IN MEMORIAM

SELLAR — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Robert James Sellar, Wheatley River, who passed away April 15, 1958.

One year ago we had to part
With one we loved with all our hearts.
Each leaf and flower may wither,
The evening sun may set;
But the hearts that loved you dearly
Are the ones who won't forget.
Your life is a beautiful memory
You had a cheery smile, a pleasant way.
A helping hand to all you knew,
You were so kind, so generous and true,
You sleep in God's beautiful garden
In the sunshine of perfect peace.

Lovingly remembered by wife, son Theo and Doris.

SELLAR — In loving memory of my darling father Robert James Sellar of Wheatley River, who passed away April 15, 1958.

Though your smile is gone forever,
And your hand I cannot touch,
Still I have so many memories
Of a Dad I loved so much.
Your memory is a keepsake,
With which I'll never part,
God has you in His keeping,
I have you in my heart.

Lovingly and always remembered by daughter, Lucy Ferne (Darnley).

SELLAR — In loving memory of our grandfather, Robert J. Sellar, who passed away April 15, 1958.

We lost a grandfather
With a heart of gold,
Who was more to us
Than wealth untold.
Without farewell he fell asleep,
Leaving only memories
For us to keep.
We lost, but God gained
One of the best grandfathers
The world contained.

Lovingly remembered by grandchildren: Marilyn, Robert, Carol and Harvey.

LOCKE — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Mr. Willard Locke, who passed away April 15, 1952.

God only know how much we miss him
But the hearts that have always loved him
Are the ones that loved him best.

Lovingly remembered by wife and daughter Shirley.

HOWLETT — In loving memory of "Mother" (Mrs. John Howlett) who fell asleep in Jesus April 15th 1953.

Asleep in Jesus Blesed sleep
From which none ever wake to weep
A calm and undisturbed repose
Unbroken by the last of foes.

Ever remembered Jean, Roy and Elby.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my kind neighbors and friends for sympathy cards and letters received during my recent bereavement.

Mrs. L. E. MacKinnon, Canoe Cove.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. AUSTIN HOGAN

Mr. Austin Hogan passed away peacefully from life on earth at Emerald, on March 13th, 1959, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Austin Murphy. Mr. Hogan was 78 years of age.

He was born in Hope River, the son of William H. Hogan and Mary A. (Nolan) Hogan. He lived in Hope River nearly all his life, except the last ten years, which he spent in Emerald. His wife, the former Laura Reid, predeceased him about twenty years ago.

Symptoms of failing health became noticeable about six months ago, and all the kind attention of relatives and friends could not prevail against the progress of the grim reaper and his spirit took its flight to the great beyond.

His earthly sojourn was a living example of all that is good in humanity. It can be truly said that he was an exponent of the first Beautitude "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for they shall possess the Kingdom of Heaven".

His mortal remains were laid to rest in Hope River church cemetery on March 15th. A High Mass of Requiem was sung by Rev. Father Dalton, the pastor, before a large funeral congregation. Rev. Eugene Murray of Summerfield parish assisted in the sanctuary.

The many letters and expressions of sympathy testify to the high regard in which Mr. Hogan was held by those who had the pleasure of his friendship.

The pall bearers were Austin Bolger, Walter Reid, James Allen, Spencer Hughes, Bennett Deighan and Clifford Simpson.

Requiescat in Pace.

In Times of Sorrow

When death comes to any home, those who survive have the sad duty of informing others of the loss that has been suffered. These newspapers offer the following carefully planned services as a means of assisting in that task:

OBITUARIES

Brief news reports of deaths will be published under this heading without charge, whenever necessary information is supplied without delay. In most cases it is best to have the undertaker supply the facts required to the newspapers.

If more convenient, these reports may be supplied directly to the news department of The Guardian and The Evening Patriot, in Charlottetown, or to any of the news bureaus of the paper, in Summerside, Montague, Alberton or Souris.

All such reports should include the full name, age, place of birth and occupation of the deceased; date of death; names and addresses of closely-related survivors and the date, time and place of funeral. Special distinctions in the career of the deceased—such as war service and offices held—also should be included.

DEATHS, FUNERALS

Traditional formal notices, supplied without delay following death, will be published under this heading, in a new department which will appear daily in the columns immediately adjoining the classified advertising section.

Ordinarily it is preferable to have such notices placed by the undertaker, or they may be placed directly with the Classified Advertising Department or the branch offices of The Guardian and The Evening Patriot.

In any case in which notices are received too late in the day for inclusion in the new department, they will be published on page two for one edition and transferred to the regular department for the next edition.

DEATH NOTICES

When traditional formal notices of death are not supplied until after the funeral has taken place, they will appear as "Death Notices," rather than under the heading of "Deaths, Funerals," but will be grouped in the same new daily department adjoining the classified advertising section.

Many items such as have formerly appeared under an "In Memorial" heading will in future be published as "Death Notices."

All notices of this kind should be placed with the Classified Advertising Department in Charlottetown or at the branch offices of the newspapers.

IN MEMORIAM

In future this heading will be used only for tributes to those who have been dead for a year or more, or to mark a definite anniversary of death.

"In Memoriam" notices should be placed with the Classified Advertising Department.

CARDS OF THANKS

Notices under this heading may be placed as separate items, or included at the end of "Death Notices." They should be placed with the Classified Advertising Department.

The purpose of the new grouping of all notices dealing with bereavement is to make this information easier to find for readers—easier to place for those who have been bereaved. The new department, in columns adjoining the classified advertising section, starts on April 20 and will appear daily thereafter.
