Bristol and Vicinity

Mrs. Earl Drake was a business visitor to the city on Saturday.

Mr. Roy Cairns has taken a position as teacher at the Harbour school owing to the teacher shortage. Mr. Cairns is no stranger behind the desk having served before going into the army.

Mrs. W. A. O'Brien and daughter, were week-end visitors here with Mrs. O'Brien's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. MacDonald. They returned to the city Monday morning.

Miss Geraldine Bagg, who has been home since Christmas, expects to return to the city next week where she will be employed.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. John T. O'Brien, who celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday last week.

Many friends here are very sorry to hear of the very serious illness of Most Reverend James Morrison, Archbishop of Antigonish in the hospital in that city. His Grace visited his old home not so long ago at Savage Harbor and the old parish at St. Andrews. He is eighty-eight now and has been at Antigonish for many years. Islanders, especially those from this vicinity, were always welcome at his residence while in that city and this scribe recalls college days there when we would make it a point to visit His Grace with the home news.

Miss Reta Byrne of the Charlottetown Hotel staff, was a visitor to her old home and other friends here last week.—B.

WEST CAPE INSTITUTE MEETS

The regular monthly meeting of the West Cape Women's Institute was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Brooks, Wednesday Jan. 4. Owing to the weather conditions only eight members answered roll call, with a New Year's resolution.

Report were given by the various committees. New entertainment committees: Mrs. Annie MacWilliam and Mrs. Kenneth Ellis. Mrs. David and Mrs. Edward MacDonald kindly invited the members to meet at their home for the February meeting. A delicious lunch was served. The president Mrs. John MacLellan presided.

WIRELESS PROTECTION

MONTREAL, — (CP) —Use of walkie-talkie sets by policemen on beats in Notre Dame de Grace ward has been recommended to city council by Councillor Roy E. Wagar. He said persons in the extended west-end ward are demanding greater protection.

Georgetown and Vicinity

Miss Mary Wallace of Moncton, N. B., is visiting at her home in Georgetown.

Mr. Stephen Landry is a patient in the Veterans' Wing of the Prince Edward Island Hospital and his many friends hope his health will rapidly and satisfactorily improve.

Miss Madeline McKeeman of Charlottetown, is visiting in Burnt Point, where she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hanson.

Mr. Stillman Mair who is employed in Charlottetown was the week-end guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Yorston.

*The many friends of Mrs. Warren Llewellyn are pleased to hear that she has returned home from the hospital, greatly improved in health.

Friends in Georgetown of Mr. Albert Lavers, Canadian National Railway trackmaster of Charlottetown, and former Georgetonian, heard with regret of his present illness and all hope his return to normal good health will be rapid and completely satisfactory.

On Friday afternoon the children enjoyed their first afternoon skate in the new rink and a large crowd turned out. Sheer delight and enjoyment was mirrored in the youthful faces as they whirled over the glossy surface, in the new modern equipped rink. The untiring efforts of the individuals and organizations responsible for the erection of the new building were amply repaid when they beheld our men and women of tomorrow building sound bodies by participating in healthful recreation, so vitally necessary to children of school age.

The residents of Georgetown heard with regret of the death in Charlottetown recently of Captain A. A. MacDonald. The deceased was a highly respected citizen of Georgetown for a great many years, prior to taking up residence in Charlottetown and was a former Sheriff of Kings County and Deputy Prothonotary of the Supreme Court for Kings County. Sincere sympathy is extended to his widow, Mrs. Alice MacDonald of Charlottetown and his son, Captain Cyrene MacDonald of Georgetown.

FOR SIMPLE SORE THROAT YOU CAN'T BEAT BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE

Victoria, the Village by the Sea

Mr. Bill MacLeod, Oakville, Ontario, who spent the holiday season here, left on return recently.

Miss Doreen MacLean, Victoria, has accepted a position in Halifax and left recently for that city.

Miss Marion Pyke, Moncton, was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth MacLean, Victoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Myers, Mrs. Sheldon Cameron and Miss Edith Inman, Charlottetown, were recent visitors to Victoria, guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Inman.

Miss Kathleen Picketts, principal of Victoria School, has again taken up her duties after spending the holidays pleasantly at her home in Kelvin.

Mr. and Mrs. William Younker and daughter, Ruth, of Kingston, were visitors to Victoria for New Year's, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Wright.

Mr. Walter Rogerson, Hampton, Mr. John Rogerson and son Wilfred and bride were guests at New Year's dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lea of Victoria.

The Misses Verna and Donalda MacLeod have returned to Charlottetown, after a pleasant holiday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacLeod, Victoria.

Messrs. Ivan and Windsor Howatt, and Mr. James Boulter, Jr., of Victoria, left recently for Fredericton, N. B., where they have secured work for the winter months.

Mrs. Donald Murchison, Victoria, is spending some time in Cape Traverse, guest of her sister, Mrs. John Walker and Mr. Walker. Her home-coming will be hailed with delight as she is much missed in church and social circles.

Miss Annie MacDougall, Bank of Nova Scotia, and Miss Florence MacDougall, primary teacher in the school here, have resumed work after a happy holiday season spent at their home in Rose Valley.

Friends of Mr. James Boulter, Sr., Victoria, are sorry to learn that while working at MacLeod's fox ranch, he fell from a ladder and received a severe shaking up, besides breaking some bones, and was taken at once to the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown, where he is a patient.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Boswell, "Lealands", Victoria, had a happy family gathering during the festive season—Edward from Ottawa, who returned by plane; Jean from Truro; David who is attending Dalhousie University, Halifax; Alan from Mount Allison, Sackville; Ruthie and Maylea from Charlottetown; also Mr. Boswell's sister, Miss Elsie, from Tryon.

The rink at Victoria under the capable management of Mr. H. B. Wood opened for the season last week, the children being treated to the first skate which they enjoyed very much after a long wait for the weather man to make up his mind "to freeze or not to freeze." Now that the ice is in good condition hockey will be the town topic from now on.

Cupid seems to have been quite busy in this vicinity of late judging by the number who have launched out on the sea of matrimony. Two showers were held recently in the hall here, one for Miss Lorraine Lowther who married Mr. Ivan Howatt, and one for Miss Kathleen MacDonald who married Mr. Keith MacVittie. Congratulations are also extended to Mr. Heath MacQuarrie, whose marriage took place on December 27th in Malden, Mass., at the home of his sister. His mother, Mrs. Wilfred MacQuarrie, Victoria, who is spending the winter there had the pleasure of attending her son's wedding; also to Mr. George Wotton, Crapaud, a one-time resident of Victoria, who was one of the principals in an interesting event, the good wishes of all are extended.

NO CONSTIPATION IN 20 YEARS

"I have been eating KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN for 20 years, and during this time have never needed a laxative. I am regular and feel fit—owe it to ALL-BRAN." Address and Presentation

On the evening of December 9th, a large number of people from the United Charge at Bradalbane met with members of the surrounding communities to honor Mrs. Morrison, Mary, Gordon and Arthur who have recently taken up residence in Charlottetown.

The evening was pleasantly spent in music, singing and social intercourse. During the evening Rev. W. B. MacPhail who acted as chairman called upon Mrs. Alex MacDonald who read a complimentary address. A purse of money together with a pair of all wool blankets and satin cushion were presented Mrs. Morrison and Arthur replied briefly, thanking the donors for their very fine gifts.

Some time before this gathering Mrs. Morrison was remembered with gifts from the L. O. B. A. and W. M. S. At the close of the Sunday School the previous Sunday, both she and Mary were recipients of gifts from the teachers and pupils of the Sunday School.

The following is the address:

Mrs. Morrison and Family:

We, your friends have gathered here tonight to bid you a fond farewell before your departure to the city.

Seven years ago you came to us together with your husband, our beloved pastor, the late Rev. D. J. Morrison and during those years you have endeared yourselves to us all.

By your genial manner, together with untiring and unselfish devotion to duty, you have won a very warm place in our hearts.

Not only in the church but in all phases of community activities you are leaving a void which cannot easily be filled, and we feel in your new home that these qualities which you have so modestly displayed will be appreciated.

We will miss Mary, Gordon and Arthur. When they came among us in their tender years, we watched with pride their growth from youth to girlhood and manhood and today we are pleased to know you are all holding responsible positions.

You too, were always willing to help when called for service.

Please accept this purse as a kind momento from your friends of Bradalbane, Rose Valley, Pleasant Valley and Granville. And may God's richest blessings follow you in your new home.
