ALL NEWS OF LOCAL INTEREST

HUNDREDS of citizens and Company No. 1, 82nd Bat. under command of Lieut. A. J. B. Melish thronged the Steam Navigation Wharf at the arrival of the Princess last night. As the boat drew near three lusty cheers were given for the boys in khaki which were returned in a like manner.

Among the members of the Contingent were:

Lieut. Lorne Stewart.
Sgt. Sullivan Henry.
Sgt. F. S. Moore.
Corp. Ernest Davy.
Lance Corp. C. McQuillan.
James Hughes.
Edward Murphy,
Joseph Whitehead.
W. G. McFarlane.
James Currie,
Francis Landrigan.
James Coffin.

There were others whose names we were unable to obtain as the Contingent was not under a commanding officer.

A FISHERMAN'S luck was never better illustrated at this port than in the case of several vessels which arrived at T. wharf since closing hours Saturday, when one seining steamer stocked about $3700 on her trip of mackerel and another schooner stocked $1,500 for her ground fish, while a seining scooner that had been out three weeks came back to refit and clean. The steamer was the Alice M. Jacobs, commanded by the redoubtable Sol Jacobs, who has recently been making good stocks and will be in the fight to stay as the highliner of the mackerel catches when the season is ended and the ground fisher is the schooner Frances Whalen, in command of Captain Bat Whalen, who is pretty close to being highliner this season, while the unfortunate seiner was the Gertrude, which didn't even catch a smell of mackerel on the long trip. The seiners were all from Georges and included the Jacobs, with 30,000 fresh and 70 barrels salt. The mackerel on the Jacobs were of enormous size, many weighing from four to four and one-half pounds apiece, and they were claimed by dealers as being the finest lot of mackerel landed at the pier so far this season. The steamer has had excellent luck in the mackerel catching this season, and since April 17 the 17 fisherman to date have stocked $475 each, good wages for a little over three months' work. The steamer has two engineers and two firemen who are under wages by the month. Captain Jacobs reported that he sighted the seining schooner Flora Nickerson on the grounds, and although she was out two weeks she had secured a slim two barrels. —Boston Post.
