HORSE NOTES—The writer has it on good authority that Mr George Chandler has refused big money for his British Soldier filly. Mr. Chandler has good reason for refusing tempting offers when his untrained speedier can put up a scrap with John R.' Some filly!

DEATH REGRETTED— The death took place at Kensington yesterday morning at 10 o'clock of Mr. George Lockhart aged 72 years. C. G. I. T. PAGEANT.— A successful rally of the groups of the Canadian Girls in Training, representing the different churches of the city, was held in St. Paul's Parish Hall, on Friday evening, when the St. Paul's group presented a pageant of Canadian Missionary Life. They depicted by suitable costumes the representative of many lands, who are making their homes within our Canadian borders, and who must be woven into the life of our nation in the making. Representatives of the Esquimo and Indian native tribes and the various countries of Europe and from the United States, from whence our immigration is drawn, were all to be found. Miss Canada welcomed them all in turn and expressed the national intention of caring for them all in their new homes. The pageant was preceded by a hearty C. G. I. T. sing-song led by Mrs. James McMillan. A warm expression of appreciation was voiced for the audience by Mr. Percy Pope. It is purposed to reproduce the pageant on the 16th. of March, in St. Paul's Parish Hall, when a corresponding pagenat will also be presented by the girls of St. Peter's Church, representing missionaries in the foreign field.

—WEDDING CHIMES.— A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Anthony's Church, Bloomfield on February 16th, when Mary Orilla Martin, daughter of Hector Marin of Howland, R. R., became the bride of Joseph Francis Gallant, son of Francis Gallant also of Howlan. The bride was attractively dressed in blue silk with picture hat of silk pile velvet to match. She was attended by Miss Eva Gallant, sister of the groom, who was also becomingly dressed in a tailored velour suit with hat to match. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Felix Gallant of O'Leary, cousin of the bride. As the bridal party entered the church the wedding march was eloquently rendered by Mr. Cyrus Gallant brother of the groom. When the nuptial ceremony was over, (which was performed by the pastor, Rev Father J. A. Gaudet), the happy couple drove to the home of the bride, where a delicious breakfast was served amidst many relatives and friends. After a pleasant day spent they winded their way to the home of the groom, where a great number of friends had assembled to congratulate and welcome the happy couple on their arrival. During the evening the guests were entertained by victrola and organ selections. Dancing was also indulged with the entertainments. The happy couple were the recipients of many valuable gifts, testifying to the high esteem in which they are held by all acquaintances. After extending best wishes and congratulations to the newly wedded couple, all dispersed well satisfied with their well spent evening.

"SIX MONTHS AGO"

"It's hard to realize that six month ago I couldn't walk across the floor and now I am so well!"

"I have never been very strong but the heat last summer was too much for me. This and the fact that my husband was out of work and I had to work day and night to keep from starving, left me a physical wreck. Luckily my husband was able to get a good job just when I had to go to bed. I tried everything I could think of to get strong, but each day I seemed to be getting weaker and sicker. I was reduced to a skeleton, I couldn't eat or sleep, I had no strength at all, and finally I was so weak that in trying to cross the floor one day I collapsed. I was so ill and weak that I didn't care whether I lived or died. And then I heard about that marvellous preparation—Carnol! A friend of mine had used it with wonderful results and as it had done so much for her, I decided to try it. The results were nothing less than miraculous. In two weeks I was able to get up and walk about the house. My appetite had returned. I was actually hungry. I could sleep when I went to bed, something I had not been able to do for months. I have already taken six bottles of Carnol and am still taking it. I weigh more today than I ever weighed before in my life. I sleep like a child. I am never tired and my skin is as clear and my cheeks as rosy as a girl's. I bless the day I heard about Carnol," Mrs. K., Toronto.

Carnol is sold by your druggist and if you can conscientiously say after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle and we will refund your money.

It is a Constitutional Disease

When it affects the nose and throat and becomes chronic it weakens the delicate lung tissue, deranges the digestive organs, and may lead to consumption. It impairs the taste, smell and hearing.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by purifying the blood removes the cause of the disease, so troublesome at this time of year, and gives permanent relief.

"I had catarrh of the head and stomach and dreadful ringing noises in my ears. I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla; my health improved wonderfully, and I adopted Hood's Sarsaparilla as my family medicine." Mrs. M. Jenney Shaw, St. Johns, O

Besides a sorrowing mother and father she leaves to mourn her loss, two brothers, Carleton and Roy, and two sisters, Mabel and Gladys' all at home. A PLEASANT EVENT— A very enjoyable social function took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leard, Fernwood, Feb. 20th, it being their 60th wedding anniversary. The reception room was tastefully decorated with potted plants ferns and carnations the gifts of their Fernwood friends. Mr. and Mrs. Leard were assisted in receiving by their two daughter-in-laws, Mrs. Herbert Leard and Mrs Ephraim Leard of Bedeque. Mrs Walter Leard gracefully entertained, assisted by Mrs. Leslie McFarlane, who invited the guests to the tea room. Mrs. Percy Affleck, Miss Minnie Leard and Mrs. W.F McFarlane served in the tea room and Mrs. Howard McFarlane poured tea, while Mrs. George Henderson and Miss Molly Schurman cut the ices. Mr. and Mrs. Leard were congratulated by a host of friends, some remaining to spend the evening and before their departure sang a number of the old familiar hymns joined in heartily by Mr. Leard who still retains his pleasant voice of younger days.

The sad death occurred on Feb. 14th at her home in Lewis, Lot 60, of Mrs. Florence M. McLean, beloved wife of Mr. James McLean, formerly of Inverness shire, Scotland. Mrs. McLean had been stricken ill following the news of the death of her son, Basil, age 19 on Sept. 1st, 1918, at the front, just before the Armistice was signed. The shock of the sad news caused blindness and a feeling of melancholy from which she never recovered. The late Mrs. McLean was a granddaughter of the late Donald Livingstone, school master of Murray Harbor. She moved with her husband and family to the province from Halifax last August and it was hoped that the climate here would have a beneficial effect upon her health. Mr. McLean's sister, Mrs. Pearson, came out from Glasgow in June to nurse her sister-in-law, but all that human love and care could do were unavailing. The late Mrs. McLean was thirty nine years of age and leaves to mourn besides her husband, two daughters Catherine Jane, ten years, and Mary Ellen, seven years. Though comparitively strangers in the community, the family had made many warm friends in the neighborhood among whom the late Mrs. McLean was much respected for her kind disposition and Christian character. All that neighbors could do was done to assist with sympathy and affection, the family in their time of sorrow.

The funeral which was largely attended by the farmers of the community, was conducted by Rev Mr. McLellan, of Valleyfield. Interment was made in Caledonia Cemetery on Feb. 21st. The bereaved husband and father will have the sympathy of all in his sad loss.

A WELCOME VISITOR— Among recent visitors to Charlottetown were Mr. Harry Barrett of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. George Barrett of Green Bay, P. E. I. They were the guests of the latter's granddaughter, Mrs. Robert Davis Green St. It is nine years since Mr. Barrett last visited his old home on P.E.I. He, like many of our Island boys left home when suite young, going to New Hampshire, where he took up the carpenter trade and by his faithfulness and determination to master the trade he is today a first-class tradesman. Mr. Barrett expects to return to his home in N. H. this week. His many friends wish him success, for Harry is a general favorite wherever he goes.

It is our sad duty to record the death of Gordon S. Thomas of 6 Hillside Circle, Somerville, Mass. in the Homeopathic Hospital Boston on Feb. 15th, 1922.

He was born in Augustine Cove, P. E. I., Oct. 22nd, 1870 and thus on his last birthday was fifty one years old.

The impressive funeral service was held at his late home on Saturday Feb. 18th, conducted by Rev C. V. Smith of Somerville, and the burial took place in Cambridge cemetery. The large attendance and the many beautiful floral tributes testified to the general respect and esteem in which he was held.

Mr. Thomas had been a great sufferer for the last eight years as the result of a serious accident which broke his back and rendered him a complete cripple. His condition was aggravated recently by an internal disease and in the hope of relieving his trouble he was removed to the hospital, where he underwent a serious operation but as a result of a complication of diseases he failed to rally and on the 15th. inst., passed peacefully and triumphantly away from this world of suffering to his eternal rest and reward.

He leaves to mourn their loss, a wife, who was Miss Sophie Stewart of Dundas, P. E. I., and five children, Christina, now Mrs. Ed. MacGregor, Somerville, Marion, Ethel, Ruth and Russely at home, besides a brother Cornelus and a sister, Mrs. O. C. Dodge, both residing in Somerville and a large circle of relatives and friends.

All through the years of constant and intense suffering Mr. Thomas was cheerful and apparently happy and endured the trials of his lot in a wonderful spirit of Christian patience and resignation.

Something of this spirit indicated by the fact that after his death, among his papers a sealed letter was found addressed to his family, written on July 20, 1920, to be opened after his death, and which contained among other things the following beautiful verse composed by him, which spoke his strong and sturdy faith which kept him in life and sustained him in death:

"Suffering here in bed I lie,
As the days go slowly by;
For my feelings they all tell me
That my end is drawing nigh.
Just a little longer,
And life's sorrows will be past,
And I shall be forever
Safe at rest at last."

The pall bearers were, O. C. Dodge James Muirhead, Clarence Dodge, Colin Thomas, Alfred Thomas and James Thomas.

—DESERVES RECOGNITION.— A number of the intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Morrison, Jeweller, Kensington, surprised them at their home on the evening of January 30, and effected a suitable celebration in honor of Mr. Morrison's birthday. After fitting and informal congratulation had been extended, the company were most acceptably entertained by the host and hostess in the enjoyment of games and music that chased the exciting hours with giddy feet. After the celebration the guests were entertained to a repast that satisfied the inner man as the pleasant welcome extended had delicitated the social. When the guests at last had realized that they must depart, they gave Mr. Morrison a vigorous bounce and to Mrs. Morrison very hearty congratulations. This suitable hour was most appropriate, as Mr. Morrison is an efficient and obliging artist in the science of jewelry and Mrs. Morrison is one of Kensington's most practical and up to date ladies. A. McLellan, Rev. Father J. J. McDonald officiating. Their many friends join in wishing them happiness and prosperity.

The death occurred at Boston of Mrs. (Dr.) Madden, formerly Miss Eleanor Gordon of Georgetown.

The deceased was a strong robust young woman overflowing with energy and good cheer and therefore carrying sunshine wherever she went, a general favorite among her friends and associates. In the days to come her companions will look in vain for her bright smile.

Mrs. Madden was a young woman of splendid character and why one so young and so full of promise should thus be so suddenly called away from the activities of life seems hard for us to understand, and yet when we realize that God moves in a mysterious way his wonders to perform, and when we know that that He is too wise to err, too good to be unkind, we must bow in humble submission to His Divine Decree, saying "Not my will, but Thine be done."

Besides a sorrowing husband Mrs. Madden leaves to mourn four sisters, the Misses Ethel and Inez of Boston, Barbara of Georgetown and Mrs. Leslie also of Georgetown, besides two brothers Heber and Wesley of Boston.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family in their sudden and sad affliction. A
