Sixth Vacancy In Dominion Senate

IN MEMORIAM

In Loving Memory of our Dear Son and Brother
JOSEPH A. McKENNA
Who Died March 7th, 1917

Eight sad years today has passed
Since we saw our dear one last
A bitter grief. A shock severe
To part with him we loved so dear
His pleasant smile for all he met
His kind heart we can never forget
And as time goes by we miss him more
His cheerful voice and welcome face

New Thrills in New Hoot Gibson Picture

RIDES, FIGHTS AND ROMANCE IN "THE HURRICANE KID"

Hoot Gibson, Universal's premier Western star, stages a new brand of thrills and sensations in his latest picture, "The Hurricane Kid," now playing at the Prince Edward Theatre. Gibson is seen in a desperate running fight on horseback, at breakneck speed, in a thrilling race and other exciting adventures and one of the especial features is the capture and breaking to the saddle of a wild horse. Dangerous trails in the lower Sierras are the locale for much of the action.

The story was directed by Edward Sedgwick, who is responsible for "The Sawdust Trail," "The Ramblin' Kid" and other outstanding Gibson successes.

Marian Nixon, a noted screen beauty, is seen in the leading feminine role, and others in the cast are Violet La Plante, a younger sister of Laura La Plante, the noted star, Harry Todd, the character comedian, William A. Steele, Fred Humes, Arthur Mackay, and the full force of the Universal Ranch Riders.

A notable animal star makes her debut with Hoot Gibson in the new picture. This is Pal, his famous "Golden Mare," a pure palamino, said to be the perfect specimen of this Western horse.

"Pal" has been in training for months. An interesting episode is a romance between the horse and her wild mate to parallel the romance of the human actors in the story. This is staged together with the capture of the wild steed after a thrilling chase, and the scenes showing her broken to the saddle.

Will Lambert wrote the story especially for the star, and his beautiful, spirited mare.

The second chapter of the new serial "Wolves of the North" and a laughable monkey comedy complete this excellent week end program.

Baby Beaten And Choked, She Says

LONDON, Ont., March 6.—Charged with battering a one-year-old baby, Mrs. Ella Mason and her son George Stover, were remanded to jail for one week in Magistrate Graydon's court today to await sentence.

A sordid story of how her baby child had been illtreated was told by Mrs. Florence Stover. George Stover is her second husband and she was married to him last month. Since that time with her one-year old baby boy, she has been living with her husband and mother-in-law.

Mrs Stover told how they had whipped the baby with a long strap choked it until it verged on suffocation and thrown it to the floor.

On Monday night, according to the evidence, the baby was crying. Mrs. Mason in an attempt to stop the child from making too much noise," snatched it out of its cradle, threw it on the floor and then took a strap and beat it. The baby cried all the more. She then picked it up and threw it on a bed and thrust a rag in its mouth. She left it lying there in this condition until it almost went into convulsions.

Meets Death in Mill

(Canadian Press)

WOODSTOCK, N. B., Mar. 6.—Russel Furling, 26 was killed today in a mill at Skill Lake, near here, when a shaft broke and struck him on the head.

SNAPDRAGONS

No garden of annuals is complete without its snapdragons—nothing more easily grown and nothing in the way of garden flowers giving more brilliant and continuous display. Another item in its favor is that it does not require the richest soil by any means, to do exceedingly well. It will flourish in poor soil and will stand drought very well.

At this season of the year it is well to buy plants which are now staple with seedsmen and florists although seed may be sown for a time display during the fall months. Seed is best sown in March and a secret of seed sowing successfully in this case is to give the seedbox a cool room, just warm enough so that it does not freeze. The snapdragon will then develop a short, stocky plants which will give the best results in the garden.

Grown in a warm room early planted seeds in the house in particular will spindle and will have to go through a thickening up process after they are in their permanent beds.
