count of 25 per cent off our already low cost prices.

This applies to all our soft front and negligee shirts

Every roth hat sold in our store on Saturday will be given free. We do this in order to introduce our new fall hats for men.

We are also giving special prices in our tailoring department for the next 2 weeks. We have received a cut price on a line of Scotch tweed suitings which were intended for a Western House, they were offered us at a price, we accepted their offer. The regular price is $22.00 $24.00 and $26.00.

We make any of them to order now for $17.50 fit and finish guaranteed.

A VALUABLE RIZE CONTEST

The Guardian Has Secured the Right to Offer Subscribers a Bible Study Competition Without Cost to Competitors.

The Charlottetown Guardian has secured the right to use the International Newspaper Bible Study Club Lessons each week for the term of one year, commencing with the lesson for August 23rd, 1908. But one paper in each town can use these. The Guardian takes pleasure in being able to present to its readers such a valuable help along the lines of Bible study. They will be published each week in the Morning Daily and the Rural Daily. Only paid-in-advance subscribers to either paper are eligible to join this club. There is no fee for entrance, and no conditions other than those stated below. Everybody stands the same chance and has the same opportunity to get the valuable prizes without the investment of a cent. There is one condition that must in every case be complied with and that is, that every one entering the contest must be a regular subscriber as above.

THE PRIZES.
First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants.
Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants.
Third Series—A Teacher's Bible, price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants.
Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50 to each of the next thirty-five contestants.
Fifth Series—A developed mind, an expanded imagination a richer experience and more profound knowledge of the Bible and of life, to all who take this course whether winning any other prize or not.

Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner and for what it is awarded, and in the like manner each Bible and book will be inscribed. All who can write, and have ideas, are urged to take up these studies, regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational or literary standpoint, but from the point of view of the cogency of their reasoning ideas.

Suggestive Questions.
August 30th, 1908.
David Spares Saul's Life. I. Sam. xvi.

Golden Text—Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you. Luke vi. 27.

Is it desirable that we love our enemies and why?
Verses 1-4—Are the majority of wars based upon passion, jealousy and misunderstanding, as was the pursuit of David by Saul? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verses 5-7—Did David really love Saul? Is any enmity safe enough to hide anybody from God's purpose? Did God have anything to do with this event?

Verses 6, 7—Is physical courage an acquired quality, or is it wholly natural? Is praise necessarily due to a man with great physical courage? Is blame necessarily deserved by a man who is physically unskilful and afraid?

Is a bull-dog man who fights and never gives up, deserving of any more praise than a collie-dog man who cannot fight, but who takes good

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.
1. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a paid in advance subscriber to The Guardian, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study Club and the Local Club.

2. Each contestant in this local club must answer each of the written questions for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing for Sunday, August 23rd and the answers must all be in possession of this paper within two weeks of the close of this period, which allows two weeks grace after the close of the contest.

3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must contain more than two hundred words and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answers on letter paper, about 8 1/2 inches by 11 inches.

4. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer. Together with the date label of a current issue of The Guardian so it can be identified, giving a number, registered, and then the name will be cut off so the examiner may know it by number only.

5. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this the lesson text must be read and especially the verse or verses, upon which the question is based.

6. The answers from this Local Club must be delivered to The Guardian office, and they will be collected at the close of the contest and forwarded to headquarters for inspection.

care of the sheep?
Should we blame ourselves because we have not the courage to do what some others can do?
Verse 8—Was Abishai right or wrong in wanting to slay Saul, now they had him in their power?
If they had slain Saul, was there any law of man or God which could condemn the act?
Was Abishai right in saying that God had delivered Saul into David's hands?
Verse 9—Why did David not slay Saul, when he had the opportunity? Was it love, or loyalty to God, or policy?
In the light of subsequent events would it have been better, for David if he had slain Saul?
Did David give too much importance to the fact that Saul had been anointed king?
Is a king, when he turns criminal any better than any other man?
Verse 10—As a matter of fact did David want Saul out of the way? Did David know that God would remove Saul?
If any person is in the place God has put him, will God put such a person out of it without our doing?
What were the three ways, which, David said God would use to smite Saul, and which way was the best?
Was David's statement of the way Saul should die, a guess or an inspiration?
Verse 21—Was Saul really sincere in this noble statement, and did he keep his promise?
Do men always turn from their folly, when they find they have acted the fool?
