The best wishes of a host of friends go with Mr. and Mrs. Ahearn for future success in their new field. S.

CHEQUE IS STOLEN —Two juveniles were taken into custody about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by City Police Constables Gordon Poole and Victor Handrahan in connection with the theft of a government cheque to the amount of $96. It was taken from a residence of Hillsboro Street. Police said the name of the person to whom it was made out was forged on the back and an attempt was made to cash it at a bank. Failing that it was cashed by a local coal dealer, the two lads responsible buying a ton of coal in order to get it cashed. Suspicions were aroused and an investigation started when the person to whom the coal was to be delivered could not be found at the address given. Police recovered some of the money, hidden in an empty cigarette package under a fence.

BORDEN WELCOMES NEW DOCTOR—An event unique in the history of the Town of Borden took place in the Town Hall on Friday, February 25th, when the residents turned out en masse to welcome Doctor M. Schapira as a resident and present him with an address and token of welcome. The address was read by Mayor P. J. McInnis and the presentation was made by Mrs. J. L. Herring, president of the Borden Women's Institute. The Doctor comes most highly recommended by the Medical Association. The uniqueness of the event was that Borden since it became a Town has witnessed many improvements but this is the first time they have been called upon to welcome a Doctor. This is considered a most forward step as Borden alone has a population of almost one thousand and the surrounding country will welcome the services of a skilled Doctor.

The sudden passing of Mr. James D. Campbell, Spring Valley, in Prince County Hospital came as a shock to his many friends and relatives on Feb. 1st. at the age of 66 years.

His funeral was held from his late residence on Thursday, Feb. 3rd, in the afternoon with a short service conducted by Rev. J. A. McGowan. Mr. Arthur Stewart sang with feeling "Oh, think of the Home Over There." The service was continued in Keir Memorial Church, Malpeque, where many friends and relatives gathered regardless of the severe cold to pay their respects to one who was highly esteemed by all who knew him. Rev. C.J. Crowdis and the minister of the church conducted the service.

Interment was made in Malpeque People's Cemetery in the family.

Veterans of the South African war attended morning service at Trinity United Church yesterday, the anniversary of the Battle of Paardeberg which marked the virtual end of that conflict. Two Charlottetown men gave their lives, Roland Taylor and Alfred Riggs.

Six veterans of the South African war were at the service: Col. H. D. Johnson, T. Ambrose Rodd, Reginald Cox, Michael McCarthy, Charles Hine and John Lawlor. They were joined at the church by veterans of later wars and occupied reserve seats in the centre of the church.

The minister, Rev. T. E. McLennan made fitting comments upon this 44th anniversary of the battle. A wreath was placed on a memorial tablet in the church by T. A. Rodd and Reginald Cox. The congregation remained standing while Last Post was sounded by Charles Hine.

The funeral of Mrs. J. M. Laird (nee Henrietta Jardine) was held from her late residence, Kensington on Thursday February 17th, at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The service was conducted by her minister Rev. J.A. McGowan and Rev. A.D. Sterling, a close friend of the family. A mixed choir sang with feeling "The Lord's My Shepherd," "There is no Night in Heaven" and "Peace Perfect Peace."

Mrs. Laird passed to her rest on Monday morning Feb. 14th, at the age of 59. She has been in failing health for the last two years. Her husband, the late J. M. Laird predeceased her by four years.

Mrs. Annie Humphrey, sister of the deceased, lived with her and tenderly nursed her during her illness. She leaves to mourn their loss besides her sister, three brothers, Mr. James Jardine, Kensington; Mr. George Jardine, Freetown and Mr. Robert Jardine, Charlottetown and two step children, Mr. Harold Laird, Kelvin and Mrs. Robert MacDonald, Pictou, N.S.

—POST NUPTIAL SHOWER — Mrs. Allan Wedlock was hostess Wednesday evening at a miscellaneous shower given Mrs. J.J. Ledgard, the former Miss Olga Love. The living room was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Miss Miriam McDonald opened the lovely gifts and Miss Ruth McDonald read the accompanying verses. Mrs. Ledgard charmingly acknowledged the gifts and the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent with music. A dainty lunch was served after which the guests departed, wishing Mrs. Ledgard many years of happiness. S

—CONGRATULATIONS — Mr. and Mrs. Moffatt MacLean of Summerside have received a letter from the Hon. C.G. Power, Minister of National Defense for Air congratulating them on the award of the Distinguished Flying Cross to their eldest son, Flt. Lt. Ralph MacLean who is now serving overseas with the R. C. A. F. The letter also contained a copy of the citation on which the award was made. It reads: "This officer has completed many successful operations against the enemy in which he has displayed high skill fortitude and devotion to duty." Flt. Lt. MacLean was awarded the D.F.C. about a month ago. S

FUNERAL SERVICES — The funeral of Mr. James Hugh Hennessey was held Saturday morning from his late residence 203 King Street to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. J. W. McCardle who also conducted service at the grave. The pall bearers were: Messrs. James Lappin, Thos. Flynn Cleave, McLean, Bruno Martin, Peter McDonald and James McAleer. The Benevolent Irish Society of which the deceased was a member preceded the hearse.

—FUNERAL AT KINKORA — The funeral of the late T. A. McIvor took place at Kinkora on Friday morning from the funeral home of P. A. Monaghan to St. Malachi Church where the Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. J. A. Murphy. The funeral was perhaps one of the largest ever held in the vicinity, friends and relatives from all sections of the country attending to pay their last respects. The pall bearers who bore the remains from the church to their last resting place were six nephews of the deceased. Ollie McCarville, Ray Johnston, Percy Murphy, Aden McIvor, Hugh John McIvor, Harold Mulligan. The pall bearers in Summerside who accompanied the body from the residence to the train were Donald McPherson, Everett Kelly, Fonce Brown, Lorne Driscoll, T. L. Comeau and Lewis Sherry. S.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER — A world day of prayer service was held Friday afternoon at the Salvation Army Citadel in Charlottetown. There was a large attendance of women from Protestant Churches in the city. Mrs. W. Mercer presided and opened the service by singing "For Christ there is no east or west." Seated on the platform were the following ladies representing these respective churches: Baptist, Mrs. Ronald Noble; St. James, Mrs. T. B. Somers; St. Paul's, Mrs. Bell; Zion, Mrs. G. C. Webster; St. Peter's, Mrs. Alan Cosh; Central Christian, Mrs. Frank Stewart; Church of Scotland, Mrs. A. J. MacLean; Trinity United, Mrs. W. H. Johnson. A solo, "Beautiful Garden of Prayer" was rendered by Mrs. Ernest Weatherbie. Mrs. Webster gave an earnest and thoughtful address. The service closed by singing the National Anthem and with prayer. The offering at the service totalled $25.

The community of Malpeque and many surrounding districts will learn with deep regret of the death at his home Saturday night of Dr. James W. Keir, aged 75 years. Death followed an illness of several weeks.

Dr. Keir practiced medicine at Malpeque for probably 40 years or more, following in the footsteps of his father, the late Dr. William Keir. He studied at a university in the United States and lived there after graduation for a short time before returning to his native province. For a time he operated a joint practice with his father.

Surviving are his wife, the former Miss Mary Davis, who lived formerly in the United States, and one daughter, Mrs. Clyde Auld of Toronto. There are also four grand children.

The death occurred in the City Hospital on Monday, Feb. 7th of Elizabeth Feeley after a comparatively short illness. A native of Ireland the deceased resided in this city for a number of years, where, by her pleasing and friendly disposition she enjoyed a large circle of friends. Before residing in this city, where she made her home with her sister, Mrs. Dominic Doyle and Mr. Doyle, she resided in North Attleboro, Mass., for sometime.

There passed suddenly away at his home at Earnscliffe, Sunday evening, January 30th, Mr. Robert Gass, in his 75th year. As Mr. Gass had been in his usual health up until that day, the news of his death came as a great shock to his family and friends. He and Mrs. Gass had resided at Earnscliffe for about ten years, having removed there from the Bonshaw District at that time. Mr. Gass was well thought of by all who knew him. He was a reliable workman and a very kind and hospitable neighbour. He leaves to mourn their loss, besides his sorrowing wife, a family of eight sons and five daughter, now widely scattered across Canada and the United States and Europe. Four of the sons, Dan, Douglas, Joseph and Lorne are Overseas. Alfred is with the Army in Sydney, N.S. The funeral was held in Cherry Valley United Church on Feb. 2nd. It was conducted by Rev. A. S. Weir and was very largely attended. Mr. Gass will be greatly missed in the community and sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Gass and family in their bereavement. Interment was made in the cemetery beside the church. The pallbearers were Messrs. Bernard Doyle, Roy Mutch, Harry Tweedy, Ambrose Doyle, Luke Praught and Russel Young.

A very large number of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs gathered at their lodge rooms on Friday evening to honor Mr. Murdock Ross, a highly esteemed and valued member of Wildey Lodge who with his wife is about to leave Charlottetown to reside with his daughter, Mrs. A. E. Helm of Toronto. At the conclusion of a short program the chairman, Mr. A.O.F. Gill, P.G.M., called upon Mr. George Ryan, P.G.M., who read an address to Mr. Ross.

May God bless you both and keep you safely.

The presentation of the gift was made by Mr. Wilbur Jones, Noble Grand.

Mr. Ross replied in his usual estimable way, thanking the gathering for their kind wishes to Mrs. Ross and himself. He recalled many happy memories and associations during many years of membership in Wildey Lodge.

The gathering also remembered Mrs. Ross by presenting a bouquet of flowers to her daughter, Mrs. Helm, on her behalf.

Brief remarks were made by Messrs. G.M. Moore, Henry McFarlane, Henry Lapthorn, D.D. Morrison, George Ryan, C.H. Black, Rev. G. Carlyle Webster and Mrs. Adelaide Sentner, Noble Grand of Alpha Rebekah Lodge.

All spoke of the great and untiring zeal of Mr. Ross in the interest of oddfellowship and of his sterling qualities as a fellow member and as a citizen of this city. While regrets were expressed in the departure of Mr. Ross and his wife from this community all wished them continued years of happiness and contentment.

TUESDAY

CASUALTY LIST — Among those reported wounded in the latest Canadian Army casualty list is Pte. Lloyd Joseph MacLeod, who was serving with a Nova Scotia-Prince Edward Island regiment. Pte. MacLeod's next of kin is his mother, Mrs. Mabel MacLeod, Murray Harbour, P.E.I.

The pallbearers were: Ralph Callbeck, Ivan Dawson, John Stewart, Walter Bowness, Earle Noonan, and J.H. MacFarlane.—S

—SPECIAL MEETING — A special meeting of the Summerside town council was held last evening and it was understood that the question of wages paid town employees was discussed. Mayor W. J. Lidstone when asked later about the meeting said he had no comment and some of the councillors could not be contacted. Two members of the council queried said they had no information for publication. It was understood that Councillors Gorrill, Morrison Wedge and Smallman attended. S.

WEDDING BELLS WAVE-COLE—On Saturday, January 15 at 7.30 P.M. the home of Rev. W. S. Godfrey, Sackville, was the scene of a pretty but quiet wedding, when Rev. Godfrey united in marriage, Miss Mary Marguerite Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cole of New Glasgow, Prince Edward Island and John Reginald Wave, son of Mr. W. W. Wave, and the late Mrs. Wave of Port Elgin, N.B. The bridal couple was unattended. The bride was becomingly attired in a street length dress of blue crepe with matching accessories. The happy couple will take up residence in Port Elgin, where the groom is a valued employee of the Copp Woolen Mills.

ROTARY CLUB MEETS —Mr. W. S. Grant, Past District Governor addressed the Charlottetown Rotary Club at the weekly luncheon in the Charlottetown Hotel yesterday. Mr. Grant stated that the time has come when the provision of a 50-bed extension to the P. E. I. Hospital should be made, and that some action is already underway with that end in view. Mr. Grant, chairman of finance on the P. E. I. Hospital Board of Trustees, said that a committee has been conferring with the architect and is expected to make a recommendation to the trustee board in the near future. The new addition would cost about $150,000. President T.W.L. Prowse extended congratulations to Mr. Grant who observes his 14th birthday today, being born on Feb. 29. Rotarians G.T. Hardie and Alf Fisher were joint chairmen, Mr. Hardie presiding. The guests present were: Dr. J.A. MacMillan, Dr. J. C. Houston and Mr. Fred Cannon.

AN ISLAND HERO—At the regular monthly meeting of the Charlottetown Branch of the Canadian Legion a large photograph of the late Captain Frederick Thornton Peters, R.N.R., was unveiled. Captain Peters was the first native born Islander to win the coveted Victoria Cross. The photograph was presented to the Legion by the local Government. After it had been suitably framed it was handed over to the Branch by Major T. E. MacNutt, Chairman of the Committee appointed to secure a suitable photograph, and accepted by the President of the Branch Comrade E.M. Bagnall. As pointed out in the inscription, which was printed by Comrade J.E. Harris, Captain Peters was a son of the late Hon. Frederick Peters, a former Premier of P. E. Island. Captain Peters was the first native son of the Province to win the Victoria Cross. He also held the D.S.O., D.S.C. and Bar and the American D.S.C. Captain Peters won the Victoria Cross at Oran in November 1942 and was later killed in an air crash, whilst on a special mission, at the age of fifty-one. The members of the Branch are very proud [illegible] photograph of a former Charlottetown man who se[illegible]y so well and with such honour.

PRESENTATION — On Monday evening February 14th, the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Glover met at their home in Spring Valley, to honor their son Urban who was enjoying a well earned furlough at his home. This was Urban's first visit to his home since joining the R.C.A.F. last July. When the friends and neighbors were all gathered, a nicely worded address was read by Keith Harrington and a purse containing a sum of money was presented by Roland Champion, to which Urban fittingly replied, and thanked one and all for their thoughtfulness and generosity. After singing for He's A Jolly Good Fellow, the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Lunch was served. All departed to their homes wishing Urban the best of luck and a safe and speedy return. He left on the following Friday morning for St. John's, Que., where he is stationed.

WEDDING CEREMONY A very pretty wedding ceremony was performed in the United Church at Malpeque on Thursday evening February 17th with the pastor Rev C. J. Crowdis officiating when Miss Myra Rose daughter of Mr and Mrs James Hickey, Darnley, became the bride of Flt. Navigator W. A. Chadwick Pilot Officer, Winnipeg, Manitoba. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by her friend Miss Hazel Todd, while the groom was supported by the brides brother James Hickey. The bride looked charming, beautifully gowned in a floor length dress of white sheer with finger tip veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of roses and fern. The brides maid wore pink silk with sheer bodice with shoulder veil and blossoms and carried a pretty bouquet. Mrs. Chester Simpson furnished the wedding music. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of friends of the bride. At the close of the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the brides parents where a sumptuous wedding supper was served to some thirty-five guests. A most pleasant evening was spent in social intercourse till a late hour when the guests departed after tendering their congratulations. The young couple left on Monday morning for Winnipeg for a short honeymoon before the groom resumes his military duties. A host of friends join in wishing this popular young couple much happiness.

There passed from this life to her eternal home on Sunday, February 6th, 1944, Anna Floraine eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stetson, Freetown, Prince Edward Island, at the early age of seventeen years.

The funeral which was held from her father's residence on February 8th was largely attended and owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Baxter of the United Church, Bedeque, conducted the service, assisted by Rev. Mr. Britten of the Baptist Church. The combined church choirs sang very beautifully, The Lord Is My Shepherd, My Faith Looks Up To Thee and Safe In The Arms of Jesus. After which the prossession wended its way to the People's Cemetery, Freetown, where all that was mortal of dear Anna was tenderly laid to rest. Rev. Mr. Baxter and Rev. Mr. Britten also officiated at the graveside. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Fred Drummond, Wilbert Drummond, Leslie Reeves, Alvin Stetson, Albert Stetson and William Haslam.

WEDNESDY

LAID TO REST — The funeral of the late Mrs. John Gillis of New Argyle was held Saturday February 26th from her late residence. Services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. J. H. Bishop. Pall bearers were: Harry MacNevin, John MacQuarrie, L. T. Beaton, Neil MacNevin, Alex MacQuarrie, and John Inman. Interment was in Argyle Shore cemetery.

CAR ACCIDENT — Two cars collided at 6 o'clock last evening at the corner of Water and Hillsborough streets. The left front fender, and left front door of one was damaged, but the other car remained intact. The collision was accidental and was due to the condition of the streets.

GEORGETOWN COURT — Opening of the Supreme Court at Georgetown, scheduled for 11 a.m. yesterday was delayed when unfavorable flying conditions caused cancellation of a projected flight from Charlottetown to the King's County capital with court officials. It was not learned when the court would open.

APPEAL COURT MET — The civic tax appeal court met in the city court room Monday and Tuesday mornings when appeals against civic assessments were heard. The total number of appeals on the list was 46, of which 28 were settled by consent of the assessor. The Court disposed of the remaining 18, which included real estate and personal property.

Staff Sergeant Robert Arthur Boyle, Mexico, Me., has been decorated with the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal, and three Oak Leaf Clusters to the Air Medal, according to word received by his sister, Mrs. George Leavitt, Bridge street, Mexico, Me. Sgt. Boyle is stationed somewhere in England, and the awards came for the outstanding performance he has been turning in as a radio-man-gunner. Staff Sgt. Boyle was formerly of Elmira, P.E.I. and is a brother of Sgt. Major J. W. Boyle, Charlottetown and two sisters, Mrs. P. H. Lidstone, Charlottetown and Mrs. Albert Hackett, Sea Cow Pond.

—HOME FROM HOLIDAY VISIT—Mr. and Mrs. James H. Champion, Darnley, have just returned from a very enjoyable trip to Malden, Mass., where they were the guest of Mrs. Champion's sister, Mrs. Clarence Mosher. They also visited friends and relatives in Worcester, Medford, and Maine. (Patriot please copy).

FIRE AT DUNDAS — The post office and residence of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Campbell were destroyed by fire on Saturday evening. The fire, which is believed to have resulted from the explosion of a kerosine stove spread so rapidly that the frame structure was completely gutted before effective aid could be obtained.

The outbuildings were saved. Mr. Campbell is on active service overseas. The fire damage is partly covered by insurance.

Y.P.U. MEETS—The Tryon Y.P.U. entertained their friends at a Valentine social on Friday Feb. 11. Over thirty guests were present. A very interesting program of games and contests was carried out under the leadership of Kay Carr, Betty Foy and Vernon Lord. A delicious lunch was served after which the meeting was called to order. All took part in a service of worship led by Florence Mabey. The topic was community friendship. The meeting closed by all joining the Fellowship Circle and repeating the Mizpah Benediction.

LENTEN SERVICES AT SANATORIUUM — On Monday evening Rev. Father MacDonald, C.SS.R., rector of the Redemptorist Fathers began a series of Lenten services at the Provincial Sanatorium which will be conducted weekly. On Tuesday evening, through the Ministerial Association, Rev. Ronald Noble of the Baptist Church conducted a service. The soloists were, Miss Pearle Burns, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Does Jesus Care?" and Mrs. Ivan Robinson who sang "Just for Today." Prof. John Inch was accompanist. For those who were not present the services were heard over the Sanatorium broadcast system.

There passed away at the home of her son, Fred Mrs. Louisa Davey in her 97th year, the oldest resident of Guernsey Cove. Mrs. Davey was a woman of very fine character and greatly beloved by all who knew her; she was kindness itself; and her home was noted for its hospitality to all who called. No person in need ever called on Mrs. Davey in vain. Her kindness and fine motherly spirit is shown in the fact that, besides her own family seven orphan children were brought up at her home. She is survived by three sons: John and Fred of Guernsey Cove, and Lovell of Butte, Mont, a member of the State government.

Major Leith R. Crue, 37, has been appointed Deputy Asst. Quartermaster General of the 6th Division, Pacific Command.

Born at Summerside, P.E.I., he served with the P.E.I. Light Horse prior to the outbreak of war. In 1940 he was appointed Staff Captain of Sydney and Canso Defence at Sydney, Nova Scotia, and later filled the position of D.A.Q.M.G., Headquarters M.D. No. 3, at Kingston before coming to Pacific Command in 1942. Since coming to British Columbia he has been stationed as Esquimalt, Nanaimo, Vancouver and Prince George.

LEGISLATURE YESTERDAY — An interesting discussion took place in the Legislature yesterday on surveys covering Island lots and farms. It occurred in the course of committee reading of a bill to amend the Land Surveyors' Act, sponsored by Hon. William Hughes. The bill authorizes the Executive Council to make a survey of the Province and empowers any qualified surveyor making such survey to enter upon any lands or premises after reasonable notice has been given in the press. It was reported agreed to, as were also bills to provide a retiring allowance of $500 a year for Capt. Nelson Fairchild of the S.S. Montague and to incorporate the King's County Plowing Match and Agricultural Fair Association. The debate on the Budget was resumed by Hon. G. H. Barbour, Minister of Public Works, and continued by Messrs. E.H. Strong and G.E. Saville. At 10.30 Mr. Saville moved the adjournment of the debate. The House adjourned until 3 p.m. today.

The Red Cross Committee were delighted yesterday to receive a cheque for $300.00 from C. W. Speirs of Saint John, N.B. Mr. Speirs has been a welcome visitor to this Province for many years and his many friends are glad to know that he always associates himself with the campaign on the Island. He has always given a substantial cheque to the Red Cross and this year increased his subscription to $300.00 in view of the great need for funds to carry on the work. This handsome contribution from Mr. Speirs is very much appreciated by the Committee and we assure him the money will be well spent for our boys in Peril, Pain and Prison Camps.

DAY OF PRAYER—The World Day of Prayer was observed in New Glasgow on Friday afternoon in the United Church. Miss Ella Semple, United Church, Mrs. Howard Ling, Christian Church, were the leaders. Mrs. Richard Dickieson read the scripture. Prayers were offered by Miss Elsie Laird, Miss M. E. Campbell and Mrs. Wilfred McLeod. Mrs. R.E. Shaw gave the address on "The World at one in Prayer." A duet, "For You I am Praying" was rendered by Mrs. Foster Seller and Mrs. Preston Campbell.

On the evening of Feb. 21st a number of friends gathered at the spacious apartment of "The Two Macs" (Misses Florence MacRae and Lillian MacDougall) 470 MacLaren Street, Ottawa, to do honor to Marion MacKinnon prior to her departure to P.E.I. Having answered the call to do her share in helping the sick and suffering she will enter the P.E.I. Hospital, Charlottetown for her nurse's training in the near future.

A skating party was arranged for the earlier part of the evening and the latter part was spent in social intercourse after which dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, Cecelia S. Applegate presided over the coffee table and Emily S. Witherspoon assisted in serving.

The gathering then dispersed and good-byes were said to Marion with sincere regrets to part with one so highly esteemed by all, but each felt she is called to a greater task to serve in alleviating the pain and suffering of her fellow-men.

Among the numerous guests were Misses Louise Bain, formerly of Cornwall, Helen Clancy, R.N., of Calgary, Alta., who is well known in the social circle of Hunter River and vicinity as she spent some time there the past summer, also Emma Grohn, Sask., who is Marion's intimate friend and former roommate.

The following evening at her own apartment she was presented with an exquisite writing set which she will treasure not for its intrinsic value but for the pleasant memories with which it will be associated and with the wish that it will be used in keeping touch with her old friends in Ottawa.

THURSDAY

—DIED IN TIGNISH — John J. Gaudet, tailor, 72, passed away in Tignish yesterday after several months illness. His wife survives him.

—LAC. MacNeill, P.O. R.C.A. has arrived at his home, 15 King Street, Summerside, to spend a ten day furlough with his wife and family. He has been stationed at No. 3 T.T.S. at Victoriaville, Quebec, where he did exceptionally well in all his tests as a navigator in R.C.A. and is now eligible for further training.

BUDGET DEBATE —The Budget debate was continued in the Legislature yesterday, the speakers being Messrs. Heath Strong, Fourth Prince, J. A. Bernard, First Prince, T. R. Cullen, Second King's, J. P. Matheson, Second Queen's and Hon. J. A. Campbell Fourth King's. The latter moved the adjournment just before six o'clock. The House meets again at 10.30 this morning.

—AIR GRADUATES — Among those graduating recently as air gunners from No. 9 Bombing and Gunnery School, Mont Joli, Quebec, was Sgt. J. A. McNeill of Miscouche, P.E.I. Another Prince County man, Sgt. W. J. Riva of Summerside graduated as an air navigator from No. 10 A.O.S. Chatham, N.B.

SUDDEN DEATH — The death occurred suddenly about noon yesterday in Tignish of Hugh MacKinnon, blacksmith, of a heart attack. The deceased was in his late sixties and leaves a wife and family. One son Flying Officer Roland MacKinnon is serving overseas.

—BOARD OF TRADE — The question of a public pay telephone for Summerside was discussed at a meeting of the Summerside Board of Trade last night at which the President D.O. Baker presided. The question was left in the hands of the town improvement committee. The meeting also discussed the problem of having freight cars shunted at Summerside and discussed air mail and other problems. S.

Last night's third and final supper meeting of the two hundred workers in Charlottetown's Red Cross War Service organization wound up with cheers for its chairman, Capt. Norman Lowther and congratulations voiced by the Divisional Commanders on his leadership of the greatest and most successful money raising campaign for charitable purposes ever conducted in this city.

Total receipts reported amounted to $49,205.62 with quite a number of items still to come in—an increase over last year in excess of the ten per cent aimed at, and enough to practically ensure that including the women's house collection to be conducted the last of the week and the first of next, the total for Charlottetown will reach at least forty-five thousand dollars.

DELIVERY HORSE DIES — A white horse which hauled a milk delivery vehicle in this city, winter and summer, for the past 17 years dropped dead yesterday on Prince Street. He was Jim, owned by the Garden City Dairy and was the first delivery horse the firm bought when it began business here in 1926. Jim knew his job thoroughly and knew every house and store where milk was delivered on his route. All he needed was someone to handle the bottles, he did the rest, turning around at the end of streets, stopping in front of doors and always keeping a watchful eye on his driver. If the latter was delayed Jim did not move on to the next place until the driver was ready. He reached a comparatively ripe old age for a horse, being about 24. He started work as usual this morning but dropped dead before he finished the morning round.

The death occurred about three o'clock yesterday of Dr. Alexander S. Palmer, a well known dentist of O'Leary. He had been ill for the past year with arthritis.

The late Dr. Palmer was 65 years old and had been practising in O'Leary for the past thirty-five years. H. attended Prince of Wales College and taught school a number of years before studying dentistry at Baltimore, Md. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Palmer of Freeland, Lot 11.

The late Dr. Palmer was married twice. His first wife was the former Alveretta Hart of Coleman who died seven years ago. From that marriage there survives one daughter Erma (Mrs. Alton Webb) of Woodstock, P.E.I. His second wife, the former Mae Horne of Bloomfield, survives him. Three brothers also survive, John W. and George of Freeland and Milton in California; also one sister, Mrs. Arthur Smith of Freeland.

The funeral will be on Saturday afternoon at one thirty with a service at his late residence. Interment will be in West Devon cemetery. S
