IMPORTANT NOTICE

Further reports have been received by this Company from the Western portion of the Province, which has been designated as a Disaster Area, on the theft of materials essential to the rebuilding of power lines.

This stealing of materials, which for the most part are in extremely short supply, is particularly reprehensible at this time as it will drastically slow up the reconstruction of lines urgently needed.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police throughout the Province are now keeping a close watch on all lines, and the co-operation of citizens by reporting misdemeanors of this type is urgently requested.

All persons found in illegal possession of line construction materials will be immediately prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

Toronto: Stocks lower; motors stronger but papers liquors down.

New York: Stocks higher; steels and motors firm.

Montreal: List recovers early losses; mining issues stronger.

N. Y. Stocks

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market made a modest comeback Tuesday after its sharp full Monday.

The recovery was moderate and was based chiefly on strength of steels and motors, the two divisions that weakened and pulled the entire market lower the previous day.

At the centre of the stage, however, were the 10,200,000 shares of Ford stock offered at $64.50. Trading started immediately over the counter in Canada with the price pushing up close to a premium of $5 a share. The SEC in Washington cleared the Ford stock late in the day, and it began trading in the New York over-the-counter market at $68.25 bid and $69 asked.

The market as a whole was up 70 cents at $176.90. Monday it lost $2.10. The industrial component went ahead $1.00 while rails added 70 cents but utilities because of several small losers dropped back 20 cents.

There were 15 highs and seven lows for the year scored.

Trading came to 2,050,000 shares compared with 2,260,000 shares Monday.

Canadian issues were mixed. McIntyre gained 1 point, Dome Mines added ⅝ and Canadian Pacific and Hiram Walker both advanced ¼. International Nickel fell ¼ and Distillers Seagram slipped ¼.

On the American stock exchange Lake Shore and Giant Yellowknife both remained unchanged and Royalite Oil fell ⅛.

Toronto Stocks

TORONTO (CP) — The stock market put on a listless showing Tuesday after Monday's decline. There was a firmer undertone at the opening.

Falconbridge moved up $1.25 for the best advance in senior base metals. Coast Copper firmed 50 cents at $7.50. Pater added 17 at $1.77. Low-price issues up in brisk dealings included Consolidated Halliwell, Brunston, Farwest Tungsten and Brunhurst. Temagami slipped 25 cents to $3.50 after climbing to $3.95.

Golds alone recorded an index gain. McIntyre added $1 and Bulolo 35 cents at $6.

Nesbitt Labine was a standout in a sluggish uranium section, jumping 68 cents to $2.98.

Among western oils, Canadian Williston traded 1,000 shares down 30 cents at $2. Elsewhere changes went to about 30 cents. Best gains were posted by General Pete, General Pete A, Prairie and Canadian Prospects.
