Select Architect For New Hospital

Mr. Leslie Fair, Wolfville, N.S., has been selected as the architect for the new Prince County Hospital. It was disclosed last evening by Mr. W. S. Darby, president of the hospital board. Mr. Fair is a well known hospital architect and has designed the plans for many of the newer hospitals in the Maritimes.

He is now engaged in the preparation of preliminary plans to be presented to the building committee of the board within the next two weeks. Mr. Fair visited the site for the new hospital on Summer Street North, said Mr. Darby, and thought it admirably suited for the purpose.

The new building will have a capacity of one hundred beds and will be modern in every detail. —S.

Borden

Friends here learned with regret that Mrs. Eddie Richard of Borden had entered the Prince County Hospital for treatment and hope that she will soon be enjoying good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Amedee Bourgeois and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Burke and son Leon of Shediac, N.B., were visitors to Borden on Sunday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kelly.

Mr. Gordon MacKenzie of Borden who left last week for Wolfville to enter Acadia University returned home later, many students having been refused admittance owing to large numbers attending. Mr. MacKenzie has been assured of admittance next year and in the meantime he is supplying as Vice-principal for Borden School.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Paquet of Borden and Mr. and Mrs. Jules Gaudet of Charlottetown motored to Souris for a short visit this week.

Miss Louise Dalziel of Sinclair & Stewart's, Summerside, was guest of her friend Miss Pauline MacIsaac at Borden over the week end.

Miss Frances Bagnall of Hunter River visited Borden on Sunday, guest of her friend Miss Phyllis White.

Mr. Joseph Kelly of Borden recently visited his mother Mrs. John Howatt and Mr. Howatt at Vernon River.

Friends of Mrs. Thomas Gallant are glad to learn that she is recovering from illness. She is recovering in the Charlottetown Hospital and expects soon to return to her home in Borden.

Mrs. Don MacPherson, teacher of the intermediate department of Borden School, is convalescing from home through illness. Mrs. Frank Butler of Borden is filling the vacancy pro tem.

Mrs. Clyde Denton of Little River, N.S., is spending a few weeks with her sister Mrs. Gordon Jay at Borden. —A.
