Mr. A. W. Matheson of Charlottetown was nominated at a Liberal party convention in Charlottetown Saturday night to contest the seat for councillor in the 2nd district of Queen's by-election on November 7. Mr. George Kitson of Hampshire was nominated candidate for the assemblyman's seat.

In addition to Matheson Messrs. W. R. LePage, son of Lieut. Governor LePage, and G. R. Holmes, both of Charlottetown were before the convention for nomination on the councillor's ticket.

For assemblyman two names in addition to Mr. Kitson's were voted on. They were, Messrs. Allison MacMillan of Fairview and P. J. Noy of Hunter River.

Rev. Dr. R. Moorhead Legate preached an encouraging and stimulating sermon at the morning services from Joshua 1 and 16, emphasizing the fact that in the last analysis the war in which we were engaged was one for the maintenance of Christian principles and ideals against the attack of anti-Christian forces. The ultimate outcome was in the hands of God in whom we must place our trust. The soloist was Mr. Raoul Reymond who rendered "The Lost Chord" (Sullivan). At the evening service the Minister, by request, re-preached a sermon delivered by him at Wednesday's Prayer Meeting on "Back to Calvary." Mrs. K. S. Rogers was organist and the music for the day was under the direction of Mrs. H. S. Henderson.

SELLICK-MURRAY WEDDING.—A pretty marriage took place on Oct. 3, at 7 p.m., at Central Christian Church, Charlottetown, when Miss Hilda Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Murray, Brackley Beach, was united in marriage to Raymond Archibald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sellick, Brackley. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. L. Outhouse, of Montague, P.E.I. Miss Mayme Stewart attended the bride, and the groom was supported by the bride's brother, Mr. Blythe Murray. The bride wore a becoming dress of tropical blue transparent velvet with matching accessories, and carried a bouquet of gladioli and ferns. Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the groom to the immediate relatives. On the following Wednesday, neighbors and friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, where an address was read by Miss Sybil MacMillan and a purse of money was presented to them by Mr. Guy Pierce on behalf of the people of Brackley.

The sudden death of Mr. Angus Cameron of Charlottetown, well known Canadian National Railways Engineer which occurred in the early hours of yesterday morning came as a shock to his many friends throughout the province. He was returning from Borden in company with his son, Lester, after having driven some friends there last night when he suddenly slumped over in the seat. His son, thinking he had taken a weak turn, placed him in the back seat, and he appeared to revive but when the car reached home it was found he had passed away.

Born at Charlottetown 57 years ago, he spent his boyhood in the city and in 1899 entered the employ of the railway. Two years later he became fireman and in 1906 was promoted to driver.

He attended a meeting of the railway brotherhood at Moncton last week and return to the city Thursday night. Since then he had appeared to be well. He was about to return to work Monday. The deceased has been driver on the express between Charlottetown and Borden for many years.

Surviving are his wife, formerly Florence Lapthorn; six sons, James, a telegrapher in the C.N.R. depot, Borden, Lester, Robert, Gordon and Lloyd, at home and Lance Corporal Edison, in England; two daughters, Florence, Mrs. William Monaghan, Ottawa and Mildred, Mrs. Cyril Wood Charlottetown.

The following brothers and sisters also survive: John E., Charlottetown; William, Charlottetown; Alexander, Sackville, N.B.; Daniel, Sunny Brae N.B.; Anne, Mrs. Robert McWilliams, Charlottetown and Catherine, Mrs. Percy Downe, Charlottetown.

Funeral from his late residence Tuesday, service starting at 2 o'clock, funeral leaving at 2.30.

LIGHT SNOW — Following a weekend of rather cool weather, a light fall of snow visited the province early last evening. Although a few flakes of snow were reported to have fallen earlier this season, last night's fall was quite noticeable as it remained for several hours.

TUESDAY

TRANSFERRED. — Mrs. Glover, City, received word that her husband, Gnr. W. W. Glover, has been transferred to 8th Med. Field Regiment, and is now stationed somewhere in England.

FUNERAL AT MT. HERBERT.—The funeral of the late Amelia Beatrice Jenkins was held from the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jenkins, Mt. Herbert, yesterday afternoon. Services at the house and grave were conducted by the Rev. Harvey Bishop and the Rev. D. K. Ross. Interment at Birch Hill cemetery. Pallbearers: Henry Jones, Robert Jones, Sterling Good, Russell Farquharson, Keith Jenkins, Kenneth Jenkins.

ENJOYED VISIT — Miss Louise Trainor, R. N., Beachmount, Mass. has left on return to Boston, after visiting friends in the city and country. After an absence of 25 years she was very favourably impressed with the many changes. She was accompanied by her friend Miss Suttar, R. N. Sommerville, Mass. It being Miss Suttan's first visit she was delighted with P. E. Island. While visiting in Donagh they were the guests of Miss Trainor's cousin, Mrs. Joseph Murnaghan.

REGRET EXPRESSED —At the October meeting of the Charlottetown W. C. T. U. the retiring President, Mrs. Fred Shaw was presented with a beautiful bouquet of gladioli by Mrs. Daniel McAusland on behalf of the members who also expressed their deep regret that Mrs. Shaw was leaving the city. The Past President, Mrs W. H. Johnson and the President, Mrs. Pickard spoke of the good work done by Mrs Shaw for the past three years as Rec. Secretary and President.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs were at Home last evening for the purpose of listening to an address by Mr. John O. Hyndman, who spoke in the interests of the Save The Children Fund as it is now being promoted by its sponsors. This is a society or organization of which little was known in this City, and the minute description by Mr. Hyndman of the aims and objects and the manner by which it is maintained were most interesting.

DIED FROM ACCIDENT. — A regrettable fatal accident occurred at Souris last Wednesday when John Henry, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallie Steele of that town died of injuries received after a motor truck passed over his body. The little chap jumped on the running board of a motor truck, delivering pit props at the railway wharf driven by John Moran, Newport. In passing over a culvert in the road the door flew open, throwing the little chap off, the heavy machine passing over his body. He was removed to Dr. MacDonald's office, where he passed away in about half an hour. An inquest was held at which a verdict of accidental death was returned, the driver of the truck being relieved of all blame.

85th BIRTHDAY — Mrs. Woodford Turner was 85 years of age on Monday last, and during the afternoon many friends took occasion to call and extend congratulations and very best wishes. Her daughter, Mrs. Wellner and her husband of Charlottetown were present, and during the day she had a telephone message from her daughter, Mrs. Wyndham, of Lisbon, Maine. A third daughter, Mrs. Smith of Preston, Ontario was also heard from during the day. Best wishes were also received from many old friends, both at home and abroad. Mrs. Turner, despite her advanced age continues to enjoy reasonably good health, and is able to be around town nearly every day. The Post begs to extend its hearty congratulations.—(Sackville Post).

FAREWELL GATHERING —Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Shaw, 45 Bayfield St., Charlottetown have removed from the city and have taken up residence in Bonshaw. Previous to their departure from the city the members of Memorial L. O. B. A. tendered them a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall, School St., and presented them a beautiful lamp and a set of enamel dishes and a complimentary address read by the D. M. Sister Florence Rice and the presentation made by the N. M. Sister Mary McDougall. At the regular monthly meeting of the Past Mistress Club of Memorial Lodge held at the home of Mrs. George Bell, Mrs. Shaw was presented with a token of remembrance and best wishes from the members. The presentation was made by the Secretary, Sister Gladys Downe

WEDDED IN DETROIT—A wedding of interest to the people of this district took place on October 12, 1940 at the Temple Baptist Church, Detroit, Michigan, when Miss Mildred Mae Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Martin of Belle River, became the bride of Mr. Van Ford, son of Mrs. Pearl Ford and the late Mr. William Ford. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend William Coon, pastor of the church. The charming bride looked lovely in an afternoon dress of Sapphire Blue Velvet, with matching hat and accessories and wore a corsage of Sweetheart Roses and Lily of the Valley. She was attended by Miss Helen McGrath who wore Dubonnet Velvet with matching accessories and her corsage was of Tea Roses. The groom's attendant was Mr. Marvyn Davidson. A reception was held at the home of the groom. After a short honeymoon to Chicago the young couple will reside in Detroit, at 9810 Lawton Avenue. Mr. Martin, the bride's father was formerly a merchant at Belle River and is well known in the district. —(Patriot please copy).

K. Ross. Interment, Mt. Herbert cemetery. Pall-bearers: Henry Jenkins, Frank Driscoll, James Munn, Willard Pippy, Roy Pippy, Jack Pippy.

FIRST REAL SNOWFALL—This Province had its first real snowfall for the season yesterday. Late in the afternoon snow began falling and early last night the ground was white although most of the big flakes were melting as they touched the earth. Sunday night there were flurries in Charlottetown but the fall did not whiten the ground. Other parts of the province had flurries earlier and brief snow squalls were noticed here last week. The snow yesterday fell with a temperature only slightly below freezing. Coldest Sunday night was 30 degrees above zero Mr. Warren Burns, weather observer at the Charlottetown Experimental Station reported. For a time yesterday the temperature crawled to 42 above but in the afternoon began to drop again.

WEDNESDAY

—ATTENDING FUNERAL—Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Crue were visitors to Moncton, N.B., over the week end to attend the funeral of Mr. Richard G. Mitton. Mr. Mitton was one of the few remaining silver platers left in the C. N. R. shops at Moncton and his loss is a great loss to the community.—S.

FUNERAL AT MELVILLE—The funeral of the late Dorothy Murdock Pugh, daughter of the late David Murdock and his wife Elizabeth Roberts, who passed away at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal on Oct. 15th, was held on Monday, Oct. 21st from the home of her brother William Murdock, Melville. Interment was at Murray River cemetery. Besides a sorrowing husband, the late Mrs. Pugh leaves to mourn sisters and brothers and a number of relatives. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. H. Bishop of the Church of Scotland.

SERIOUSLY ILL. — A telegram was received on Friday last, October 18, from England, that Lance Corporal Edison Alexander Cameron, of the R.C.M. Provost Company, was dangerously ill from acute tonsilitis (with abscess). On Sunday, the 20th, another telegram was received that he was progressing favorably, and had been removed from the dangerously ill to the seriously ill list. That was the last word received and the family are now hoping that he may recover. Lance Corporal Cameron went overseas in December last. His father, the late Mr. Angus Cameron, the well-known engineer of this city, passed away last Sunday before the second telegram had been received.

DOYLE-CANNON NUPTIALS — St. Joachims Church, Vernon River was the scene of a very pretty Autumn wedding on the morning of Wednesday, October 16th when Miss Mary Agathy Teresa Cannon, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cannon, Pownal was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Leo. McGrath Doyle son of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Doyle of Pleasant Grove. The bridal party entered the church, which was prettily decorated for the occasion, to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Mary Collins who also rendered pleasing hymns during the ceremony, assisted by members of the girls choir. Rt. Rev. Msgr. Maurice McDonald officiated and celebrated the nuptial Mass in the presence of a wide circle of relatives and friends. The bride who was attractively gowned in a street length dress of Soldier Blue with navy accessories, was assisted by Miss Winnifred Hegarty of Fort Augustus, who was attired in rust and also navy accessories. The groom was ably supported by his brother, Mr. Wilfred Doyle of Charlottetown. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where toasts were proposed to the happiness of the bride and groom by Rev. E. M. Malone, Charlottetown. After the wedding breakfast the bridal party motored to various parts of the Island, the bride travelling in a smart wine outfit. In the evening the wedding supper was served at the home of the groom to numerous friends and relatives of both parties. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower on Sept. 20 at the home of Mrs. E. M. Malone and on Sept. 27 a shower and dance was held at the home of her parents, the large number of useful and costly gifts received testifying to the popularity of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle will reside in Pleasant Grove where the groom is a prosperous farmer. —(Patriot please copy)

Gnr. Joseph MacDougall, R.C.A., left for Petawawa yesterday after spending a furlough at his home.

Mr. C. P. McCarthy, Tignish, was elected President of the Prince Edward Island Fishermen's Union at the annual meeting held in the Town Hall, Summerside, yesterday. Others officers elected were: Vice President, Mr. Austin Bell, Murray Harbor. Directors: Prince County, Mr. Sylvere Gallant, Egmont Bay; Queen's, Mr. J. B. McDonald, West St. Peter's; King's, Mr. Jerome Chapman, Red Point.

LAID TO REST.—The funeral of the late Mr. Angus Cameron was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence 81 Longworth Ave., and was largely attended. Service at the house and grave were conducted by the Rev. G. Carlyle Webster. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Wm. MacLeod, J. A. Miller, J. F. Leightizer, J. P. McAleer, Urias MacDonald and Wendall McDonald. Interment was in the People's cemetery.

SNOW PLOW OUT — The Provincial Department of Highways announced last night it had been necessary to send a snow plow to Summerside yesterday. Only short sections of the road were blocked by snow drifts, it was learned. In the vicinity of Hunter River and Fredericton drifts of three feet were encountered, however. Other paved roads and the majority of the dirt roads were not blocked officials of the Department said.

—FIRE AT ENMORE — Walter Enman of Enmore had the misfortune to lose his house and all his belongings by fire early this week. Mr. Enman had been home for his midday meal and returned to his work ploughing in the field. When, but a short time after, he looked up and saw the house afire. His wife, who was at work in the house at the time, escaped. The fire appeared to have started from the flue as the roof was ablaze before the interior caught. The family lost everything they had including money, and gold watch belonging to one of Mr. Enman's sons, a gift from a friend in the States. Mr. Enman had his loss partly covered by insurance. Much sympathy is extended to him and his family in their loss. —S.

—FUNERAL OF MR. JOHN W. WARREN — The funeral services for the late Mr. John W. Warren, who passed away last Thursday, October 18th at his home in Medford, Mass., were held on Sunday from the home of Mr. Fred Weeks at Fredericton, P.E.I. There was a short service at the house followed by a service in the Church at Fredericton. Both services were largely attended. Rev. L. E. G. Davies was the officiating clergyman. During the service Mr. Geo. A. Bowness of Summerside sang with much feeling "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown". The pall bearers were Messrs. Preston Kennedy, Donald Baker, Hugh Morrison, James McSwain, Wm. Peardon and Thomas Wigmore. Interment was in the Fredericton Cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Mr. Jas. Andrews, undertaker. Accompanying the body home were Mr. Warren's four sons, Harry, Lloyd, Ray

The 129-ton schooner, Maud Weston, owned by Captain William Weston of Rexton, N. B., grounded yesterday on Rocky Point, near Cape Egmont a few miles west of here and is a total loss. The craft sailed from Summerside Monday in ballast after discharging a cargo of lumber for M. F. Schurman Ltd.

The schooner struck shortly after 2 o'clock yesteday morning in a blinding snowstorm. The crew attempted to get ashore in their own boats but seas breaking over the bar where the craft grounded prevented them getting off. They remained aboard until a boat from the shore reached the wreck shortly before noon when the wind dropped.

Members of the crew include, Captain Fred Gallant, Rustico, P.E.I.; Harold Maloney, mate, of Rexton, N. B.; Lawrence Herbert, second mate, Rexton; Edmund Herbert, cook, also of Rexton.

The Maud Weston was built 59 years ago shipping men said. She was re-built in 1909 and has been coming to Summerside with lumber for the Schurman Company for many years.

Members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police proceeded to Cape Egmont by road when news of the grounding was reported; enroute their car stuck in drifts piled up by Monday night's storm.

The gale took down many telephone lines in the western section of the province.

—WEDDING BELLS — A very charming wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, Margate on Saturday afternoon, October 19th at 12.30 o'clock when their daughter, Miss Louise Maud, became the bride of Mr. Donald Clarence Marchbank, only son of Mr. and Mrs. James Marchbank, New Annan. The bride entered the room on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus played by the bride's sister, Miss Evelyn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. N. Somers under an arch of running spruce and pink and white cut flowers. The other decorations in the room were carried out in pink and white. The bride looked very winsome in a floor length dress of all over white lace, carrying a gorgeous bouquet of gladioli and maiden hair fern. On her head was a coronet of orange blossoms from which hung a dainty finger tip veil. The couple were unattended. During the signing of the register, Mrs. George N. Somers played softly music fitting to the occasion. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served in the artistically decorated dining room, where the immediate relatives of both bride and groom participated. Mr. and Mrs. Marchbank left on a honeymoon trip to points of interest in the Maritimes. The bride travelled in a tropical blue boucle cloth coat with ring tail opposum trimming and wore an Indian Earth hat and accessories to match. On their return the happy young copule will reside in New Annan where the groom is a prosperous farmer and where a beautiful new home has been constructed for their abode. The best wishes of a host of friends go out to the newlyweds for future happiness.

GRAND VISITATION. — Grand Master G. Shelton Sharp, of Tyne Valley, paid his annual visitation to St. John's Lodge, A. F. & A. M. at the Masonic Temple in Charlottetown last night. He was accompanied by his Grand Lodge Officers. Master of St. John's Lodge was Worshipful Master B. C. Keeping. After the ceremonies, refreshments were served in the banquet room and an enjoyable sing-song took place.

MANY ATTEND DANCE—One of the most successful dances held in Charlottetown for many years was the one presented last night by the Carry on Canada Corps in the new DeBlois warehouse, Lower Queen Street. A crowd of approximately 2,000 people attended and danced to old time and modern music. Two large floors were filled to capacity as the dancers went through the sets and modern numbers. The old time music was supplied by Don Messer and his orchestra while music for the modern dancing was played by O. K. Pressy. The entire proceeds go towards the ambulance fund.

Major D. H. Sutherland, Ottawa, Assistant Deputy of Fisheries, was the guest speaker at a very enjoyable banquet sponsored by the Prince Edward Island Fisherman's Union last night. It was held at the Queen Hotel, Summerside, following the annual meeting of the Union held earlier in the day. The toastmaster was Mayor J. E. Campbell of Summerside.

Originally it was intended that Hon. J. E. Michaud, Minister of Fisheries, would address the members of the Union at the banquet but at the last moment he wired stating that he was unable to attend owing to business obligations and that the Deputy Minister would speak in his place. Major Sutherland arrived by afternoon plane.

—FUNERAL OF MR. WM. D. SHEEN—The funeral services for Mr. Wm. D. Sheen who passed away in Arlington, Mass., were held on Monday afternoon from St. Mark's Anglican Church at Kensington, Rev. Mr. Fream, rector, conducted the service. There was a large congregation of friends and brother Masons of which the deceased was a P.G. Master. The impressive burial service of the Masons was conducted by Worshipful Master Bro. MacFarlane of the Kensington Lodge. The pall bearers were Messrs. Robert St. George Stavert of Boston, W. B. MacArthur, Heath Bowness, Colin Campbell, Colin Ramsay. Attending the funeral were Mrs. Wm. D. Sheen, widow of the deceased and Mrs. George Stavert from Boston.—S.

PROVINCE HAS FIVE - INCH SNOWFALL — Prince Edward Island was still covered with a blanket of snow last night after a storm which developed into a near blizzard early yesterday morning. Five inches of snow fell, backed by a wind which at times reached a velocity of 36-miles-per-hour. Mr. Warren Burns, weather observer at the Charlottetown Experimental Station said. The temperature was only just below freezing, however. But it hung at the freezing point all day and at night fall much of the snow still remained. The storm began Monday night. It was considered unusual for snow in October to remain on the ground 24 hours, weather observers said. There was no damage from the storm and yesterday farmers were able to continue harvesting their potato crop, despite the snow. Many, however, left their fields untouched as they said the snow made the ground wet and unfit for digging.

THURSDAY

FUNERAL HELD TUESDAY. — The funeral of the late Peter H. Stewart was held on Tuesday afternoon from his late residence, Fitzroy Street, and was largely attended. A short service was held at the house at 1 p.m., followed by service at the church at 2.30. Rev. Hugh Miller conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Mr. Boothroyd and Rev. Mr. Christie. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. W. C. S. McLure, George McInnis, Henry Mutlow, Edgar Heartz, John McFarlane, Henry Boswell. Interment, People's cemetery.

CASE ADJOURNED — The case of James Power vs. Constables Stern Webster, and R. O. McLean was heard by Judge C. G. Duffy in the Supreme Court yesterday. The case arose out of the seizure of the plaintiff's car for a lien note. It was adjourned for a date to be named by the counsels, pending settlement. Mr. J. J. Johnston, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. H. F. McPhee, K. C., for the Police Officers.

Sergeant Herbert H. King, wife and baby Joan left yesterday morning on return to Dartmouth, N. S., where he is stationed. He was on a visit to his mother, Mrs Mary King, Highland Avenue, who has been very sick since June 1st and has been under Doctor's care ever since. Her friends will be sorry to hear there is not much improvement as she is confined to her bed and very weak. Her son John died a year ago today.

One of the oldest business men in Montague, Mr. W. L. Poole, died at his home early last night. He was 77. Although he had been unwell for three years, his death was unexpected.

Mr. Poole was born at Lower Montague. When a young man he conducted a saw mill at Sturgeon. Then, almost 40 years ago, he came to Montague and in partnership with Mr. G. A. Thompson, founded the firm of Poole & Thompson, general merchants and exporters of farm produce. For many years the business was one of the largest in King's County.

In addition to his connection with the firm, Mr. Poole was president of the Montague Electric Company for many years; president of fox ranching organizations; president of the Liberal Association for King's County, and president of the Board of Public Utilities. In recent years, however, he had been discontinuing many of his former activities. He still continued to take a keen interest in the firm of Poole & Thompson, and only last summer made a trip to Sydney, N.S., on business connected with it.

Surviving are three sons and four daughters. They are: L. H. Poole, and Major W. H. Poole, both of Montague; George Poole, manager of a branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Toronto; Mrs. Geo. Schurman, North Sydney; Mrs. Sydney MacLean, Montague; Mrs. Edward Hazen, Saskatoon, Sask.; and another daughter, Eileen, married, somewhere in the United States.

Two brothers also survive. They are: Herbert Poole, Lower Montague, and Otto Poole, Vancouver.

His wife predeceased him several months ago.

There passed peacefully away at her home in Albany on October 12, 1940, in her 78th year, Mrs. James Warren, widow of the late James Warren, who predeceased her some two years ago. She was a very kind and lovely person and devoted wife and mother. She bore her illness with Christian patience, never heard to murmur or complain, only resigned to the Will of God. She was frequently visited by her beloved pastor who administered the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church to which she was a devoted member. She also was visited by Rev. M. J. Smith who gave her the final blessing. She will be greatly missed in the home where she found her greatest pleasure. She leaves to mourn their loss three sons namely Cecil of Halifax; Martin in Albany; George at home. Also three daughters, Mrs. Joseph Muttart, Carleton; Mrs. Amby Carr, Emerald and Bertha at home, who so tendely cared for her mother during her four months of illness. She also leaves to mourn their loss three brothers John, Conn.; George, New York and Martin in Albany. Also two sisters Mrs. Bertha Watson, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. M. E. Quigg, St. John, N. B., and a number of grand children and great grand children. Her funeral was held Tuesday morning, October 15th from her late residence to Seven Mile Bay Church, where Requiem High Mass was sung by her beloved pastor, Rev. W. E. Monaghan, assisted by Rev. Father McKenna. Interment in the church cemetery, beside that of her late husband and son. The pall bearers were: A. C. Green, George MacCormac, W. P. Cameron, Phalin McInnis, James Johnston and Charles Sharkey.

May her soul rest in peace.
