MacDougall, took place quietly at the home of her parents on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. B. C. Salter officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white net and lace over taffeta with tight bodice, and her fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of roses. After the wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. MacDougall left for a motor trip through the Maritimes. Upon their return they will reside in Kensington, where Mr. MacDougall is accountant of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

TUESDAY

—TO CELEBRATE 92ND BIRTHDAY — Mr. Basil Blacquiere of Summerside will celebrate his 92nd birthday today. The Summerside Band have signified their intention of playing a special number at their opening concert tonight in his honor. Mr. Blacquiere is probably the oldest citizen in Summerside and is most highly esteemed by all classes of citizens. The Guardian joins in extending happy felicitations.

ISLANDERS MEET ROYALTY—During their recent visit to Banff Their Majesties saw many points of interest and throughly enjoyed the rugged scenery. On Saturday morning Major P. J. Jennings, who with Mrs. Jennings welcomed the Royal party on their arrival at Banff was commissioned to take the Royal party to Tunnel Point. Major Jennings led the way with King George, Queen Elizabeth, Lady Munburn-holme and Lord Eldon following. Major Jennings noticed that the Queen had no stick with which to climb so offered her his cane which she graciously accepted saying "I was just wishing for a stick". The King was using an Alpine Stalk when he climbed the point which belonged to Mr. Louis Crosby, a former Islander, who now values is very highly as a souvenir. At the luncheon on Monday for Their Majesties and their party Mr. Crosby was also among the guests and following the luncheon he presented an address on behalf of the Board on Transit Problems and later on the tour spoke for a few minutes on the completion of the Lake Louise-Jasper Road and what it would mean to Banff.

In the passing of William H. Acorn, whose death occurred at his home, 37 Orlebar Street, on Tuesday, June 6th this city lost one of its oldest and most highly respected residents, and the last surviving member of a large family.

He leaves the following sons and daughters to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father: Edward F., Raymond G., and Percy, of this city and William of Toronto, who arrived home to attend his father's funeral, Mrs. Pogson, Saint John, Mrs. Wm. McElman, Dorchester, Mass., and Mrs. Clifford Smith, to all of whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY — The funeral of Mr. Moses Doiron was held yesterday morning from his late residence 29 Alley Street to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Solemn Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Louis Dougan with Rev. W. Keefe as deacon and Rev. W. D. McDonald as sub deacon. Assisting in the sanctuary were His Excellency J. A. O'Sullivan and the pastor Rev. P. McMahon, D. D. Final absolution was given by His ExcellencyJ. A. O'Sullivan. The pallbearers were Messrs. Watson MacKinnon, Abram Peters, Aeneas Curley, Peter McAleer, Jerome Gallant and James McKenna. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Louis Dougan.

There is at present visiting the City and Province the Rev. and Mrs. H. O. T. Burkwall of Canton, China, where they have been missionaries for many years. Mrs. Burkwall was formerly Miss Ethel Reid, daughter of the late Mr. J. D. Reid, manager of the Telephone Company and proprietor of the Tryon Woolen Mills, who died in 1903. Miss Reid, as she then was, graduated from Prince of Wales College and proceeded to Toronto where she graduated from the Normal College and, subsequently, trained for missionary work in China, to which she subsequently went in 1911 representing the Presbyterian Church in Canada. Dr. Burkwall represents the British and Foreign Bible Society in Southern China including Hong Kong territory.

Mr. and Mrs. Burkwall came home with the intention of enjoying a year's rest and returning to the missionary field, but, unfortunately the unsettled state of affairs there has necessitated delay, and they are occupying their time now by deputizing for the Canadian Bible Society, and are making the rounds of the Maritime Provinces in place of the Rev. Mr. Murchison, who is now on leave in England.

Use Minard's for bites.

WEDNESDAY

Mr. David Williams' ambulance conveyed Mrs. George Raynor of Greenmount to the Prince Edward Island Hospital last Sunday, where Mrs. Raynor is now receiving treatment for a broken hip suffered when she fell in an attempt to save her little child from falling down stairs. Mrs. Raynor was formerly Miss Helen Dunbar who was once a pupil here.

On Monday evening last, at 7 o'clock, Miss Dorothy Barnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnett became the bride of Mr. Lloyd Adams, our present mail-driver. The wedding took place at the Manse. Mrs. James Adams, sister of the bride, and Mr. Harry Wells acted as bridesmaid and best man respectively. The happy couple were chivareed by a number of friends, departing with many good wishes for the bride and groom.

—SAD BEREAVEMENT—Mr. and Mrs. George Ceretti of Borden have the sympathy of their friends in the death on Sunday of their son, Jackie, ten years old, after an illness of about two weeks. The little chap was a general favorite and will be much missed by his many young friends. The funeral was held at Borden chapel, Rev. W. E. Monaghan singing the Requiem Mass. Interment was in Seven Mile Bay Cemetery.—S.

—DEATH OF MRS. THEODORE ARSENAULT—Much sympathy is extended to Mr. Theodore Arsenault in the death of his wife which occurred at her home in Mont Carmel on Saturday last. Mrs. Arsenault was only 33 years of age, but had been in poor health for some time. Besides her sorrowing husband nine small children are left to mourn. Her mother, Mrs. Maxime G. Arsenault passed away only last week and to Mr. Arsenault who has been called upon to suffer the bereavement of his wife and daughter within a few days, sincere sympathy is extended. Mrs. Percy Wedge of Summerside is a sister. The funeral was held on Monday from her late home to the Church at Mont Carmel, Rev. Nazaare Poirier conducting the services.—S.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized in Trinity United Church yesterday morning at seven o'clock, when Miss Margaret Elizabeth Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Charles H. Black, of Charlottetown, was united in marriage to Mr. Hillis O. Folkins, Ph. D., son of Mr. and Mrs. David G. Folkins, of Sussex, New Brunswick.

The Reverend Louis M. Murray performed the marriage ceremony.

The wedding marches were played by Professor A. Roy Kendal, and during the signing of the register Mrs. Bert W. Patterson sang "Because."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charmingly attired in a royal blue chiffon dress, with a small white hat and white accessories. She carried a Colonial bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Dorothy Black, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and wore a gown of Queen's blue crepe, with a tiny hat to match, trimmed with mauve. Her bouquet was an old-fashioned nosegay of mixed flowers.

Mr. Folkins had as his groomsman Dr. Clinton Holder, of Truro, N. S.

Mr. Frederick Moore and Mr. Stewart Ives were the ushers.

The annual meeting of the Prince Edward Island Fox Breeders' and Exhibitors' Association was held in the Board of Trade rooms of the Market Building yesterday. Mr. Brenton C. Clarke of Summerside, President, presided.

Following the annual meeting the Directors of the Association met and elected the following officers:

President—G. E. Brown, Charlottetown.

Vice-President—L. W. Hancock Summerside.

Secy.-Treasurer — W. R. Shaw, Charlottetown.

Committees elected were:

Executive: Col. D. A. MacKinnon, A. L. Rogers, A S. Robertson, B. L. Howatt, S.R. Johnstone.

Prize List: J. H. MacPhail, B.L. Howatt, Ernest Cudmore.

Publicity: G. E. Brown, Col. D. A. MacKinnon, W. R. Shaw.

Honorary President of the Association is J. J. E. McCague, Alliston, Ontario, President of the Canadian National Silver Fox Association.

DATES FOR SHOW

Dates for the annual Silver Fox Show were set for November 21 to 25 inclusive. The Directors delayed fixing a date for the Pelt show of which the Association took over the sponsorship at the annual meeting on the suggestion of Mr. L. W. Hancock and on motion of Mr. Geo. MacMillan, seconded by Mr. Andrew Jardine.

In the course of the annual session Mr. W. R. Shaw, Secretary, took an opportunity to express on behalf of the Association sincere regret at the absence of Lt.-Colonel D. A. MacKinnon, "who has done so much in the interest and development of this province and whose energy and dynamic force have been a tremendous asset to this Association." In paying tribute to the work of the Colonel, Mr Shaw stated that in his illness he exemplified that fine spirit of optimism which characterized his many activities and expressed the hope for his speedy recovery.

On the motion of Messrs. Gordon MacMillan and Geo. Brown it was unanimously decided to send a letter of sympathy to Colonel MacKinnon in his illness.

—RECEIVED SAD NEWS—Mrs. Charles MacDonald of Summerside received the sad news on Tuesday morning of the very sudden death of her brother, James McCardle at Moncton, N. B. Mrs. MacDonald left on the afternoon boat accompanied by her family and sister, Mrs. Pascal MacDonald of Hunter River for Moncton, N. B., where she will remain until after the funeral. Mr. MacCardle was employed in the C. N. R. shops in Moncton and was a native of P. E. I. Besides his wife and small family, four sisters and a brother survive. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.—S.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER—Last evening the nurses of the graduating class of the Charlottetown Hospital were entertained at a delightful dinner at the Blue Room of Milton's Old Spain by the members of the Nurses Alumnae. About 20 members were present, the guests being the Misses Kathleen Shreenah, Katherine O'Hanley, Frances Cullen, Joanne MacDonald, Mary Croken. A few words of encouragement were extended the young nurses by the president of the Alumnae, Miss Mary Devereaux, Mrs. St. Clair Trainor and Miss Mae King. A short program of entertainment was furnished by Miss Margaret Campbell.

A quiet and pretty wedding of interest here took place at the Sacred Heart Church, Alberton, at 5 o'clock on Wednesday. The principals were Miss Mary Irene O'rien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin O'Brien, and Frederick Augustus MacKinnon of Tignish. Rev. W. V. MacDonald, P.P., performed the union in the sacred bonds. The bride was becomingly dressed in brown with beige hat and shoes. Miss Doris Gavin of Tignish, a cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and the groom was ably supported by his brother Ronald. The bridal couple were served breakfast at the home of her parents and left immediately to attend the reception of Their Majesties. Their many friends are showering on them wishes for happy years of conjugal bliss.

Large and interested audiences attended music recitals by pupils of Miss Lillian McKenzie, Mus. Bac., in Heartz Hall yesterday afternoon and evening. From beginners to seniors the program was of high merit but perhaps the most interesting feature for those who attend the annual recitals by pupils of this distinguished music teacher was the evidence of steady and in some cases rapid progress of pupils. While all the students gave excellent performances, the playing of four, Sandy Brehaut, Elaine Porter, Elizabeth Martin and Ethelyn MacDonald deserves special mention. They showed outstanding talent, technique and interpretation.

The performance of the Rhythm Band which rendered among other numbers the National Anthem, was a feature of both afternoon and evening recitals.

An interesting part of the program was the presentation of prizes. Winners for "general proficiency" were: Beginners, Walter Conrad; primary, Shelia Morris, Barbara Quigley, Frances Jenkins, Ethelyn MacDonald, Lorna Creelman; elementary, Elizabeth Martin, Elaine Porter, Richard Hurst, Sylvia Chandler; junior, Marjorie Spillett; senior, Louise Cox; theory, Olive Keeping and Joyce Ferguson.

A Prince Edward Islander who has achieved brilliant success abroad is Mr. Wilfred J. Kennedy, recently elected President of the Johannesburg, South Africa, Chamber of Commerce, the first Canadian to fill this prominent position.

Mr. Kennedy was born near Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, fifty-four years ago, and came to South Africa in 1909, when he founded the present firm of Wilfred J. Kennedy Ltd., which has always specialised in the sale of Canadian products, acting as sole representatives for the factories concerned. During the thirty years Wilfred J. Kennedy Ltd. has been in existence, they have been responsible for the sale of millions of dollars worth of Canadian goods in South Africa, which has resulted in the continual employment of many thousands of Canadians in various factories from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

—COUNTY COURT—The June term of the County Court of Prince County commenced at Summerside Court House on Tuesday Judge D. Edgar Shaw presiding. There were eight garnishee cases, six contested cases and five cases stood over from the last term on the docket. The garnishee cases were disposed of in the morning. One of these garnishee cases furnished considerable interest as it concerned part of a fisherman's replacement loan of $190 which had been transferred for a third party's benefit and then had been attached in the hands of the third party. The Judge gave the garnishee the order to have the money paid to him. In the afternoon two contested cases were tried being actions for debt. Judgment went for the defendants in both cases. W. E. Darby for the plaintiffs, and Heath Strong, K.C., for the defendants. The Court adjourned at six o'clock to July 5th when the contested cases which have been set down at various dates to suit the parties will be commenced. All the Summerside lawyers were in attendance at the opening of the Court. S

ALUMNAE TEA—The Notre Dame Alumnae Association held their annual afternoon tea at Notre Dame Academy on Tuesday afternoon, June 20. The hall was tastefully decorated in mauve and yellow and an abundance of spring flowers. The National President of the Canadian Federation of Convent Alumnae, Mrs. H.T. Roesler was present and received the guests with Mrs. M. A. Farmer, president of the local Alumnae, and Mrs. W. D. Gillis, vice-pres. The tea tables were presided over by Mrs. J. A. MacDonald, Cardigan, and Mrs. J. F. Reardon. Mrs. Edmund Murphy cut the ices. The guests were agreeably entertained by Miss Kathleen Hornby's orchestra and by two solos by Miss Laure Jeanne Arsenault. After the tea, the regular annual meeting was held at which Mrs. Roesler gave a very instructive talk on Alumnae work. As a remembrance of her visit the Alumnae presented Mrs. Roesler with a copy of Miss Helen Champion's new book "Over On The Island." Many of the guests took advantage of the opportunity of viewing the display of arts and needlecraft, the product of the pupils of the Academy.

HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIATION—At a recent meeting of the executive of the Prince Street Home and School Association, it was decided to hold the annual meeting of the Association in September. A nominating committee, consisting of Mrs. R. R. Hurst, Mr. F. B. Clarke, Mrs. F. B. Conrad, and the secretary of the Association, was appointed and will report at the closing, June 30th. It was suggested that members who are desirous of contributing prizes, either books or cash, communicate with Mrs. L. Wright, 55 Hillsboro Street. 150 pupils between Grades 1 and 5 received milk from March 1 to June 15. This was made possible by contributions from the children and the generous support received from friends of P.S.S. To the I.O.D.E., the Willing Circle of the King's Daughters, the Guild of St. Peter's Cathedral, Carvell Bros., Sidney T. Green, J.P. Simmonds, L. J. Stacey and numerous members of our organization, we are deeply grateful.

FRIDAY

NEW PATROL ARRIVES—The Charlottetown Police Department was sporting a new police patrol car yesterday. Ordered some time ago by the City Council the Ford V8 patrol went into service yesterday. Officers expressed themselves as much pleased with the new machine. The old patrol, after travelling a distance more than three times around the world and never leaving the confines of Charlottetown is being offered for sale by tender.

SWEETWOOD - MUTCH WEDDING—A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Mutch, Charlottetown, at one thirty yesterday afternoon when their daughter Inez Amelia became the bride of Mr. William David Sweetwood of New York City, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Sweetwood, Norristown, Pennsylvania. The house was decorated for the occasion with a profusion of early summer flowers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Hugh Miller of Trinity United Church. The bride wore a street-length dress of paisley printed crepe, with matching accessories and a corsage of "Better Times" roses and lilies of the valley. The couple was unattended. Miss Pearle Burns, accompanied by Professor A. Roy Kendal sang Henry E. Geehl's "For You Alone." Immediately following the ceremony, a dainty buffet luncheon was served to the guests present, following which Mr. and Mrs. Sweetwood left on a motor trip to the Thousand Islands. The bride, previous to her marriage, was employed as Medical Secretary in the Zurich Insurance Company of New York City, and Mr. Sweetwood is President of the Combustion Maintenance Company, 509 Fifth Avenue, New York City. Their many friends wish them every happiness. Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Mutch also, on the occasion of their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary which occurred yesterday.

HAD NOT CONSIDERED ACT—Premier Thane A. Campbell of Prince Edward Island has not "been able to consider the matter" of taking action to implement the Central Mortgage Bank Act in this Province, he said yesterday. Approved in the dying sessions of the Federal Parliament this spring, the new law will come before the Manitoba Legislature "at the earliest possible opportunity." Premier Campbell's only comment was that, as far as the Government of Prince Edward Island was concerned, the question of making the law operative here had not been considered yet.

The annual recital of the pupils of the Charlottetown School of Music under the direction of Prof. A. Roy Kendall, L.R.A.M., A.A.G.O., was a delightfully interesting function. The various young musicians gave a good account of themselves and by their playing showed what careful study will accomplish.

At the close of the program the distribution of certificates and prizes to the successful candidates at the recent Mt. Allison examinations took place. Miss Joan Storey on behalf of the class made a presentation to Mr. Kendall. The flowers were most artistically arranged by Miss Marianne Saunders.

MULLINS - LEIGHTIZER — A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Dunstan's Basilica at an early hour on Monday morning when Frances Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Mullins, was united in marriage to James Joseph Leightizer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Leightizer, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. McMahon, D. D., who also celebrated nuptial Mass. The bride was attractively gowned in a navy blue suit with rose accessories, wearing a corsage of pink roses and carried a pearl prayer book, the gift of the groom. She was attended by her sister, Miss Anne Mullins who was becomingly attired in a beige dress with brown accessories. The groom was supported by his brother George. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride where a wedding breakfast was served, a number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties and officiating clergyman being present. Mr. and Mrs. Leightizer left on a honeymoon trip to Montreal. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a gold bracelet and to the groomsman a pen and pencil set. The Guardian joins in extending hearty felicitations.
