Canadian Financial Group Will Provide Risk Capital

By DON SANRIGHT

OTTAWA (CP)—Another specialized investment team of Canadian financial institutions is in the works — the second to emerge this year.

The royal commission on banking and finance was told here that negotiations have been going on for about a year on a consortium to invest in stocks of new business enterprises in Canada.

W. J. McCarthy, one or 10 witnesses before the commission from the Canadian Life Insurance Officers Association, said he is hopeful the new organization will be launched formally before the end of 1962.

Outside the hearing Mr. McCarthy, associate treasurer of Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, said the group would include several insurance companies, two chartered banks, a trust company, a pension fund and "other financial institution..."

ROYNAT FORMED

Earlier this year RoyNat Limited was formed in Montreal by the Royal Bank of Canada, Banque Canadienne Nationale, the Montreal Trust Company and the Canada Trust Company. It said it was ready to meet term-capital needs of approved business applications in amounts of $25,000 and more.

Commissioner J. H. MacKeen of Halifax, a director of the Royal Bank, noted that in earlier hearings some witnesses said the government should force institutions—trust and insurance companies, for example—to keep about 10 per cent of their assets in new companies which otherwise find it difficult to raise capital.

J. T. Bryden of Toronto, chief association spokesman and general manager of the North American Life Assurance Company, said that in many cases $300,000 or more is required nowadays to start a new business in Canada and this is a high risk for many investors.

The consortium now emerging would spread this risk among several companies and at the same time make more equity capital available, he said.

Federal law now limits the common stock investment of each life insurance company to 15 per cent of its assets — and those stocks must be in corporations which have paid at least a four - per - cent dividend for seven straight years.

The association said it wants the 15-per-cent limit raised—but only for future use if market conditions improved. It described the present market in Canada for investment - grade stocks as narrow.

Britain, U.S. Plan To Yield Over Test Ban

By HAROLD MORRISON

WASHINGTON (CP) — The United States and Britain are reported prepared to yield further ground in their inspection and control demands in new attempts to negotiate a nuclear test-ban treaty with the Soviet Union.

These new three - power nuclear test - ban talks will take place at Geneva when the 17-country East - West disarmament conference resumes Monday after a month-long recess.

While officials declined to discuss details of new Western positions which were worked out here with Canada represented, the general view was that there would be "further modifications" in the Western disarmament proposals, particularly in test ban controls.

These would be in line with preliminary conclusions reached by the U.S. defence department, indicating improvements in detection of underground nuclear explosions by seismic means, both by surface instruments and those sunk in deep holes such as abandoned oil wells.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By B. JAY BECKER

QUIZ

You are South, both sides vulnerable. The bidding has been:

North	East	South	West
1♣	Pass	1♠	Pass
3♣	Pass	?

What would you now bid with each of the following four hands?

1. ♠Q6652 ♥K72 ♦J95 ♣52
2. ♠A9742 ♥8 ♦Q65 ♣K764
3. ♠AKJ52 ♥862 ♦K952 ♣7
4. ♠AK85 ♥74 ♦J63 ♣AJ52

1. Pass. The three club bid is not forcing and merely urges us to bid again if possible. It invites a further bid if we have more than the 6-point minimum ordinarily expected of a suit response in the one level, since we have no excess values beyond those already announced, the best thing to do is pass.

2. Five clubs. We don't have much in high cards, but what we have is well laid out. Not only do we hold good support for partner's suit, but we also have first round control of spades, second round control of hearts, and the queen of diamonds for whatever it is worth.

All these features add up to more than a simple raise to four clubs, which we would give if we held, say, the queen of spades instead of the ace. The jump to five permits partner to go on to a slam with a suitable hand.

3. Three diamonds. This is an all-purpose bid. At the moment, it seems likely that the best contract is game in spades or notrump. The three diamond bid enables partner to contract for three notrump with heart strength, and also permits him to bid three spades if he has secondary support for that suit.

It is better to bid three diamonds than three spades. The failure to mention diamonds might result in by-passing the best contract of three notrump. The inequality of our two suits is ignored for the sake of testing for the best contract. An added advantage of bidding the second suit is that it warns partner we may be short in clubs.

4. Six clubs. Here you have to grab the bull by the horns and bid the slam. Partner is known to have jumped in clubs with a broken suit (since we have the A-J), and since he has at most only 5 points in clubs, he is bound to have considerable strength in hearts and diamonds for his jump rebid.

You can't tell just where the twelve tricks are coming from, but that shouldn't stop you from bidding the slam. The chances are that partner has about 17 points in high cards, bringing the combined total to only 30 points, but his great club length figures to make up in tricks what our side lacks in high-card point count.

CASCUMPEC

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bearisto, Dixiefield, Maine, recently spent a few days visiting at the "old farm home", Cascumpec.

Mr. and Mrs. Hylson Proude of Charlottetown were recent weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Carruthers were Sunday visitors to Cascumpec, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Carruthers Jr.

Work is progressing favorably on the new "Drive-in-Theatre" and it is expected to open in the near future. Fred and Gordon White, Alberton, are the proprietors. It is situated on the farm owned by Firth MacNeil. They have purchased seven acres on the shore front, including a beautiful beach and bath houses for those who care to swim.

A large number from this vicinity attended the Evangelistic services conducted by Mr. Jim Jones of South Carolina in the Elmsdale United Church which were held for ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Coughlin were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dennis.

Yesterday's Answer

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X B
L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
