gas. Field Marshal French says the repeated use of gas by the Germans compelled him to resort to a similar method.
"A detachment was organized for this purpose and took part in the operations commencing September 25 for the first time," says the Field Marshal. "Although the enemy was known to have been prepared for such reprisals our gas attack met with marked success, producing a demoralizing effect in some of the opposing units, of which ample evidence was forthcoming in captured trenches. The men undertaking this work carried out their unfamiliar duties with conspicuous gallantry and coolness, and are confident of their ability to more than hold their own, should the enemy again resort to this method of warfare."
In the concluding paragraph Field Marshal French pays tribute to the co-operation of the French forces with the British.

PARTICULARS OF ISLANDER'S DEATH

Mrs. W. Taylor, Richmond St., received the following letter from her son George, written to his sister, Some where in France, Oct. 16, 1915.
Dear Gladys—I received your letter last week and was glad to hear from you. I received one from Mary a few days before, tell her I will answer it the first chance I get. The other day I received a very nice letter from the Rev. Mr. Fulton. I think it was very kind of him. I got a bunch of papers today, and was very glad. I hope there is some more tobacco on the way, we get an issue of cigarettes every week, but it is chewing tobacco I need the worst.
Well Gladys I have the worst news to tell you, but I suppose it has reached you before, that poor Jack McLean was killed, Wednesday afternoon. We came out of the trenches for a rest last night, but it is a very poor rest that you get. The engagement lasted only four hours, but I tell you there was something doing in that time, it put the fear of God in a good many when the big Jack Johnsons were bursting around us. We lost a good many, killed and wounded. "A Company" suffered the heaviest, our company next supporting them. I saw Jack a couple of days before the big fight, and I came near seeing him the afternoon he was killed, he was looking for me before they left the trenches, and by the time I came up to see him, they were out in the charge. I heard the Germans suffered heavy, I hope they did. We made them leave their trench like rats out of a hole. There is nothing too bad for them to do, they use explosive bullets, which make a hole in you the size of a baseball. A man's life is not worth much here. I have had several narrow escapes. I was reported killed the afternoon of the big fight, and the fellows got a glad surprise when I turned up the next morning. It was a massacre of mine from some part of New Brunswick. He was badly wounded. I don't know whether he lived or not. This is a terrible place to be in, when you see your comrades blown to pieces, along side of you, and you expecting every moment to get yours, and then look at the little cemetery getting bigger by leaps, and bounds. There are over twenty sleeping in it now. Two from Charlottetown, Moses Gallant and Jack. I think Jack was hit in the head with a bullet, he looked alright. Some poor fellows were badly mangled with shrapnel. I know his poor mother will take it bad. Jack was a good fellow, and frightened of nothing. He was a bayonet man, with a bomb-thrower.

I was talking to Danny McLeod today. He is alright so far, like myself, but we don't know what minute we are going to get it. I want to get a few Germans before I do go, and a couple for poor Jack.
I saw two brothers lying side by side yesterday killed, and I thought of their parents, how bad they would take it. They belonged to some part of New Brunswick. One fellow was killed in the big fight, and the other fellow, the next day, after cleaning himself a bit, and finishing his dinner, got up and looked over the parapet at the Germans and he got a bullet right through the temple. He did not know his brother was killed either.
Well I must close now, I will write again soon, I hope you will send me some more tobacco, unless you see my name in the casualty list.
There were four Taylors in our battalion, one was killed, the other was badly wounded. I am the only one left now that goes in the firing line. The other fellow hauls up provisions with a team.
Well tell me all the news, when you write. Tell mother not to worry about me, and help her all you can. Tell Joe I am much obliged for the papers.
Good bye for now from your loving brother,
GEORGE TAYLOR 69988,

TEN BURNED TO DEATH IN FIRE IN BROOKLYN

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Ten persons were burned to death in a fire which destroyed the three-storey tenement house at 85 North 6th Street, Brooklyn, to-night. More bodies are believed to be in the ruins.
I will close now as my light will be going out in a few minutes.
Please give my regards to all the friends.
Love to yourself and the girls. I remain, your loving son,
ED.

FOOD PROBLEM IN GERMANY SERIOUS

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Discussion of whether the food situation in Germany really is as serious as has been pictured recently in some reports is continued by the newspapers. The Daily Mail believes it misleading to say that Germany is starving, or in immediate danger of starvation, but adds, "there is no denying food conditions there are vastly less favourable than at the outset of the first winter of the war."
Other London papers emphasize the bearing which the British submarine blockade in the Baltic Sea is likely to have on Germany's supply of certain food-stuffs. It seems to be taken for granted that Germany's connections with Sofia and Turkey cannot be protected soon enough to have any considerable bearing on the food situation this winter.

A CHILD'S TONGUE SHOWS IF LIVER OR BOWELS ARE ACTIVE

Every mother realizes after giving her children "California Fig Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.
When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue. Mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all: of foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When the little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.
Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Fig Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters, sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

CHEERFUL AND HAPPY IN THE TRENCHES

Mr. Freeman Muttart of Borwell has received the following letter from his son which is generally interesting to all.
France, Oct. 3, 1915.
Dear Dad:
It is about time that I had written a few lines to let you know that I am getting along alright. I feel fine since we came over here, never felt better in my life. We get a good issue of rations every day, yet I never seem able to get enough to eat. That's a pretty good sign is it not?
Life in the trenches is not so bad while it is fine but in wet weather, it is very bad, and there is lots of rain here now, I have been over here about a month now, and can't say that I am tired of it yet but of course the novelty of it has not worn off yet. I must admit that it has its hardships, even at the best of times such as being soaked wet for days and covered with mud and rain with a big pack on your back, and loss of sleep. I have already in the short time I have been here gone for 72 hours with only 7 hour sleep.
When not in the trenches we sleep

How we can guarantee this Spring for 25 years

If you've had experience in buying and using spring mattresses you know that most of them are "sagged", "bagged" worn out and unfit for use after from one to three years of use.

The "Hercules" No. O Spring is a woven wire Spring, but is woven in a different way. It is 5 times stronger—5 times more springy—by actual test, than any other Spring.

We are sole agents. All sizes always in stock.

ADJOURNED MEETING OF J. R. DENNIS PEDIGREE FOXES

The adjourned meeting of the John R. Dennis Pedigree Foxes was held last evening in the Board of Trade Rooms. There was a good representation of stock holders. The President, Mr. J. R. Dennis, occupied the chair.
The Auditor, Mr. B. Balderson, submitted his report on the financial condition of the Company, which was adopted.
A Committee was appointed to draft an address to the former Secretary, Mr. W. E. Cameron, whose resignation to resume his studies for the priesthood in Toronto, was so deeply regretted by both directors and shareholders, and to whom it was desired to convey the strongest expressions of good-will. The Committee named was Professor Ross, Major Bartlett and Mr. S. F. Hodgson. The meeting then proceeded to elect directors for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: J. R. Dennis, Charles Lyons, W. C. McClure, Prof. Theodore Ross, Major Bartlett, Major Leigh and C. H. Black.
