IRISH FREE STATE WILL AWAIT CANADA'S MOVE AT CONFERENCE

Ulster Opposed to Free State Representation and Breach Between the Two Sections of Ireland Likely to Widen.

(British United Press)

LONDON, July 8.—The Irish Free State Minister for external affairs with full staff has come to London the consult quietly with the British Government regarding the attitude of Britain at the forthcoming conference. It is learn that Ireland will not raise any questions about the position of the dominions within the Empire but will await Canada's lead in this matter where Canada goes Ireland will go is the sentiment generally expressed by Irish officialdom. The Free State believes that Canada has the foremost right to claim the rights and privileges of independent action which is ingrained in the Irish people. The people of Ulster on the other hand feel that the Free State representation at the conference is the worst blow to proverbial Ulster's pride since the partition of 1920 for they realize that while the Free State representatives are sitting in the Empire Council, mighty Ulster will not be directly represented except through England. The result of this probably will be a firmer determination on the part of Ulster to resist all efforts to establish a boundary commission and widen the breach between Ulster and the Free State.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY AT EGMONT BAY YESTERDAY

Corner Stone of the New Catholic Church Laid by Bishop O'Leary Before a Large Audience of Parishioners and Visitors.

Before an audience numbering about two thousand, comprising parishioners, clergy and visitors who had travelled from all parts of the Island to be present for the occasion, the corner stone of the magnificent new Catholic Church now under construction at Egmont Bay was laid yesterday afternoon by His Lordship Bishop O'Leary.

The weather favored the carrying out of the ceremony, which commenced at three o'clock and which was very impressive and beautiful. A platform, suitably decorated, served for the event, and a temporary altar was erected in the open air on the steps of the Parish House.

The proceedings opened with an able sermon, preached in French by Rev. N. Poirier of St. Dunstan's University. His Lordship then laid the corner stone, and blessed the edifice. He was assisted by Rev. John Gaudet, Bloomfield, and Rev. Alphonse Arsenault, Magdalen Islands, acting as deacon and subdeacon, and Rev. Martin Monaghan of Miscouche, and Rev. R. St. John, of the Cathedral staff, as masters of ceremony. The ceremony was followed by Pontifical Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Enclosed in the corner stone, which is of fine grey sandstone, cut at Summerside, and suitably engraved, was placed records of the parish, coins of the realm, copies of local newspapers, etc.

The new building, designed by Messrs. C. B. Chappell & Hunter, architects, Charlottetown, will, when completed, be the finest Catholic church, next to the Cathedral, in the Province. It will be 190 ft. by 78 ft. between the transepts. The front will have two towers, each about 80 ft. high, with the chapel in the rear about 50 ft. by 25 ft. It is being built of Richmond brick by Messrs. P. Rice and Sons, brick builders, Cardigan, under the superintendence of Mr. W. Hennessey, Charlottetown.

The building is now about fourteen feet above the ground all around, and it is intended to have the roof covered in by the fall, when services will be held, continuing until the final completion of the building.

Colonel Allison H. Borden, newly appointed General Officer Commanding Military District 2, succeeding Major-General Panet, who has been appointed Adjutant-General at Ottawa, is shown at his desk today at military headquarters, Toronto. Colonel Borden, who was born in 1878, in the Annapolis Valley, began his military career in the ranks of the 68th Regiment of King's County, Nova Scotia. He is a graduate of Mount Allison University, Sackville, N. S., and in 1902 was granted his commission in the 68th Regiment. Upon his return from overseas in 1919, Colonel Borden was appointed A. A. M. G., of the M. D. 6, with headquarters at Halifax, and in the following year he was transferred to Winnipeg, M. D., as general staff officer. He has been in Winnipeg for the last three years.

At the close of the meeting, the chairman, in advising the miners to commit no acts of violence against the troops, added "any man who goes back to work after taking this vow sinks his principles to the soles of his boots "Comrades I don't ask you to kill any man that goes back to work, I want you to kick him to death."

Strong Appeal for Christian Standard In Citizenship

Taking as his text Matthew 5,-41: "Whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain", Rev. Dr. Shearer, General Secretary of the Social Service Council of Canada made a powerful appeal in the Central Christian Church last night for a higher standard of Christian service and particularly for the application of that principle towards the securing of justice for the underprivileged children of this Province. He pointed out that whilst the scribes and Pharisees were punctilliously faithful in the observance of the moral law they were guilty of coldly calculating how far the law may go, without giving one thought to going an inch beyond, and their attitude represented all the difference between Christianity and Judaism.

A man may "square" with the law and be a Shylock in business There are some people in this world perfectly honest in the legal sense, who would skin a flint if a flint had any skin on it. And the good name of Christ has suffered far more from the smallness of His followers than from all the infidelity in the world. There could be no "smallness" in the man who beleves in the "second mile" service.

After pointing out how the practical application of his text would work out in economic and social life, Dr. Shearer took up the political duties resting upon Christians He knew of people who complacently believed that if they paid their taxes and kept out of jail they were good citizens. But citizenship meant more than this.

"Do you know that outside of Charlottetown, elsewhere throughout Prince Edward Island a girl who becomes delinquent cannot be sent to an industrial school where alone such a girl should be sent?" he asked.

"The Juvenile Act is not in force here except in Charlottetown because the Government have not asked to make it apply, for the reason, I suppose, that they did not know the people wanted it."

Boys in knee britches have been sent to penitentiary in this Province because the people are so tragically afraid of paying the extra cent or two in taxes that will provide for their being sent to places where they can develop properly, the speaker continued. Poltics has been called "the greatest game in the world" but when the Kingdom of God comes in polities instead of being a game, will be the science of social welfare.

The onus attached to the names of illigitimate children was strongly condemned. Why should a social brand be placed on innocent children as with a hot iron, and why should the law leave the mothers to bear the whole of the parents' shame? The social Service Council have undertaken to right this wrong, insofar as compelling the fathers of these children to support them until sixteen years of age. This law is now operating in Manitoba, Ontario, British Columbia and Alberta and it is the intention to make the same request to the government of this Province.

Dr. Shearer spoke along similar lines in his morning sermon at Methodist Church.
