ANOTHER ISLANDER KILLED.—Killed in action. Chief Sark has received word that his step son Louis Toney was killed in action. This is the fourth native of Lennox Island to make the Supreme Sacrifice. Thirteen others have been wounded since the Battle of Amiens in July and one of them Joseph Tuplin, has been recommended for the military medal.

WELL KNOWN HERE.—Lieutenant C. A. MacLean son of the late Judge MacLean, of Battledford, and grandson of the Rev. Dr. A. MacLean, Eureka, Pictou County, has been invited home to Canada, having been severely wounded early in the year. Another son, James Frederick, is in training in England, for the R. A. F., after having served with the Princess Patricia's for three years.—The Presbyterian Witness—These brave boys are grandsons of the late C. A. Hyndman and nephews of Mrs. (Dr.) Bagnall and C. West Hyndman. The Rev. Dr. McLean above referred to was for several years pastor of the Belfast Presbyterian Church this province.

LUCKY BIRDS.—On Thursday a flock of four fine large wild geese alighted on the grass in the garden of a Charlottetown suburbanite who has the reputation of being a crack shot. Procuring his trusty gun he sallied forth to make short work of the feathered quartette and coming up to short range fired point blank into the flock. Strange to say this marksman who was never before known to miss failed to hit one of the birds which immediately rose and steered into the heavens taking a direct northerly course. They certainly had a narrow escape.
