P. W. C. DEBATE—The following debate was held in the College on Tuesday, Feb. 5 on the subject: "Resolved that the execution of Charles I. was justifiable" The debate was somewhat one sided owing to the fact that two of the debaters on the Pro side found it necessary to be absent. Mr. Guy Judson taking the place of his absent leader advanced many points in favor of the resolution. He was supported by Miss Theresa Woodside The Pro side contended that the King cared nothing for the welfare of the country and allowed folly and pleasure to be his chief duty. Parliament remonstrated with the King time after time, but to no avail. The Con side under the capable leadership of Miss May Gardner whose speech is especially worthy of comment, advanced stronger arguments than their opponents. She was assisted by Miss C. McDonald and Fred O'Neil in well delivered speeches. They argued that Charles was not a good king by any means but he had committeed no crime worthy of death. If the people had been consulted there would not have been any execution. Charles' failures and mismanagements are not to be compared with the great error and sin of his execution at the hands of Cromwell. The vote resulted in a victory for the Con side. The critic, Miss Marion McSwain, briefly reviewed the debate. The Honorary President urged the students to accept responsibilities. In this way selfishness would be broadened into interest and thought for others.

New President Faces Difficulties

(Canadian Press)

PEKING, Feb. 6. —Marshal Tsao Kun has now occupied the presidential palace for three months, but so far he has little to show for himself in the way of cabinet building. China is still, as she has been for a considerable period, a country with a government that does not govern.

Wu Pei-fu and many of his associates have been carrying on a campaign for parliamentary disbandment, but the principal obstacles to this is that, if evicted from Peking, the Chinese politicians would go elsewhere and announce to the world that they were the only original, legal and responsible rulers of the country, as they have done before. This is regarded as not a great danger, as no one wants them badly enough to pay them. Sun Yat Sen and Lu Yunghsiang have already said that they will not have them and one cannot imagine Chang Tso Fin the Manchurian chieftain burdening himself with such a burlesque troupe.

By far the greater danger is that with the present parliament out of the way, Tsao Kun, who is very keen on being a "constitutional" president, would not be able to have a new one elected from a sufficient number of provinces to make a showing.

Deadlock over the premiership continues. The president's legal advisers have suggested that he ignore parliament and appoint Dr. Sun Yat Sen a sort of acting premier, but the proposal has met with strenuous opposition from other sources and it is doubtful whether Dr. Sun would accept the appointment were it offered to him

Cotton Producers Go On Strike

(Canadian Press)

CANTON. Feb. 6. —When the government granted the application of a big commercial concern known as the Haiynen Syndicate to levy a likin tax on native silk goods in Canton and Fatshan it sowed the seed of what has become a widespread hostility among cotton producers, resulting during the past few days in an almost universal suspension of trade.

All the dealers in native silk goods in Canton have put up a sign in front of their shops with the words "Business Suspended," and a general strike is now on. Meetings of protest have been held in several centres.

A CURE FOR THE BLUES. —The programme at the Prince Edward Theatre last evening was a most enjoyable one, the Pathe pictures, the newspaper epigrams, etc., the old time melodies, and last but foremost. Harold Lloyd and his giant friend in a South American revolution. An hour and three quarters real enjoyment, is in store for any one who visits the repeat performance this afternoon and evening.

WHIST PARTY—The Pisquid West Whist Club held their weekly game at the home of Mr. Alan J. McDonald on the evening of January 27th. After a most enjoyable two hours contest the points were carefully counted and 1st prize for the month of January awarded to George H. Mitchell, 2nd Mrs. P. McAvin and consolation prize to Miss Mary E. McDonald. After tea was served to all present, dancing was indulged in, the music being furnished by Messrs. Alan J. McDonald and John D. McDonald. Vote of thanks was tendered Miss Florence McAvin for her efforts on behalf of the whist club, by Alfred Mitchell after which all highly pleased with the evening's entertainment returned to their homes. The first meeting for the month of February will be held at the home of Patrick Kelly.

WILL VISIT LOUISIANA ACADIANS—Mr. Justice A. E. Arsenault of P. E. Island left yesterday for New York, where he will meet Rev. A. D. Cormier and whence he will proceed with him to Louisiana, where they will visit the cities, towns and villages, where there is an Acadian population. They will be joined later by Mr. Clarence Cormier, an officer of the Montreal Mutual Society of the Assomption, the head office of which is in Moncton and the Acadian trio which is composed of Mr. LeBlanc, the violinist, Mr. Desire Bourque and Miss Desilets. Judge Arsenault is the president of the National Assomption Society, and Father Cormier is a national figure in these provinces. The object of their visit to Louisiana is to get acquainted with the Acadians of Louisiana and establish closer relations between them and their fellow countrymen of the Maritime Provinces. Some well informed students of history claim that there are over a quarter of a million French Acadians in that State. They have adhered to their customs, their language and their religion; they occupy an important position in the administration of justice and in the legislative bodies of their adopted land.—Moncton Times.

"Why Worry" With Harold Lloyd? You Can't, Its Too Funny . .

"How does the boy do it?" you hear in awesome and admiring tones from those who have watched the progress of Harold Lloyd during the last three years, each picture setting a higher standard than the last, until it seems that surely he has reached the zenith of comedy production. But then comes his next Pathecomedy, and it is not only funnier, but is different in type.

Now we have "Why Worry" to not only laugh at, but to shake our heads at and marvel over. It is Lloyd's first serious attempt at straight farce. Here are real characters and entirely probable situations exaffiteated to a state of absurdity that yet remains within the realms of possibility.

"Why Worry" is the story of an American youth, accustomed to luxury, who has a flare of adventure in his make-up. He goes to South America and promptly becomes enmeshed in a fierce, fiery and flaming revolution. t is a story of intrigue and romance such as Richard Harding Davis would revel in, yet containing surprises and twists such as O. Henry would give it, and is a decided departure from previous Lloyd stories.

From the moment Lloyd is introduced being taken aboard ship on a stretcher to the final fade-out, where he is tying up traffic, "Why Worry' is one mirthful, hilarious situation after another, each situation inextricably bound up with the plot, thereby producing a staccato laugh effect throughout the entire development of a story that intrigues the interest, while adding the glow of romance.

Conspicuous among Lloyd's aides in "Why Worry" are Jobyna Ralston and John Aasen. Jobyna is pretty and spirited. Aasen is an 8 foot 9 inch giant and is such a hit we prophesy giants on the screen will be in demand hereafter. He takes you back to the days when you believed in Jack, the Giant Killer.

"Why Worry" is a riot of fun, and the only thing for you to worry about is getting into the Prince Edward Theatre Today.

Another interesting feature of The Prince Edward program is the song revival reel with three old favorites "Old Black Joe", Little Annie Rooney" and "Home Sweet Home."

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. GILLMORE JARDINE

The many friends in city and country were saddened on Jan. 11th, when it became known that Mrs. Gillmore Jardine, Florence McLean, had passed away, after two weeks illness. Although not just feeling the best it was not realized that there was anything serious. Friday evening she was apparently in the best of health, when about three o'clock she said to her husband she thought she was going to have a nice rest she turned on her side and when he spoke to her she had passed away,to be with her Maker whom she dearly loved. She was a loving mother and kind friend, always ready to help those who were in trouble. Her home was always open to the stranger and it may well be said of her she had many friends and no enemies. She was born at Keppoch 39 years ago. When but a young girl, she followed in her mother's footsteps and was baptised in the Hazelbrook Baptist Church and since that time has been a member of that church.

There are left to mourn besides a sorrowing husband, a little infant baby three weeks and, James, William, Austin and Alma, all at home, also the following brothers and sisters:—Mrs. Earl Acorn, Lake Verde; Mrs. R. E. Williams, Mount Edward Road; Edythe of Truro, N. S.; Walter, George, Russell Heber, all of Western Canada. This family has been doubly bereaved lately when only a short time ago their father Mr. James McLean passed away. The funeral was held on Sunday, and was largely attended friends from far and near coming to pay their respects to one who was dearly loved by all. The funeral services at the house and grave were held by her pastor Rev. R. W. Lindsay, assisted by the Rev. E. A. Westmorland.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. Owen Callaghan, Joseph Redmond, John Baylin, Earl Jenkins, William McEachern, Joseph Ballem.

MRS. PETER CORISH

At Charlottetown on Jan. 28th there passed peacefully to rest Mrs. Peter Corish in the 41st year of her age. The deceased whose maiden name was Mary Dowling had been enjoying splendid health during her life until about two weeks before her death when she became suddenly ill. All that medical attention and the care of a loving family and kind friends could do, failed to stay the messenger of death and after being consoled ond sanctified by the last sacred rites of the Catholic church her spirit fled to the Great Beyond. She was a woman of a pleasant and cheerful disposition and was ever devoted to her home and family. Her gaining ways and pleasing personality won the respect and esteem of all who had the pleasure of her acquaintaince. A sorrowful husband, one son, and four daughters are left to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and loving mother. There are also left to mourn three brothers, Dennis Dowling and Edward Dowling of this city and William Dowling of Lowell, Mass; also five sisters, Mrs. Michael Smith, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. Phillip Doyle of Charlottetown and Mrs. Daniel Curley, New Glasgow, N. S. and Mrs. Horace Wiener of Roxbury, Mass; one sister, Mrs. William Langill and a brother Mr. James Dowling died some time ago.

The funeral which was largely attended took place on Jan. 31, to St. Dunstan's Cathedral and thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery. The pall bearers were John Martin Ernest Prunty, Augustus McCarthy, John Conway, Philip Doyle, Adolphus Doiron. The floral tributes included:
