—FINE ADDRESS AND MOVIES—The National Film Board Movies were shown in Kensington, Monday afternoon and evening by Miss Hilda Gillis, B. Paed. The guest speaker for the evening was Rev. Mr. Newmann, Pastor of the Anglican Church, Kensington, who delivered a scholarly address on the "Root Causes of War." He stressed the cruelties inflicted on the conquered countries of Europe by the Nazi policy of "Any means is justified if it is for the State." The audience was fortunate to hear such a fine presentation of a timely subject. There were many in attendance from outside districts as well as residents of Kensington.

—BALTIC W. M. S.—The May meeting of Malpeque and Baltic W. M. S. of the United Church was held at the home of Mrs. Elmer Taylor. The president, Mrs. Crowdis opened the meeting with the singing of hymn 148, followed by prayer. Eleven members answered to roll call, two visitors were welcomed. Minutes of last meeting read, also reports from the different committees. Mrs. Duncan McGougan, temperance secretary, gave an interesting reading. Eighteen calls were made by members since April meeting. Worship service was taken from the missionary monthly. The May program, asleep or awake, to a new home mission task, was in the form of a discussion by five members to consider the needs of young men and women in camps and war production communities. Hymn 380 was sung and the Mizpah benediction brought the meeting to a close. Mrs. Hume Hopgood invited the members to her home for the June meeting to be held at 2.30 o'clock, roll call to be answered with a verse containing the word truth.

—K. OF C. MEETING — At the last regular meeting of the Summerside Council of the Knights of Columbus, held in the K. of C. Home on Tuesday evening the feature of the meeting was a talk given by Past State Deputy J. E. Dalton, on his attendance at the Supreme Convention held in Memphis, Tenn., last summer. In an interesting and enlightening manner explained the business sessions of the convention dwelling on the report of the supreme knight in which he reported a large net increase in membership for the year. The lighter and social side of the gathering was not neglected and, Mr. Dalton in a short digression from the main theme gave a very interesting description of the city and its history. A vote of thanks was moved by Flt. Lieut. T. P. Butler and seconded by Parvin Cass and tendered by the acting Grand Knight Earle Hickey. It was decided that the council would have an exemplification of the first and second degrees to a class of candidates shortly and that they would take part in the third degree to be put on by Charlottetown council about June 13—S.

—S'SIDE AIR CADETS INSPECTED — The annual inspection of the Summerside Squadron of Air Cadets took place Tuesday at 11 A.M. on the school grounds. They were inspected by Group Captain Lewis of the R.C.A.F. station at St. Eleanor's and Flying Officer Earl, Assistant Adjutant at the same school. Flight-Lt. McClements of the Halifax office for Air Cadets was also present. Group Captain Lewis expressed himself as highly pleased with the performance of the cadets. He also gave them instructions on the requirements for the air force. He advised the boys to refrain from liquor and tobacco if they would develop that strong body and keen mind demanded by aircrew personnel. He invited the squadron to spend a day at station where under guidance they would be given a general picture of the work done there.—S.

—FUNERAL OF MRS. NORMAN JOHNSTONE — The funeral of the late Mrs. Norman Johnstone took place yesterday afternoon from the residence at 2 P.M., where a short service was conducted thence to the Trinity United Church. During the service at the church Flt. Sgt. McCarten rendered beautifully the hymn "In Heaven We have a Bible". The pallbearers were Messrs. William Johnstone, Archie Johnstone, Lorne Campbell, John Arthur, P. G. Clark and A. S. McKay. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Mr. Jarvie. Interment was in the Peoples' Cemetery.—S.

—PROBE FALSE ALARM—An investigation was underway at Summerside yesterday to determine if possible who was responsible for setting off an air raid warning siren at the electric light plant. The alarm sounded about 10 o'clock and residents in the northeast section of the town put out lights and blacked out windows. It was some time before it became known that the alarm was not general. It was learned that the siren at the electric plant was not connected with the town system but was manually operated.—S —CONCERT ENJOYED — On Thursday evening, May 6th in spite of unfavourable weather Sherbrooke Hall was filled to standing capacity to hear the mixed concert sponsored by Sherbrooke Young People in aid of Red Cross. While the people were gathering music was furnished by Ray Laughlin, Mark Cosgrove and James Harris. Following is the program: Songs by the B.B. Boys Bud and Bill, also a solo by "Betty Jane" Dialougue—Society For Doin' Good—4 Young Ladies Reading—Home Sweet Home—Miss Irene Wyand. Step Dance—Eunice Laughlin. One Act Play—Choosing a Wife—The young people; auction sale of novelties interspersed with humor by James Chappell Jr. auctioneer and chairman. The enthusiasm with which the audience applauded and encored each number rewarded the efforts of those responsible for the success of the entertainment. The chairman thanked all those who had helped in anyway—Sam MacAusland, Mrs. Fred MacDonald, Mark Cosgrove, Ray Laughlin, B.B. Boys for the musical part of the show. Miss Wyand, Eunice Laughlin, Eileen and Wanda MacKinnon, the people who contributed the articles for the auction the ladies of the Woman's Institute who served lunches and the audience who responded to the auction so generously. The splendid sum of $70.00 was realized. On Wednesday evening May 12 the concert was repeated in St. Eleanor's with the following additional numbers: Step dance by Edith Laughlin. Solo—Dorothy Cannon, Song by St. Eleanors boys, Solo and Tap Dance by Roland Sheen. The St. Eleanors ladies served lunch. The National Anthem brought the evening to a close.

The ensuing debate, including a 119 to 47 division when this amendment was ruled out of order by Speaker Glen, occupied the House until adjournment and the routine proceedings and orders of the day were never reached.

Mr. Green challenged the Speaker's ruling which was sustained by a straight party vote, all the Liberals present against all the rest.

Then George Black (Prog. Con. Yukon), a former speaker of the House, moved another amendment which he thought would overcome points of order against it.

This was that the committee be instructed and empowered to amend its report so that it would request authority of the House to investigate publicity agency expenditures made subsequent to March 31, 1942.

Debate on this amendment was still going on at adjournment time when J. G. Diefenbaker (Prog. Con. Lake Centre) had the floor.

He was discussing high salaries and other expenditures of the Wartime Information Board and said the salaries were at least "generous."

So far there has been no suggestion of wrong doing, said Mr. Diefenbaker, but the committee could inquire into the high salaries paid W.I.B. executives.

Before the Green amendment was ruled out of order it had received support from Lt.-Col. J. A. Ross (Prog. Con. Souris), T. C. Douglas (C.C.F. Weyburn) and J. F. Pouliot (Lib. Temiscouata).

Mr. Pouliot voted to support the Speaker's ruling but when Mr. Black's amendment was being debated he said he was going to support that to the end. He strongly criticized the W.I.B.

Mr. Green asked Mr. Crerar if the latter would give an undertaking that when W.I.B. accounts were before the War Expenditures Committee the hearings would be public and not secret but Mr. Crerar said he would give no such undertaking."

"The Tuttles Of Tahiti" Romantic Comedy-Drama of South Sea Life

—The picture deals with the extravagant career of a Polynesian family, lazy, well-intentioned, likable and improvident, all descended from an erly-day New England whaler who married and settled down in the islands a century before.

Big, procrastinating Jonas Tuttle, nominal head of the family, keeps them all penniless through his gambling on cock-fights. When the sea-going son, Chester, returns home with a promising bird, the Tuttles dream of wealth and the defeat of the Taios, their chief rivals, and of paying the debt they owe to the kindly Dr. Blondin in Papeete.

Under Jonas' leadership, the Tuttles bet everything they own on the forthcoming fight. The Taio bird wins and the Tuttles, crushed, seek to recoup their losses by fishing, borrowing more money from Dr. Blondin to buy gasoline for their boat.

Caught in a storm at sea, Chester and his brothers are blown offshore, sight an abandoned schooner and tow her into port. The salvage money makes the Tuttles rich; Chester's romance with Tamara Taio prospers, and the two are married. Soon they all find themselves penniless again.

1. The defeat of Japan would have no bearing on the fighting strength of Germany but the defeat of Germany would mean the inevitable defeat of Japan.

2. "Let no one suggest that we British have not at least as great an interest as the United States in the unflinching and relentless waging of war against Japan. I am here to tell you we will wage war side by side with you in accordance with the best strategic employment of our forces while there is breath in our bodies, while blood flows in our veins."

3. He reproached amateur strategists—without calling them that—who cannot possess all the facts and are not equipped to weigh all the factors by telling them that lots of men can evolve plans to win a war, providing they aren't forced to carry them out.

1943 Issue

The issue of 1943 concerns Russia, Mr. Churchill declared. The main battle may be on the eastern front where Germany has massed 218 divisions, compared to the 15 divisions that took part in the Tunisian campaign under Rommel and Von Arnim. He scornfully referred to "Corporal Hitler" who, he said, would risk everything on a last, desperate gamblers' throw in a third attempt to break the heart and spirit and destroy the armed forces of the Soviet Union.

"He will not succeed," said Mr. Churchill, jutting out that powerful jaw of his.

"But," he added when the applause died down, "we must do everything in our power that is sensible and practicable to take more of the weight off Russia in 1943."

It was in this general connection that he said both he and President Roosevelt desired a conference with Premier Stalin and, if possible, with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, fresh evidence that Joseph Davies, former American Ambassador to Moscow, has been sent to Moscow with the invitation.

In one gallery was Prime Minister Mackenzie King. Once during his speech, Mr. Churchill mentioned the Canadian leader by name, drawing a long burst of applause and adding that Mr. Mackenzie King represented Canada "whose contribution is so massive and so invaluable."

The Canadian Prime Minister drove from the White House to the Capitol with Mr. Churchill and they returned from an uninterrupted series of war discussions, not only between themselves but with President Roosevelt as well. Mr. King will remain at the White House tonight but his movements tomorrow have not been disclosed. He is expected to remain in Washington at least until Friday and perhaps Saturday.

Other Major Points

Some of the other major points of the 50-minute address which was broadcast to all parts of the world, were:

The "supreme objective" of all Allied planning is to come to grips with the enemy on the largest possible scale at the earliest possible moment "wherever that is profitable and—I may say—whenever it is possible."

The Allied air forces vastly outnumber those of Germany, Italy and Japan.

"While the U-boat danger is still the greatest we face, I have confidence it will be met, contained and overcome."

The Allied victory in North Africa was worth "several hundred planes", the enemy suffered there a blow equal to that of Stalingrad, losing a quarter-million of its best troops and "vast masses of material."

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

Prince Edward Island! Prince Edward Island!
On which tranquil peace and blessings smile,
What though no rugged mountains rise
With pinacles to meet the skies!
Yet pastoral landscape hath its charms
Diversified with groves and fertile farms,
It lies a gem encircled by the sea,
A province "Parva Sub Ingenti".
The Islander wherever he may roam
Proclaims The Island as his native home.
His joy is to return that he may view,
Its azure seas and cliffs of reddish hue
Whilst its pleasant landscape with its vivid green,
Makes the Garden of the Gulf a joyous scene.
Such is your Isle! But what is now your case?
Cowardly subservience is always base,
Your representatives are dumb,
In parliament their voice is mum.
Arise ye Islanders and unite,
And claim from Ottawa your right.
Small, unimportant—that's the rub!
But take from Ottawa no snub.
—C. T. EASTON.

New Cap Badge For All Ranks Of Infantry

OTTAWA, May 20, 1943 — A new cap badge for all ranks of the Canadian Infantry Corps is announced by National Defence Headquarters.

The badge is of bronze, having two crossed rifles upon which a double ellipse contains a sprig of three Maple Leaves, surmounted with the Imperial Crown. Below is a scroll inscribed "ACER," the Latin Botanical term for Maple. It also may be interpreted to mean keenness and strength.

These cap badges will be issued to reinforcements of the Canadian Infantry Corps in Canada for wear until such time as they are posted to their Battalion or other unit when they will adopt its regimental badge.

Something New In Weddings

SAINT JOHN, N.B., May 19 (CP) —Something new in weddings was seen here today when an army jeep carried the wedding party into a hotel lobby.

The bride was Dorothy Ivaney, of Grand Falls, Nfld., who married C.S.M. Harold DeCoste of a Prince Edward Island Highlanders unit stationed here.

After the ceremony at St. John the Baptist Church, at which the unit chaplain, Capt. the Rev. James O'Toole, officiated, pipers played the party along the route to the hotel. The jeep had an escort of six motorcycles.

Mrs. Arthur DeCoste, Charlottetown, mother of the groom, was present.

Carving of whalebone ornaments, known as "scrimshaw", was one of the first American folk arts.

SORORITY MEETING HELD—A business meeting of the Alpha chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority was held last night at The Charlottetown Hotel. Papers were given on "Growth and Formation of Greek Letter Societies" by Mrs. John Battison and on "The Sorority Woman" by Mrs. A. J. Murchison. Mrs. K. S. Rogers, educational director led in the discussions. Mrs. J. L. Richards, president, presided at the meeting.

ARBOR AND EMPIRE PROGRAM — The pupils of Prince Street School will present their usual Arbor and Empire programs in the school assembly hall on Thursday and Friday of this week. The Intermediate and Senior program will be carried out this afternoon, beginning at 1:45 sharp. The Junior program will commence at 9:30 tomorrow morning. Singing, under the direction of Miss Lillian MacKenzie, will feature both programs, with appropriate exercises, etc. interspersed. The public is invited to attend.

RETURN TO GEORGETOWN — Mrs. Joseph Dalton and daughters Josephine and Margaret, returned to their home at Georgetown, P. E. I., after spending the past number of months here the former had been employed at Ship Building Division in Pictou, and before she left there her fellow employees presented her with a lovely Waterman's Pan and Pencil set as a token of remembrance from all those with whom she was in close fellowship during her daily work. She was deeply surprised by their kindness and will always cherish this gift in their memory. During their stay in town they made many friends.— New Glasgow News.

LEAGUE OF MERCY DISPLAY —The League of Mercy committee of the Ladies' Aid of the Prince Edward Island Hospital held the most successful display in its history yesterday afternoon in the gymnasium of the Cundall Home. This committee, of which Mrs. W. E. Cotton is convener, received generous donations for the hospital including 20 woollen blankets, 15 bed spreads, a large number of pillow slips, glassware, etc., a detailed list of which will be published later. These were viewed by upwards of three hundred callers yesterday afternoon from three until six o'clock. Tea and refreshments were served in the living room of the home and a social time enjoyed. Spring flowers decorated the tea table. Mrs. F. E. Smallwood and Mrs. V. L. Goodwill poured tea while a bevy of ladies assisted in serving.

FAREWELL PARTY — On the night of May 3rd a large number of friends and neighbors met at the commodious home of Donald Nicholson, Orwell Cove, to render a farewell to Miss Christy Nicholson, who was home on a twenty-one day furlough from Ontario, where she was in army training for the past few months. During the evening's program Mr. Milton Furness occupied the chair and gave a brief address commenting on the very important part the women of Canada are playing in the present world conflict. A fitting address was read by Miss Annie MacPherson, and a well-filled purse was tendered by Mr. Stanley Morrison. A most enjoyable evening was spent in dancing to the strains of music played by the Mill View Orchestra. The event was brought to a close by singing Auld Lang Syne and the National Anthem.

RED AND WHITE—Excellent editorial judgment is shown in the variety of instructive and entertaining articles in the May issue of St. Dunstan's Red and White, which is now off the press. Note is made of the fact that there are now 300 names on the honour roll of the St. Dunstan's Alumni in the armed services. This list, it is stated, could be lengthened considerably if contact could be made with those enlisting outside the Province and in the United States. The following roll of honour is of those who made the supreme sacrifice: Joseph D. Ready, R.C.A.F.; John J. O'Donnell, R.C.A.F.; Vincent Connolly, R.C.A.F.; Leonard Burke, R.C.A.F.; John J. Sullivan, R.C.A.F.; Thomas Norrie, R.C.A.F.; Carl Murphy, R.C.A.F.; William MacManus, Army; Byron MacDonald, Army; James MacLean, Navy. Two other former students, Brinsley Williams and Vincent Gauthier, are prisoners of war.

A Pimple Covered Face Kills Many a Romance

The lives of many young people are made miserable by the breaking out of pimples, and you probably know of cases where a promising romance has been spoiled by those red, white, festering and pus filled sores on the face.

The trouble is not so much physical pain, but the mental suffering caused by the embarrassing disfigurement which very often makes the sufferer ashamed to go out in company.

The quickest way to get rid of pimples is to improve the general health by a thorough cleansing of the blood.

Burdock Blood Bitters helps to cleanse the blood and with the blood cleansed the complexion should clear up.

Ten Pounds Is Average For Canning Sugar

By The Canadian Press

For each person in their households this summer, most Canadian housewives will be permitted to buy 10 pounds of sugar for canning purposes, a Dominion-wide survey by the Canadian Press shows. On the basis of available reports, district allotments run from eight to 15 pounds per individual, with most local rationing boards allowing 10 pounds.

Finance Minister Ilsley announced in the House of Commons last week that the Prices Board had decided to allow 100,000,000 pounds of sugar, above the regular ration, for use by the Dominion's home canners. District distribution and individual allotments were to be handled by local ration boards.

Mr. Ilsley revealed that applications had been received for 209,000,000 pounds for canning. He said that 100,000,000 was as much as ever had been used previously. He added it might be possible to increase sugar supplies but said he could give no undertaking in this connection.

From available district reports it would appear that some rural areas will receive larger individual allotments than urban centres. For instance, urban centres in the Sherbrooke, Quebec, district will get 10 pounds while those in the district's rural areas will get 15 pounds.

Similar differences exist in Pictou County, Nova Scotia, where individuals in rural areas will receive 12 1-2 pounds; and in Regina and Edmonton where they will receive 14 and 11 pounds, respectively, against 10 for urban residents.

Among urban centres, Owen Sound citizens will get 12 pounds each, Sydney, N. S., 11 1-2, and Halifax eight. The low mark for Halifax was explained as being due to the late filing of about one-quarter of the district's applications. The quota had been set for a smaller number but the local board had decided to let the late applicants cut in.

Other urban centres reporting 10-pound individual allotments included Saint John, Sherbrooke, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Moose Jaw, Vancouver and Victoria.

LEWIS LEADS

he and the United Mine Workers broke away from the C.I.O. last year in a quarrel with Philip Murray, its president.

Lewis' move prompted a number of interpretations. He has publicly contended that Labor will need a united front to avoid being crushed in the post-war world.

Lewis gave that as his reason for proposing a renewal of A.F.L. C.I.O. peace negotiations in January, 1942. But his proposal developed the open break between him and his old friend and lieutenant, Murray, upon whom he had bestowed the C.I.O. presidency in 1940. Murray said he had not been consulted by Lewis on the peace move and that he learned of it from newsmen before receiving the Lewis proposal in the mails.

Some viewed the Lewis move as an attempt to isolate Murray with a few unions in the labor field. The miners would be one of the three big unions in the A.F.L., sharing honors with, if not exceeding, the teamsters and the carpenters.

Lewis unquestionably would be an influential figure in the Federation councils and as such might be in a position to write the A.F.L. ticket in any further peace negotiations with the C.I.O.

Absorption of the miners would build the paid membership of A. F. L. unions to nearly 7,000,000. The effect that would have upon the C.I.O. cannot be judged immediately, although it gives the A.F.L. a commanding position in any unity parleys with the C.I.O.

The C.I.O. has claimed a membership of about 5,000,000, although the withdrawal of the United Mine Workers probably reduced that.

The United Mine Workers claim a membership of about 600,000. The U.M.W. treasury exceeds $7,000,000. No merger of treasuries, however, would be involved in any re-affiliation. The miners merely would pay the usual per capita tax, 1 1-2 cents a month a member on the first 300,000 members, and one cent a month on all over that number.

The C.I.O. is sustained principally by such unions as the United Auto Workers, the United Steelworkers of which Murray is president, the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, and a few others.

A strong, well-financed A. F. L. membership drive against the C. I. O. is conceivable, or at least the threat of it would weaken the C. I. O's. bargaining position in peace negotiations.

11 Pounds Sugar Per Person For Home Canning

Persons in Charlottetown and throughout the rural sections of Queen's County in the area covered by the Local Ration Board here will each be allowed sugar coupons to the value of 11 pounds as a maximum for home canning, it was announced last night.

This was decided at a meeting of the Charlottetown Local Ration Board recently. Yesterday ten volunteer women workers were busy mailing out these coupons which will be in the hands of all housewives, who applied for these, by June 1. The secretary of the Board has issued an appeal for more volunteer workers who can assist in this work each day at the Board office in City Hall, between 2 and 5 p.m.

Alberton and rural districts covered by the Local Ration Board there has also decided that 11 pounds would be their maximum and it is understood that Summerside, Souris and Montague boards will also be granting approximately this amount.

Persons who applied for more than the 11 pounds will be reduced to this amount while those who asked for less will be given the number of pounds they requested. Although the deadline for applications was April 15, all applications received up until May 30 will be considered.

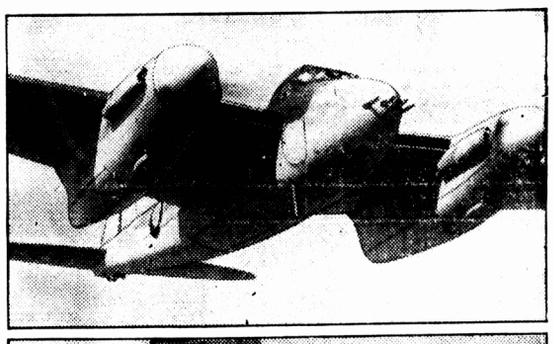
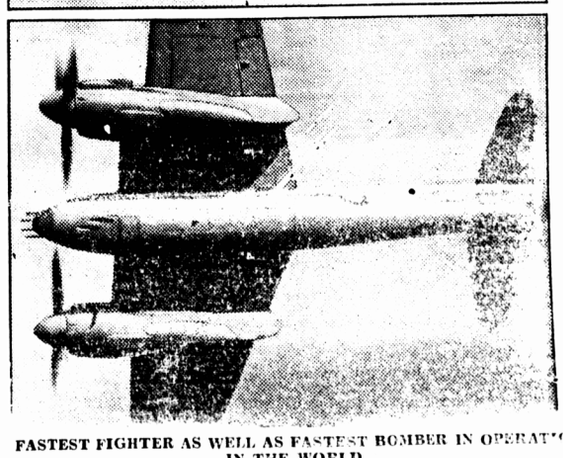
de Havilland Mosquito





FASTEST FIGHTER AS WELL AS FASTEST BOMBER IN OPERATION IN THE WORLD

Most versatile aircraft in the world, the Mosquito is in active service as a long range day and night fighter and intruder as well as a fast bomber and night bomber. The Mosquito Fighter (shown above) has four 20 mm cannon and four .303 machine guns, all mounted in the fuselage nose, giving highly concentrated fire. The Mosquito Bomber carries 2,000 lbs. of bombs with a fuel range which brings practically the whole of Germany within its reach

The design of the Mosquito was not commenced until after war began and it represents a world record from drawing board into operation against the enemy, namely twenty two months.

Because of its plywood construction, the de Havilland Mosquito is the most widely dispersed in manufacture of any war aircraft, utilizing hundred of sub contractors.

The de Havilland Aircraft world wide formation of aeronautical enterprises in Britain, Canada, South Africa, India, Australia, New Zealand and South America in operation for many years before the war in the manufacture of civil and commercial aircraft, was in a fortunate position to turn all their facilities and experience to production for the Allies of the world's fastest aircraft.

Performance information on the Mosquito has not been released. But Mosquitoes fly non stop to Russia, to lunch, and back to Britain the same afternoon
