

Film...dangerous to teeth

Remove it daily to keep teeth white and sound

FILM is the cause of dull, discolored teeth as well as the serious tooth and gum disorders. Run your tongue across your teeth and you will feel this film. It absorbs stains from food and smoking and turns white teeth dull. It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays.

Men Marooned

By George Marsh

THE STORY

From Graham at Attawapiskat and Boucher at Kapiskau, he anticipated little aid or comfort. The former was an inactive oldish man with a large up-river trade, and Boucher, according to Cameron at Albany, already in a panic over the rumor of the machine guns aboard McDonald's schooner. So Garth had decided that he would ignore his colleagues on the coast south of him and play a lone hand.

For a space the two men nursed their pipes in silence; then the face of the white man suddenly lighted.

"Saul Souci!" he cried. "Why didn't we think of him before? Etienne, we'll hunt up old Saul and send him to winter on the island. He's got two or three sons there, and besides being Treaty Chief of the Crees, is a sort of medicine man, shaman, isn't he?"

Blowing a cloud of smoke through his teeth, the half-breed grunted his disapproval. "He winter on de Little Elkwan—up een de Winkus country. Eet weel tak' long tam to find heem."

"Oh, I know it will be difficult to get him across the strait before the ice, but we'll put him over somehow."

"We get frozen een wid our cano' up riviere," protested the hard-headed bushman.

"We'll take a birch canoe and leave it—carry the little toboggan to come out with—the dogs can follow the shore going up," urged the enthusiastic Guthrie.

Knowing the country, Etienne realized only too well the difficulty of travelling between seasons; breaking the young ice in the quiet reaches of the river until compelled to abandon the canoe; then the wait for the closing of the stream and the snow. For weeks the thin ice of the Elkwan would be a trap for the unwary dog team. To the trail-wise Etienne, it was a foolish venture; to the man whose only thought was the salvage of the fox trade, a necessity.

"How you get heem to de island?" "If the channel and strait are open, we'll take him in the York boat. We can wait for the wind and if there isn't much flow of ice, ew'll get him across."

Etienne knocked out his pipe. His bright eyes snapped as he looked at Guthrie. "Eef you say, I go. But we are two dam' fool."

"But we've got to give these people a fight for that fur—it's worth thousands to us."

"All right, boss, we fight." But when the veteran voyager told his wife of the mad purpose of Guthrie, her dark face greyed with fear at the thought of the November journey over the thin ice of the Elkwan.

For a week, with his two best huskies, Castor and Pollux, and shot following opposite banks of the river to avoid fighting, Garth and Etienne poled and paddled and tracked past black spruce and poplar grown shores from the latter of which the frost had stripped the leaves.

At the mouth of the Little Elkwan the winter suddenly shut down, locking lakes and deadwaters with a shell too thick for their battering poles to break a channel through for their canoe, and the men in search of Saul Souci were prisoners. Somewhere up the Little Elkwan ran the trap-lines of the man, to reach whom they had slaved for days with ice-crusted poles and paddles, and freezing hands, while their hot breaths rose in columns on the keen air; but until a fall of snow, or some bitter nights to bridge the river trail, they could not move. However, there were five hungry mouths to feed, so they hunted back in the muskox for caribou. At last, when severe frost had sealed the slower flowing reaches of the river with three-inch ice, they hitched the huskies, and started. Shot, who the winter previous had learned to draw Grath's trapping sled, refusing to team with the larger dogs, ran loose.

MAKE THIS YOUR LAST DAY OF CONSTIPATION

"Fruit-a-tives" Restores the Liver to Healthy, Normal Action

MR. DUPERRON

Mr. Donald Duperron of Maxville, Ont., is only one of thousands of men who feel that "Fruit-a-tives" is their sure protector against Bilious Headaches, Sick Stomach, Indigestion, Kidney Trouble, which are usually caused by constipation. As Mr. Duperron says: "After trying many remedies for Constipation, 'Fruit-a-tives' was recommended—and the results were marvellous. All the ill effects of this disease left me, and 'Fruit-a-tives' really made a new man of me." Try this great fruit medicine, 25c. and 50c. a box—at dealers everywhere.

The second day out they learned from an Indian that Souci's main camp was two sleeps up the river. And thanks to the trained eyes of Etienne, and sled avoided the traps of shell ice over the swift water and the second night turned in to a winter camp.

At the change of his dogs, Saul Souci, Treaty Chief of the Elkwan Crees, lean, grizzled, taciturn, with bony features, over which leather-like skin lined with wrinkles was tightly drawn, pushed through the flap of his lip.

"Kequay!" he said, showing no surprise at the strange appearance of the Elkwan people one hundred and fifty miles inland at a time when no sane Indian traveled the river. The three shook hands and, first feeding and chaining the dogs to trees, entered the smoky tent where Saul's wife and two sons were eating from a copper kettle.

Not until his guests had been served with caribou stew and tea did Souci question them as to the purpose of their coming. Then he said in Cree, which Etienne interpreted to Garth: "You take a hard moon to travel up the Elkwan."

Tryon and Vicinity

(By Da.)

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Schurman, Chelton, were recent visitors to North Tryon, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Manson MacNeil.

Mr. Warren Wood, of Lincoln, Maine is visiting relatives in North Tryon.

Messrs C. W. Ives, and Sterling Lord motored to Charlottetown, on Saturday and reported good roads.

Mr. Geo. McWilliams, spent the week-end in Charlottetown the guest of Prof. H. A. Tanton.

Mr. Frank Cobb recently had the misfortune of losing a valuable horse.

The Tryon hockey team which comprises several of the originals of the "Tryon Arrows" recently crossed sticks with the Crapaud Saxeite on the Victoria rink results being a victory for the Tryon boys. The Arrows however have not been so lucky, for since the last "Tryon and Vicinity" they have gone down to defeat twice at the hand of the Albany St. Pats, and once from the Bedeque Beavers and now current rumor has it that the Arrows are completely broken up and the Bearcats under the capable management of Lloyd Inman lining up to fill the bill. Their personnel consists of L. Inman, Capt. and centre, Keith Thomas and Goldie Delaney wings, Art Rogerson and Blain Dawson defence, Geo Dawson goal, spares, Stanley Thompson, Geo Robblee. A line up believe me capable of handling all and sundry except of course the Victorious, Crystals (that much for hockey more anon.)

Messrs Alfred Kehoe and E. H. Boulter, were Saturday visitors to the Western Capital, where they took in the horse race and all in all had a very enjoyable time.

Prince Pays Surprise Visit To London Store

(Special to the Guardian)

LONDON, Feb. 22—New evidence was brought to light today, of the Prince of Wales' intimate knowledge of business matters, first shown in his Mansion House speech recently.

Friends of the Prince are telling tonight how he paid a surprise visit to the head of one of London's greatest department stores. In the dress fabric department the Prince suddenly asked a buyer: "Can you tell me where this piece was manufactured?" The buyer could not answer, and the Prince thereupon named a German company. To the startled store owner the Prince suggested the name of an English firm, which he said could produce a better fabric.

Later the Prince went into the shoe department where he picked up a French shoe.

"Why not English?" he demanded, and was informed that French shoes were preferred because cheaper labor permitted of a lower price. Immediately the Prince named a firm in Northampton and gave details of its shoes.

The Prince left before a half hour was up, but the directors had plenty to think about for many days.

Warning--Danger

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS AND HIGHWAYS

Car owners are hereby warned that the ice on many of the bays, harbours and rivers of the Province is unsafe for Motor Vehicles; and as the Spring approaches the danger will be increasing. The recent mild weather and the undercurrents have worn the ice thin in many places, especially on the East and West Rivers. Reports of cars breaking through the ice with narrow escapes from drowning have already come to this office; so both car-drivers and passengers are advised to be cautious, if they must use the ice, and thus avoid any fatality. L. B. McMILLAN, Deputy Minister of Public Works, Charlottetown, P. E. I., February 15th, 1929.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY

Hartsville, P. E. I. To Bros. Borden and Lorne MacLennan. We, in behalf of the members of Highland Division, No. 265, wish to convey to you our sincere sympathy in the death of your dearly beloved father. While we realize that any words of ours cannot be of any avail to you, we can only commend you to the care of our Heavenly Father, who doeth all things well and worketh everything for good. Trusting that we shall meet the loved ones in the better land where partings are unknown, we shall look forward to that happy re-union.

"Not now, but in the coming years. It may be in the better land. We'll read the meaning of our tears. And there, sometime, we'll understand." Signed in L. P. and F. Isabel MacDONALD, Russel R. Jewell, John MacLennan, (Jr.)

LETTER OF SYMPATHY

To Bro. D. A. MacIntosh: Springfield, P. E. I. Dear Bro: The brethren of Knox L. O. L. No. 1047, desire to express their sincere sympathy in your recent sad bereavement. While it seems baffling to you and all of us now, why one so young and full of promise should be cut off so early in life seems a mystery. But some day we will understand. We realize your sorrow is hard to bear, and that any words of ours would be of little consolation. But we would direct you to him who hath said, "I will not leave you comfortless, I will come to you." We trust therefore that while your hearts are sorely tried, that you will bow submissively to His will in our earnest prayer. Signed in behalf of the Lodge J. D. MacDonald, W. M. John MacLennan, (Jr.) R. S. For saving another child while her baby boy was drowning, Mrs. Elizabeth O'Hagen, of Derry, Ireland, was recently presented a Royal Humane Society medal.
