridesmaid a pearl and onyx ring. After the ceremony the bridal party with guests motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding breakfast was served, after which they left by the 10.30 boat on a trip to Seattle and Portland. The bride's going-away costume was a blue tailored suit with blue satin hat and black stole. A large number of wedding presents were received by the Lemons Beautify!

Make Quarter Pint of Lotion, Cheap

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quarter pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck arms and hands it should help to bleach clear, smoothen and beautify the skin. Any druggist will supply three ounces or orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

happy couple. The Miss Trainor referred to is a daughter of Michael and Mrs. Trainor, formerly of Charlottetown and sister of J. Vincent Trainor of St. Dunstan's University.

FOR WESTERN CANADA—Flight Lieut. Wm. Scott, who recently returned from England after being a prisoner of war in Germany for a couple of years leaves this morning en route to Victoria, B. C. Mr. Scott takes with him the best wishes of a host of friends for success in the West.

—WEDDING BELLS.—Mrs. William R. Ellis, Port Hill has received word of the marriage of her son Private Hugh M. Ellis, to Miss Elizabeth M. Barlas, of Perth, Scotland. Private Ellis who has been overseas for about four years will it is expected arrive with his bride to his old home in Port Hill about the middle of May.—P.

A LUCKY FIND.—While Mr. Lawson Douglas, of Head of Hillsboro, was loading a load of hay out of a barrack in his field one day last week he spied a red fox going along with a hen in its mouth. He tried to frighten the fox to make it drop the hen, but brave Reynard trotted on quite unconcerned with the hen. Mr. Douglas returned home for his brother Gordon, and they returned, but the fox had disappeared from Mr. Douglas' view. They, however, soon found the fox's den, and started to dig, but night coming on them they placed a coat in the mouth of the den and went home to rest, but not to sleep, for visions of foxes danced before them all night long. They returned again in the morning to resume their work in an endeavor to locate Reynard, and had not dug long when they could hear the young foxes, and soon were rewarded for their work by rolling out of the den with a stick 8 or 9 little foxes. They placed the young foxes in a bag at the edge of the den, and putting a trap in the mouth of the den they then stood back a short distance when in just a few minutes the mother fox coming out to the cry of her babies was securely caught in a trap and soon put in a bag and taken home. They intend to keep the foxes and start a ranch. Mr. Lawson

RED ROSE
TEA "is good tea"

ASSAM is the original home of the tea bush. In this section of Northern India, the plant finds the most suitable soil and most congenial climate. In the crack plantations of ASSAM are grown the richest and strongest teas in the world—and it is of these teas that Red Rose chiefly consists. That is why Red Rose has such an exquisite aroma, a rich, satisfying flavor and a strength that makes it economical.

Always sold in sealed packages.

and Gordon Douglas are to be congratulated on their success as fox hunters.

—A RECEPTION to returned soldiers was held in the hall at Port Hill on the evening of April 28th. The soldiers on the platform were Sergt. Arthur Yeo, Northam, Sprs. Stanley Dennis, Erwin Dougherty, taken home. They intend to keep the foxes and start a ranch. Mr. Lawson at Halifax and Sydney. Rev. Roland Davison was chairman of the meeting and a nice program of singing was carried out. Addresses were given by Rev. John J. Bamford, Messrs. W. J. Montgomery, Arch. Montgomery, H. B. S. Birch, Hector Dobie, Cyril Dobie and the chairman. The returned heroes were then called upon and all responded Spr. McLennan giving a good and lengthy account of his trip across the seas and of some of his experiences at the front. After the program had been concluded all present partook of refreshments furnished by the good ladies of Port Hill and vicinity.—P.

—A LUCKY FIND.—A wild female fox and nine black pups were the fortunate find of Mr. Alex. Biggar, Lot 10, in a hollow tree quite near his home. Mr. Biggar was in Summerside Saturday with his valuable find.

Why Some Furniture Never Seems to Grow Old

OLD in its associations, yes. Old in that beautiful, intimate sense of affection we sometimes have for even inanimate things—but not old in the sense of shabbiness.

Protection of the surface is the secret of the continued good looks of furniture. It is the surface of the furniture that bears the burden of constant wear. It is the surface we see. As long as the surface is kept protected good furniture stays good and grows more valuable yearly.

And furniture, after all, only illustrates a point.

It may be something very different—the metal trim of your buildings or the steps of your house. What use will do to your furniture, rust will do to the metal, and scuffing feet to the doorsteps. Again, what these things will do, the elements will do to your wooden house, or to stucco, or sometimes even cement.

"SAVE THE SURFACE AND YOU SAVE ALL"

Surface gives the first foot-hold to wear, rust, decay, and all destruction. The gospel of thrift as applied to the things we own is the gospel of preserving the surface.

Expensive repairs can be avoided by taking a little pains to protect the surface of the metal trim on your buildings. Remember how it is exposed. Keep it well protected and rust won't have a chance.

THIS ANNOUNCEMENT is issued by the Canadian Save the Surface Campaign Committee, for the purpose of educating the public in the preservation and protective value of Paint, Varnish and Allied Products for the Conservation of Property, and has received the approval of the Canadian Trade Commission on the following words:

"The realization of the above objects will lead to employment during the Reconstruction Period and bears our entire approval."
