GREETINGS

NEW YEAR

1935

Even if we had to jockey an old bird to get where we wanted to go, we'd still find a way to boot it home and bring you our New Year's greetings; and these are that we wish you your full share of 1935's greater prosperity and good cheer.

SUCCESS

in the

New Year

And a wealth of happiness to go with your success that will make 1935 an exceptional year of better times for you and yours.

A. Horne and Co.

THERE was just one thing more that we had to do before 1934 came to a close. We had to send out New Year's greetings to all our customers and friends. But time was short, our lists were incomplete. It looked like we'd have to take a chance, reaching as many as we could and trusting to luck that nobody would be left out. Then came this idea of putting our greetings in the newspaper . . . and here they are. You can't miss 'em because there's a whole page packed with greetings.
