Six More Credit Unions Planned

Establishment of six more credit unions in this city is foreseen if present plans materialize. They will be in the nature of industrial credit unions and will probably be formed in industries where there are large numbers of employees.

For some time past formation of such a union among Federal Civil Service employees has been discussed and to this end a meeting of the employees has been called for next Tuesday, November 3, when the aims and purposes of credit unions will be fully explained to the group. It is believed that all branches of this service have a total possible credit union membership of approximately 450.

Five other similar groups will be met with later, but their identities have not yet been revealed. However, it is believed that credit union membership in the city will pass the 2,000 mark within the next two weeks.

getting back to work.

Bartolo Calvsavara, another first-place winner, whooped exuberantly, "Mama mia." He is a 62-year-old janitor with the Ford Motor Company in Windsor, Ont. He will discard the broom next spring and take Mama back to Italy for a visit. He hasn't seen his native country in 32 years.

A man who signed himself "Lucky 8" also collects $137,500—Walter Burley of the Toronto suburb of North York. He's all set to pay off the mortgage on his house, buy a new car and clothes and head for Florida " for a long rest." Said Mrs. Burley: "I knew I married the right man; I took him for richer or poorer."

A top prize winner was Wah Quan, a Chinese merchant in Victoria. Father of three children, he says he has been buying tickets for 26 years, usually in books of 12. This is his first win but neither he nor his family would let themselves get over-excited.

Maurice Morin of Flin Flon, Man., didn't bother with a nome de plume but his luck held anyway. He is one of the second-place winners of $57,500. So is "Peggy", who turned out to be George W. Holman of Toronto.

Donat Toupin of L'Aboard a Plouffe, Que., and Carl Hansen of Vancouver also disdained noms de plume and collect $27,500 each on Fair Colleen. The third lucky ticket-holder for $27,500 signed himself "Colin." He is Colin Marcel Clayton of North Vancouver.

A total of 176 Canadian tickets were drawn in the sweepstake.

Holders of tickets on horses that were scratched or that finished out of the running will receive approximately $1,200 each.
